Religious Pluralism In South Asia And Europe:

Religious Pluralism in South Asia and Europe Jamal Malik, Helmut Reifeld, 2005 12 Essays Bring An Extraordinary Range Of Voices And Experiences To The Dialogue Of Religious Pluralism A Rich And Challenging Collection Of Interest To Those Interested In The Public Debate On The Possibility Of Harmonious Co Existence Between Peoples Of Diverse Faiths Divided Under 3 Main Heads Legitimation Of Plurality Individual Church And Community Living Plurality Islam in South Asia Jamal Malik, 2008 Islamic South Asia has become a focal point in academia Where did Muslims come from How did they fare in interacting with Hindu cultures How did they negotiate identity as ruling and ruled minorities and majorities Part I covers early Muslim expansion and the formative phase in context of initial cultural encounter app 700 1300 Part II views the establishment of Muslim empire cultures oscillating between Islamic and Islamicate centralised and regionalised power app 1300 1700 Part III is composed in the backdrop of regional centralisation territoriality and colonial rule displaying processes of integration and differentiation of Muslim cultures in colonial setting app 1700 1930 Tensions between Muslim pluralism and singularity evolving in public sphere make up the fourth cluster app 1930 2002 Secularism, Decolonisation, and the Cold War in South and Southeast Asia Clemens Six, 2017-07-20 The intensifying conflicts between religious communities in contemporary South and Southeast Asia signify the importance of gaining a clearer understanding of how societies have historically organised and mastered their religious diversity Based on extensive archival research in Asia Europe and the United States this book suggests a new approach to interpreting and explaining secularism not as a Western concept but as a distinct form of practice in 20th century global history In six case studies on the contemporary history of India Indonesia Malaysia and Singapore it analyses secularism as a project to create a high degree of distance between the state and religion during the era of decolonisation and the emerging Cold War between 1945 and 1970 To demonstrate the interplay between local and transnational dynamics the case studies look at patterns of urban planning the struggle against religious nationalism conflicts around religious education and anti communism as a dispute over secularism and social reform The book emphasises in particular the role of non state actors as key supporters of secular statehood a role that has thus far not received sufficient attention A novel approach to studying secularism in Asia the book discusses the different ways that global transformations such as decolonisation and the Cold War interacted with local relations to reshape and relocate religion in society It will be of interest to scholars of Religious Studies International Relations and Politics Studies of Empire Cold War Studies Subaltern Studies Modern Asian History and South and Southeast Asian Studies Religious Diversity in Europe Riho Altnurme, Elena Arigita, Patrick Pasture, 2022-03-10 Drawing on research funded by the European Commission this book explores how religious diversity has been and continues to be represented in cultural contexts in Western Europe particularly to teenagers in textbooks museums and exhibitions popular youth culture including TV and online as well as in political speech Topics include the findings from focus group interviews with teenagers in schools across

Europe the representation of minority religions in museums migration and youth subculture The Development of Pluralism in Modern Britain and France Richard Bonney, David J. B. Trim, 2007 Europe is increasingly multi ethnic and multi faith as well as multi cultural Western democracies now comprise a plurality of fundamental opinions and inherited cultures it is not clear how or if they can be related to each other without involving either oppression or anarchy This debate requires historical understanding and a contemporary grasp of the points at issue amongst different cultures By virtue of their proximity and frequent historical interaction Britain and France lend themselves to comparative study The studies in this volume collectively demonstrate that the affairs of religious minorities in these two countries were not only of concern to themselves and their national established churches Rather over a long term period they had a sustained impact on many other issues All chapters illustrate the problematic shift from a persecutory to a pluralistic mentality

Minorities and Populism - Critical Perspectives from South Asia and Europe Volker Kaul, Ananya Vajpeyi, 2020-02-28 This volume assembles renowned scholars to address for the first time the relationship between minorities and populism in South Asia and Europe from a critical perspective Despite the very different and to some extent opposite historical and political trajectories there is today a convergence on nationalist affirmation and on majoritarian politics between South Asia and Europe In India the Hindu majority rebels against wide ranging minority rights anchored in the Constitution In Europe the refugee crisis and Islamic radicalization bring to the forefront the postcolonial legacy Despite all rhetoric there are obvious dangers of majoritarianism Populist parties are divisive partisan disregard minority rights engage in lynching social division stigmatization and exclusion turning minorities into second class citizens There is a profound structural connection between minorities and the current rise of populism in India and Europe But there remains a deep perplexity and also anxiety Does the presence of minorities necessarily have to trigger majoritarian policies Are there no solutions to this dilemma Many observers considered multicultural policies and affirmative action programs in India as a possible model for Europe to adopt in order to achieve greater integration But eventually they seem to have failed Why so Are multiculturalism and the recognition of differences still options today On the other hand most scholars in India typically reject the European model of liberal democracy and secularism as impracticable in India and locate the reason for the current malaise in the west But is liberal democracy really so bad in dealing with pluralism This volume collecting a selection of the Reset DOC Venice Padua Delhi dialogue series is going to answer two fundamental questions First what precisely is the nexus between minorities and populism in South Asia and Europe Starting from those case studies the authors will also draw some general theoretical inferences about the nature of populism Secondly given the dangers of populism for minorities the volume will look for the most adequate and feasible solutions

