Historians have long been aware that the encounter with Europeans affected all aspects of Native American life But were Indians the only ones changed by these cross cultural meetings Might the newcomers ways including their religious beliefs and practices have also been altered amid their myriad contacts with native peoples In Encounters of the Spirit Richard W. Pointer takes up these intriguing questions in an innovative study of the religious encounter between Indians and Euro Americans in early America Exploring a series of episodes across the three centuries of the colonial era and stretching from New Spain to New France and the English settlements he finds that the flow of cultural influence was more often reciprocal than unidirectional The Religious Experience and Prophecies of H. Hutchinson ... Written by Himself Henry HUTCHINSON (of Heighington, Durham.), 1854 Charming Cadavers Liz Wilson, 1996-12

In this highly original study of sexuality desire the body and women Liz Wilson investigates first millennium Buddhist notions of spirituality She argues that despite the marginal role women played in monastic life they occupied a very conspicuous place in Buddhist hagiographic literature In narratives used for the edification of Buddhist monks women's bodies in decay diseased dying and after death served as a central object for meditation inspiring spiritual growth through sexual abstention and repulsion in the immediate world Taking up a set of universal concerns connected with the representation of women Wilson displays the pervasiveness of androcentrism in Buddhist literature and practice She also makes persuasive use of recent historical work on the religious lives of women in medieval Christianity finding common ground in the role of miraculous afflictions This lively and readable study brings provocative new tools and insights to the study of women in religious life Encountering Mystery Dale C. Allison, 2022-07-26

Despite widespread skepticism on the matter a significant number of people today have stories of religious experience moments of inexplicable terror or rapturous joy visions near death experiences of the afterlife encounters with angels heavenly voices and premonitions How should rationally minded people respond What would your reaction be if someone told you that one night while sitting alone she saw through the window a brilliant light descend from the sky until it was so large that it filled the room and that it radiated a feeling of pure love And what would you say if a friend confided that one night he woke up and could not move felt he was being suffocated and sensed an evil spirit in the room By default in the secular age we are skeptical about anything mysterious or supernatural More likely than not most people would respond to the stories above with embarrassment and concern about the person's grasp of reality or they would attempt to explain them away through rational or scientific means But the truth is that religious experiences like these are not as uncommon as they seem although talking about such experiences often is This is the case even in a faith tradition such as Christianity despite the Bible's numerous accounts of miraculous and mysterious happenings In Encountering Mystery noted biblical scholar Dale Allison makes the argument that stories of religious experience are meaningful and not to be marginalized and that we have a moral prerogative to lovingly engage with such stories regardless of whether we have had similar experiences Through a close look at phenomena such as moments of inexplicable terror or rapturous joy visions near death experiences of the afterlife encounters with angels heavenly voices and premonitions Allison shows how ordinary practices of faith need not be at odds with individual religious experiences Above all he enjoins us to be honest about the persistence of religious experience in a secular age and to make space for those who encounter mystery in their lives

Transformative Religious Experience Joshua Iyadurai, 2015-04-30 What makes a priest of one religion become a preacher of another religion How could a person embrace a religion suddenly that he or she had up to then opposed Why would young women risk their reputation and endanger their lives for the sake of newfound faith How could an alcoholic detest a sip of wine all of a sudden What drives an atheist to become an ardent worshiper of God How could an intelligent person relate to God as to an adult human being Transformative Religious Experience answers these questions with fascinating narratives of conversion These narratives together show how the transforming effects of conversion permeate the daily lives of converts in a multireligious context Joshua Iyadurai analyzes psychologically the mystical turning point in the conversion process and finds that the divine human encounter entails a cognitive restructuring a new set of beliefs values and desires replaces previously held religious beliefs values and desires By drawing insights from the fields of psychology sociology anthropology and theology Iyadurai develops an interdisciplinary step model from a phenomenological perspective to explain the conversion process that incorporates the religious practices and social psychological factors while giving a central place to religious experience

The Confusion of Worlds Heiner Schwenke, 2019-01-31 The idea of the resurrection of the physical body and the eternal continuation of life with this body in a future paradisiacal kingdom of God on earth is one of the most enigmatic of religious ideas It fully contradicts our knowledge of the transitoriness of all things in this universe According to the author the origin for this idea lies in certain forms of otherworld experiences as for example reported by people who had near death experiences encounters with the dead in brilliantly beautiful bodies and the experience of paradisiacal seemingly earthly landscapes He observes that cultures with a pre modern cosmology sometimes projected such otherworld experiences onto this world to distant and unknown locations on earth These experiences were the blueprint for an expectation of paradisiacal conditions on earth The author establishes parallels between the reports of otherworld experiences and the eschatological ideas of Zoroastrianism Judaism and Christianity He shows that otherworld experiences can indeed foster the expectation of paradisiacal conditions on earth by referring to the Ghost Dance movement of the Lakota people in 1890 He presumes that the confusion of worlds proved fatal not only for the Lakota people but also for Jesus of Nazareth The Cambridge Companion to Religious Experience Paul K. Moser, Chad Meister, 2020-07-16 Offers a state of the art contribution by providing critical analyses of and creative insights to the nature of religious experience If Billy Sunday Comes to Town - Delusion as a Religious Experience? Cor Arends, 2014 This book explores how religious delusion can be acknowledged as a religious experience In addition the book presents a detailed case study of the life of Presbyterian minister Anton T Boisen 1876 1965 his crises and the religious delusion that brought him to the brink of the abyss after the trauma he experienced during World War I Back cover Encyclopedia of Death & Human Experience Clifton D. Bryant, Dennis L. Peck, 2009-07-15 This two volume Encyclopdia through multidisciplinary and international contributions and perspectives organizes defines and clarifies more than 300 death related concepts Thoughts on Religious Experience Archibald Alexander, 1844 The Varieties of Religious Experience William James, 1902 On t p Being the Gifford lectures on natural religion delivered at Edinburgh in 1901 1902 Religious Experience in the Hindu Tradition June McDaniel, 2019-07-31 This book is a printed edition of the Special Issue Religious Experience in the Hindu Tradition that was published in Religions Dostoevsky and the Dynamics of Religious Experience Malcolm V.
