Postcolonial Challenges in Education Roland Sintos Coloma, 2009 Coloma compiles 20 essays that trace the history of imperialism and colonialism as well as anti imperialism and decolonization noting that there is a lack of consideration of education in studies of these topics and vice versa Education scholars from North America the UK Australia and Qatar consider the operations and effects of colonialism during and after occupation and the way colonized individuals navigate and resist imperialism in schooling educational policy and cultural and knowledge production
A Certain Age Susan

Feldman, 2020-08-26 Older women run their own businesses Older women go to aerobics classes Older women fall in love In fact older women have active lives and make a major contribution to the community despite the the public assumption that they are past their use by date A Certain Age explores the public and private worlds of older women Challenging the emphasis on declining health in other studies of ageing it looks at the interactions between older women and family friends and the community as well as their work and leisure activities The authors discuss the factors that are important in older woman s lives such as home menopause fitness learning widowhood and intimacy They show that many older women maintain good health and an independent lifestyle while others experience barriers that prevent them from continuing to be active members of their community A Certain Age is valuable reading for anyone who works with older people develops programs or policies for older people or is interested in the experience of growing older Literacy, Place, and

Pedagogies of Possibility Barbara Comber, 2015-07-30 How can teachers ensure a pedagogy of possibility underpinned by social justice and what has literacy got to do with this This book explores the positive synergies between critical literacy and place conscious pedagogy Through rich classroom research it introduces and demonstrates how a synthesis of insights from theories of space and place and literacy studies can underpin the design and enactment of culturally inclusive curriculum for diverse student communities and illustrates how making place and space the objects of study provide productive resources for teachers to design enabling pedagogical practices that extend students literate repertoires The argument is that systematic study of and engagement with specific elements of place can enable students academic learning and literacy Literacy Place and Pedagogies of Possibility is informed by critical literacy place conscious pedagogy and spatial theory is richly illustrated with examples from classroom research including teacher and student artifacts provides new directions for classroom practice in critical literacy This novel combination of multidisciplinary theory and classroom research extends previous work in critical literacy pedagogy drawing on two decades of ethnographic and collaborative inquiry in classrooms situated in culturally and linguistically diverse classrooms

Writing and Teaching to Change the World Stephanie Jones, 2014 Perfect for use in teacher preparation courses and professional learning groups this book shows what critical pedagogy looks like and identifies the conditions needed for it to emerge in the K 12 classroom Focusing on and documenting their experiences with one of their most disenfranchised students six teachers analyze and rethink what they do in the classroom and why they do it In so doing each comes to re imagine who they are as teachers and as individuals This engaging collection illuminates writing as a powerful tool for thinking deeply about how and why teachers respond to students in particular ways Book Features Prompts and suggested writing exercises at the end of each chapter to support teacher writer groups Guiding questions at the end of each chapter to support the instructional practices of K 12 teachers Powerful stories of teachers and students experiences with standards tracking practices evaluation practices and life Helpful appendices including books for further reading and an essay about the Oral Inquiry Process by Bob Fecho This is an important book for all teachers to read beginners and experienced as it confronts all of us as teachers to pay attention to the social and political contexts within which we work and consider what we often ignore our student s lives outside of school From the Foreword by Ann Lieberman Senior Scholar at Stanford University Kudos to Stephanie Jones and her colleagues for making moral sense of the day to day craft of education Carl Glickman educator and author of The Trembling Field Stories of Wonder Possibilities and Downright Crazyness Stephanie Jones is associate professor in the department of educational theory and practice at The University of Georgia and co director of the Red Clay Writing Project Her books include The Reading Turn Around A Five Part Framework for Differentiated Instruction