Dynamics of Islam in the Modern World Saeed Zarrabi-Zadeh, Armina Omerika, Thomas K. Gugler, Michael E. Asbury, 2022-07-11 Dynamics of Islam in the Modern World scrutinizes and analyzes Islam in context It posits Muslims not as independent and autonomous but as relational and interactive agents of change and continuity who interplay with Islamic ate sources of self and society as well as with resources from other traditions Representing multiple disciplinary approaches the contributors to this volume discuss a broad range of issues such as secularization colonialism globalization radicalism human rights migration hermeneutics mysticism religious normativity and pluralism while paying special attention to three geographical settings of South Asia the Middle East and Euro America

Migration and Religion in Europe Ester Gallo,2016-04-22 Religious practices and their transformation are crucial elements of migrants identities and are increasingly politicized by national governments in the light of perceived threats to national identity As new immigrant flows shape religious pluralism in Europe longstanding relations between the State and Church are challenged together with majority faith traditions and societies ways of representing and perceiving themselves With attention to variations according to national setting this volume explores the process of reformulating religious identities and practices amongst South Asian communities in European contexts Presenting a wide range of ethnographies including studies of Hinduism Sikhism Jainism and Islam amongst migrant communities in contexts as diverse as Norway Italy the UK France and Portugal Migration and Religion in Europe sheds light on the meaning of religious practices to diasporic communities It examines the manner in which such practices can be used by migrants and local societies to produce distance or proximity as well as their political significance in various host nations Offering insights into the affirmation of national identities and cultures and the implications of this for governance and political discourse within Europe this book will appeal to scholars with interests in anthropology religion and society migration transnationalism and gender

Religious Diversity in Asia Jørn Borup,Marianne Qvortrup Fibiger,Lene Kühle,2019-10-01 The religious landscape in Asia has long been diverse with various forms of syncretic traditions and pragmatic practices continuously having been challenged by centrifugal forces of differentiation This anthology explores representations and managements of religious diversity in Japan China South Korea Vietnam the Philippines Indonesia Sri Lanka India and diaspora religions originating in these countries seen through the lenses of history identity state ritual and geography In addition to presenting empirical cases the chapters also address theoretical and methodological reflections using Asia as a laboratory for further comparative research of the relevance and use of religious diversity Contributors are Donald Baker Ugo Dessi Chung Van Hoang Ayelet Harel Shalev Noa Levy Gideon Elazar Santosh K Singh Yu Tao Ed Griffith Satoko Fujiwara Uwe Skoda Tudor Silva Martin Tsang Marianne Q Fibiger J rn Borup and Lene K hle Religious Diversity in Asia was made possible by a framework grant from the Danish Agency for Science Technology and Innovation allowing the grant holder J rn Borup and two colleagues Marianne Q Fibiger and Lene K hle to host a workshop at Aarhus University and to co arrange workshops in Delhi and Nagoya We would like to thank professors Arshad Alam and Michiaki Okuyama for hosting these latter workshops at Jawaharlal Nehru University and Nanzan University and we would like to thank Professor Chong Suh Kim for the invitation for J rn Borup to visit Seoul National University We would also like to extend our gratitude to all the scholars who participated in the workshops and to all the authors we subsequently invited to contribute to our endeavor to create this academically relevant volume

Religious Pluralism, State and Society in Asia Chiara Formichi, 2013-10-01 Taking a critical approach to the concept of religious pluralism this book examines the dynamics of religious co existence in Asia as they are directly addressed by governments or indirectly managed by groups and individuals It looks at the quality of relations that emerge in encounters among people of different religious traditions or among people who hold different visions within the same tradition Chapters focus in particular on the places of everyday religious diversity in Asian societies in order to explore how religious groups have confronted new situations of religious diversity The book goes on to explore the conditions under which active religious pluralism emerges or not from material contexts of diversity

