The background of the entire image is a dramatic, fiery sunset or sunrise. The sky is a deep orange and red, with a large, bright sun or moon partially obscured by dark, silhouetted clouds. In the foreground, a large American flag is draped across the bottom half of the frame. The flag's stars and stripes are clearly visible, with the blue field of stars on the right side. The overall mood is intense and patriotic.

Volume III F. E. Peters, 2018-06-05 Invoking a concept as simple as it is brilliant F E Peters has taken the basic texts of the three related and competitive religious systems we call Judaism Christianity and Islam and has juxtaposed them in a topical and parallel arrangement according to the issues that most concerned all these children of Abraham Through these extensive passages and the author's skillful connective commentary the three traditions are shown with their similarities sometimes startlingly underlined and their well known differences now more profoundly exposed What emerges from this unique and ambitious work is a panorama of belief practice and sensibility that will broaden our understanding of our religious and political roots in a past that is by these communities definition still the present The hardcover edition of the work is bound in one volume and in the paperback version the identical material is broken down into three smaller but self contained books The third The Works of the Spirit focuses on spirituality and worship and contains material on monasticism theology mysticism and the End Time Throughout the work we hear an amazing variety of voices some familiar some not all of them central to the primary and secondary canons of their own tradition alongside the Scriptural voice of God are the words of theologians priests visionaries lawyers rulers and the ruled The work ends as does the same author's now classic Children of Abraham in what Peters calls the classical period that is before the great movements of modernism and reform that were to transform Judaism Christianity and Islam      The Fundamentals of Christianity Henry Clay Vedder, 1922      Christian education, in a course of lectures George Edward Biber, 1830      St. Paul in Britain, Or, The Origin of British Christianity as Opposed to Papal Christianity Williams Morgan, 1925      Regulating Religion Catharine Cookson, 2001-03-29 Jurisprudence regarding the free exercise of religion clause of the U S Constitution is in a state of confusion There has been a series of rapid changes in the standard used by the Supreme Court to determine when a statute impermissibly restricts free exercise The trend is now towards greater acceptance of government claims about the importance of regulation over religious practices Here Cookson challenges the wisdom of this judicial drift and its false dichotomy between anarchy and a system that respects religious freedom In its place she offers a new practical approach to resolving free exercise conflicts that could be used in both federal and state courts Cookson shows the reader how violations of religious freedom affect the community whose values are at stake      Overcoming Passion for Race in Malaysia Cultural Studies David C.L. Lim, 2008-06-30 Overcoming Passion examines the passion for race in contemporary Malaysia Broadly the essays look at the disjunction between the falsity of race as a scientific category and the entrenched belief that race determines one's rightful identity They probe the ways in which individual minds and institutions of power fail or refuse to recognise and act in accordance with the knowledge that race exists only insofar as its existence is sustained by the believer's belief in it The contributors draw from a burgeoning but under examined archive of Malaysia related social texts ranging from media and technological discourse popular culture and literary production to historical writings produced originally in English Malay and Mandarin Chinese      The Return of Gabriel Richard V. Shriver, 2005-11-03 This collection of letters is a continuation of my earlier collection The Gabriel Letters I stumbled on the idea of writing imagined letters from an archangel advising a young guardian while reading an introduction to C S Lewis Screwtape Letters It has been a marvelous way perhaps delusional of standing back and imagining that I can see the world through angel eyes The amazing result for me has been a sense of objectivity and good will The intended purpose of the letters is to apply to all things the idea of God's complete love self sacrificing eternal parent like love This idea is the center of Christianity It is Jesus message and it is St Paul's good news If we desire to be Christian we should begin it seems to me by attempting to apply Jesus teachings to all things to our behavior to our human relationships especially family to our work and our business dealings to the way we run our churches and to the way we study the scriptures If we take Jesus seriously we must reevaluate much of the Bible the parts which are not specifically the teachings of Jesus Jesus Himself questioned much of the scriptures These letters cover a variety of subjects many of them Biblical Some Biblical passages need correction in light of Jesus ideas Some Biblical passages are so marvelous that we need to lift them to the sky and shout Look at this Some Biblical passages are confusing and we need to wrestle with them But in all we should be trying to see them through Jesus eyes To see through Jesus eyes is I suspect what the true Gabriel wants and it is the intent of this book Richard V Shriver      The Christian Union Henry Ward Beecher, 1873      The Christian Century, 1924      Lectures on the Evidences of Revealed Religion George Washington

Religion and American Exceptionalism Dennis Hoover,2020-06-09 American exceptionalism was once a rather obscure and academic concept but in the 2012 presidential election campaign the phrase attained unprecedented significance in political rhetoric President Obama's conservative critics most notably Sarah Palin Newt Gingrich and Mitt Romney accused the president of disbelieving in American exceptionalism and thereby offending the nation's civil religion This creed traditionally has included the notion that America is a political new Israel called by God and guided by His Providence to be the exemplar vanguard and champion of liberal democracy and the free market for all humanity The newly politicized narrative of exceptionalism portrayed Obama as a president embarrassed by his own country and intent on remaking the United States in the image of the secularist and socialist countries of Europe This book takes a step back from the partisan rhetorical bluster and examines afresh the historical and analytical meanings of American exceptionalism and the extent to which religion both real religion and the more ambiguous civil religion has shaped these meanings and their uses abuses This book was published as a special issue of The Review of Faith and International Affairs     Thoughts on the Value of Feelings in Religion Johann Joachim Spalding,1827     Indian Religion and Philosophy Mr. Rohit Manglik,2024-06-19 EduGorilla Publication is a trusted name in the education sector committed to empowering learners with high quality study materials and resources Specializing in competitive exams and academic support EduGorilla provides