Participatory Literacy Practices for P-12 Classrooms in the Digital Age Mitchell, Jessica S., Vaughn, Erin N., 2019-10-11 The ability to effectively communicate in a globalized world shapes the economic social and democratic implications for the future of P 12 students Digitally mediated communication in an inclusive classroom increases a student s familiarity and comfortability with multiple types of media used in a wider technological culture However there is a need for research that explores the larger context and methodologies of participatory literacy in a digital educational space Participatory Literacy Practices for P 12 Classrooms in the Digital Age is an essential collection of innovative research on the methods and applications of integrating digital content into a learning environment to support inclusive classroom designs While highlighting topics such as game based learning coding education and multimodal narratives this book is ideally designed for practicing instructors pre service teachers professional development coordinators instructional facilitators curriculum designers academicians and researchers seeking interdisciplinary coverage on how participatory literacies enhance a student s ability to both contribute to the class and engage in opportunities beyond the classroom The SAGE Handbook of Early Childhood Literacy Joanne Larson,Jackie Marsh,2012-11-09 This new edition of the much loved Handbook of Early Childhood Literacy has been revised and updated to retain its cutting edge focus on emergent and important areas of research This comprehensive work guides the reader through current social cultural and historical analysis on a global scale The new edition contains a greater range of methodologies and chapters on space and literacy disabilities and early childhood literacy digital literacies indigenous literacy play and literacy policy In the Handbook readers will find coverage of all the key topics in early childhood literacy The exceptional list of contributors offers in depth expertise in their respective areas of knowledge The Handbook is essential for Undergraduate students Masters students PhD students CPD students researchers and literacy centre personel The second edition of this internationally respected and widely used text encompasses a myriad of new issues and insights both through new contributions and thoughtfully revised chapters which raise fresh questions and challenges for research and practice In pushing the boundaries still further the handbook retains its rightful place at the forefront of research into early childhood literacy practice in the 21st century Professor Teresa Cremin Open University UK This handbook provides in depth knowledge of insights and theories about the dynamic process of how children come to know literacy as thinking humans in social and cultural spaces There is a rich array of research perspectives of children s meaning making through family and digital liteacies play and literacy and in school and out of school literacy experiences Yetta Goodman Regents Professor University of Arizona Changing Spaces Arlene Archer,Rose Richards,2011-07-01 Changing Spaces makes a forceful and credible case for the role of writing centres in engaging with students staff and institutional structures in understanding issues of access from a social perspective This is a specialist book for those working in writing centres and for academics of all disciplines It is based on research and provides an important set of theoretical arguments developed through reflection on writing centre practices about student writing and the work of the university Professor Sioux McKenna Centre for Higher Education Research Teaching and Learning Rhodes University How do we select and train tutors How do we work with faculty How do we combat the image that we are

remedial a fix it shop How do we prove our worth How do we show that we improve retention Changing Spaces demonstrates the flexibility of writing centers and the unique roles they play in South Africa Writing centers everywhere represent institutional responses to the learning needs of their students and they do so because writing centers adapt easily to different contexts and situations They meet students where they are as a group and individually Professor Leigh Ryan Writing Center Director University of Maryland USA Teaching Australian Literature Brenton Doecke, Larissa McLean Davies, Philip Mead, 2011 What role should Australian literature play in the school curriculum What principles should guide our selection of Australian texts To what extent should concepts of the nation and a national identity frame the study of Australian writing What do we imagine Australian literature to be How do English teachers go about engaging their students in reading Australian texts This volume brings together teachers teacher educators creative writers and literary scholars in a joint inquiry that takes a fresh look at what it means to teach Australian literature The immediate occasion for the publication of these essays is the implementation of The Australian Curriculum English which several contributors subject to critical scrutiny In doing so they question the way that literature teaching is currently being constructed by standards based reforms not only in Australia but elsewhere The essays assembled in this volume transcend the divisions that have sometimes marred debates about the place of Australian literature in the school curriculum They all recognise the complexity of what secondary English teachers do in their efforts to engage young people in a rich and meaningful curriculum They also highlight the need for both secondary and tertiary educators to cultivate an awareness of the cultural and intellectual traditions that mediate their professional practice and to encourage a critically responsive pedagogy English Teachers at Work Brenton Doecke, David Homer, Helen Nixon, 2003 By taking a global perspective on teaching English this work takes into account a wide variety of challenges English teachers face and stresses the importance of networking and communicating with colleagues around the world as a means of overcoming those challenges A richly differentiated view on what it means to be an English teacher is offered as are fascinating narratives about the diverse efforts of teachers in different communities Points of view from contributors in North America Australia Chile New Zealand New Guinea South Africa and the United Kingdom are expressed and placed in an illuminating context with practical and theoretical considerations about teaching English Teaching Literature to Adolescents Richard Beach, Deborah Appleman, Bob Fecho, Rob Simon, 2020-12-28 Now in its fourth edition this popular textbook introduces prospective and practicing English teachers to current methods of teaching literature in middle and high school classrooms This new edition broadens its focus to cover important topics such as critical race theory perspectives on teaching fiction nonfiction and drama the integration of digital literacy and teacher research for ongoing learning and professional development It underscores the value of providing students with a range of different critical approaches and tools for interpreting texts It also addresses the need to organize literature instruction around topics and issues of interest to today's adolescents By using authentic dilemmas and contemporary issues the authors encourage preservice English teachers and their instructors to raise and explore inquiry based questions that center on the teaching of a variety of literary texts both classic and contemporary traditional and digital New to the Fourth Edition Expanded attention to digital tools multimodal learning and teaching online New examples of teaching contemporary texts Expanded discussion and illustration of formative assessment Revised response activities for incorporating young adult literature into the literature curriculum Real world examples of student work to illustrate how students respond to the suggested strategies Extended focus on infusing multicultural and diverse literature in the classroom Each chapter is organized around specific questions that preservice teachers consistently raise as they prepare to become English language arts teachers The authors model critical inquiry throughout the text by offering authentic case narratives that raise important considerations of both theory and practice A companion website a favorite of English education instructors <http://teachingliterature.pbworks.com> provides resources and enrichment activities inviting teachers to consider important issues in the context of their current or future classrooms