Religious Education in Asia Kerry J. Kennedy, John Chi-Kin Lee, 2020-08-30 The book examines ancient religious traditions and modernity in a globalized Asia that is as much in need of a moral compass as it is economic development Religious education has been an aspect of many societies over time and irrespective of culture Yet as globalization advances local values are challenged every day by internationalized discourses and global perspectives It is this context that provides the rationale for this edited book It seeks to understand what forms religious education takes in Asian contexts and what role it continues to play On the one hand the societies which are the subject of this book reflect ancient religious traditions but on the other they are responsible for a significant portion of the world s economic development The book will appeal to researchers interested in the current state of religious education in Asia policymakers with responsibility for religious education and teachers who practice religious education on a daily basis

The New Governance of Religious Diversity Tariq Modood, Thomas Sealy, 2024-06-11 Religious diversity is a key feature of countries across the world today but it also presents governments with very real challenges Controversies around religious free speech symbols social values and morals and the role of faith leaders as critical voices are just a few of the issues that have given rise to fierce social political and scholarly debate So how do states include and accommodate religious diversity and should this change What are the key difficulties facing states when it comes to governing religious diversity Understanding this complex phenomenon means thinking through secularism liberalism multiculturalism and nationalism in theory and practice In this new book Tariq Modood and Thomas Sealy draw on original research to present new ways of analysing the governance of religious diversity in different regions of the world Identifying the key challenges at stake they also argue for a new statement of multiculturalism in relation to the governance of religious diversity that of multiculturalised secularism which represents a constructive and productive response to the reality of religiously plural societies

Exploring Religious Diversity and Covenantal Pluralism in Asia Dennis R. Hoover, 2022-12-26 This book examines the growing diversity of religions and worldviews across South Central Asia and the factors affecting prospects for covenantal pluralism in these regions Going beyond banal appeals for mere tolerance the theory of covenantal pluralism calls for a constitutional order of religious freedom and equal treatment combined with a culture of practical religious literacy and everyday virtues of engagement across lines of religious difference According to the Pew Religious Diversity Index half of the world's most religiously diverse countries are in Asia The presence of deep religious worldview difference is often seen as a potential threat to socio political cohesion or even as a source of violent conflict Yet in Asia as elsewhere the degree of this diversity is not consistently associated with socio political problems Indeed while religious difference is implicated in some social challenges there are also many instances of respectful multi faith engagement practical collaboration and peaceful debate Volume II offers a pioneering exploration of the prospects for this robust and non relativistic type of pluralism in South Central Asia Volume I examined East Southeast Asia The chapters in these volumes originally appeared as research articles in a series on covenantal pluralism published by The Review of Faith International Affairs

The Politics of Religion in South and Southeast Asia Ishtiaq Ahmed, 2011-05-04 The notion of a politics of religion refers to the increasing role that religion plays in the politics of the contemporary world This book presents comparative country case studies on the politics of religion in South and South Asia including India Pakistan and Indonesia The politics of religion calls into question the relevance of modernist notions of secularism and democracy with the emphasis instead on going back to indigenous roots in search of authentic ideologies and models of state and nation building Within the context of the individual countries chapters focus on the consequences that politics of religion has on inclusive nation building democracy and the rights of individuals minorities and women The book makes a contribution to both the theoretical and conceptual literature on the politics of religion as well as shed light on the implications and ramifications of the politics of religion on contemporary South Asian and South East Asian countries It is of interest to students and scholars of South and South East Asian Studies as well as Comparative Politics

Routledge Handbook on the Governance of Religious Diversity Anna Triandafyllidou, Tina Magazzini, 2020-12-30 This book critically reviews state religion models and the ways in which different countries manage religious diversity illuminating different responses to the challenges encountered in accommodating both majorities and minorities The country cases encompass eight world regions and 23 countries offering a wealth of research material suitable to support comparative research Each case is analysed in depth looking at historical trends current practices policies legal norms and institutions By looking into state religion relations and governance of religious diversity in regions beyond Europe we gain insights into predominantly Muslim countries Egypt Morocco Tunisia Turkey Indonesia Malaysia countries with pronounced historical religious diversity India and Lebanon and into a predominantly migrant pluralist nation Australia These insights can provide a basis for re thinking European models and learning from experiences of governing religious diversity in other socio economic and geopolitical contexts Key analytical and comparative reflections inform the introduction and concluding chapters This volume offers a research and study companion to better understand the connection between state religion relations and the governance of religious diversity in order to inform both policy and research efforts in accommodating religious diversity Given its accessible language and