Teaching Reading and Writing Beyond High-stakes Testing Rongrong Dong, 2023-03-10 This book tells about an exemplary high school Chinese language arts teacher's effort in nurturing lifelong readers and writers under the test driven culture in China's society It looks closely at his everyday literacy practices focuses on his ways of creating authentic reading and writing spaces for students beyond test preparation With the lens of social constructivism the case study reveals his efforts of creating safe learning environment modeling his literate life connecting real life with literacy learning and building a school wide literate life for students Furthermore he also collaborates with other Chinese language arts faculty and reaches out to school administrators and educators to gain any potential teaching resource for students The findings indicate exemplary teachers are not only equipped with professional knowledge but also inter intrapersonal knowledge and practical knowledge in their teaching career which might be enlightening in today's high stakes testing culture The book will appeal to scholars of literacy education and teacher education as well as pre service and in service teachers

Personally Speaking Candace Spigelman, 2004-10-07 Responding to contemporary discussion about using personal accounts in academic writing Personally Speaking Experience as Evidence in Academic Discourse draws on classical and current rhetorical theory feminist theory and relevant examples from both published writers and first year writing students to illustrate the advantages of blending experiential and academic perspectives Candace Spigelman examines how merging personal and scholarly worldviews produces useful contradictions and contributes to a more a complex understanding in academic writing This rhetorical move allows for greater insights than the reading or writing of experiential or academic modes separately does Personally Speaking foregrounds the semi fictitious nature of personal stories and the rhetorical possibilities of evidence as Spigelman provides strategies for writing instructors who want to teach personal academic argument while supplying practical mechanisms for evaluating experiential claims The volume seeks to complicate and intensify disciplinary debates about how compositionists should write for publication and what kinds of writing should be taught to composition students Spigelman not only supplies evidence as to why the personal can count as evidence but also relates how to use it effectively by including student samples that reflect particular features of personal writing Finally she lays the groundwork to move narrative from its current site as confessional writing to the domain of academic discourse

Literacy Autobiographies from the Global South Shizhou Yang, 2022-12-30 Drawing on autoethnographic research on literacy autobiographies from a Chinese EFL writing context this book provides unique insights into literacy voice translanguaging and critical pedagogy from a Global South perspective The book presents literacy autobiographies as a cultural tool for analyzing and refashioning learners and teachers sense of self in ever expanding dialogical spaces In addition to highlighting teachers own stories around autoethnographies and translanguaging it showcases literacy autobiographies from Chinese students themselves The book theorizes the Global South as an ontological positioning that challenges colonial mindsets and practices concerning literacy language learning and narratives It argues that literacy autobiographies from a Global South perspective can be reimagined as critical pedagogy for EFL writing teaching and learning as well as teacher development Validating and expanding student voices by presenting these literacy autobiographies this book will be of great interest to researchers and students in the fields of TESOL applied linguistics English language teaching second language writing and literacy studies
