Reluctant Patron:

The Reluctant Patron Peter Alter, 1987      Art, Activism, and Oppositionality Grant H. Kester, 1998 A collection of essays from the influential American journal of film video and photography exploring ideologies and institutions of the artworld current media strategies for producing social change and topics around gender race and representation I

Subsidizing Culture James T. Bennett, 2017-07-05 In the American mind state subsidization of writers and artists was long associated with monarchies and in later years socialist states The support these regimes gave to intellectuals was understood to come with a cost yet beginning with the New Deal's Federal Writers Art and Theater Projects a new policy consensus asserted that by offering financial support to the arts the federal government was affirming their importance to the nation Subsidizing Culture examines the development of and controversies surrounding federal programs that directly benefit writers artists and intellectuals James T Bennett examines four cases of such support the New Deal's Federal Writers Art and Theater Projects the vigorous promotion in the post World War II and early Cold War eras of abstract expressionism and other forms of modern art by the US government the National Endowment for the Arts NEA which has fortified its position as the preeminent arts bureaucracy and the National Endowment for the Humanities the NEA's less embattled twin which funnels monies to scholars Bennett concentrates on the creation of and the debate over these government programs and he gives special attention to the critics who are usually ignored He reminds us that the chorus of anti subsidy voices over the years has included such disparate figures as writers William Faulkner and John Updike artists John Sloan and Wheeler Williams and social critics Jacques Barzun and H L Mencken      The Gift of Immortality Stephen Murphy, 1997 This book considers the boast of literary power to glorify or immortalize a topos of enormous popularity Focusing on representative figures of Renaissance humanism and the roots of the topos in antiquity author Stephen Murphy elaborates a complex myth of poetic power This myth constructed with the help of such theorists as Ernst Cassirer Giambattista Vico Marcel Mauss and Theodor Adorno includes the elements of nostalgia for a primordial epoch of magical effectiveness and social centrality the ideal of patronage as gift exchange and the absorption of these extra literary circumstances into literary convention

Patrons of Women Esther Hertzog, 2011-05-01 Assuming that women's empowerment would accelerate the pace of social change in rural Nepal the World Bank urged the Nepali government to undertake a Gender Activities Project within an ongoing long term water engineering scheme The author an anthropologist specializing in bureaucratic organizations and gender studies was hired to monitor the project Analyzing her own experience as a practicing development expert she demonstrates that the professed goal of women's empowerment is a pretext for promoting economic organizational goals and the interests of local elites She shows how a project intended to benefit women through teaching them literary and agricultural skills fails to provide them with any of the promised resources Going beyond the conventional analysis that positions aid givers vis vis powerless victimized recipients she draws attention to the complexity of the process and the active role played by the Nepalese rural women who pursue their own interests and aspirations within this unequal world The book makes an important contribution to the growing critique of development projects and of women s development projects in particular     Forbes Watson Lenore Clark,2001 This is a biography of Forbes Watson art commentator for the New York Evening Post and New York World but probably best known as the editor of The Arts an influential art magazine of the 1920s

Revolts and the Military in the Arab Spring Sean Burns,2018-01-30 Through detailed exploration of events in Tunisia Egypt Bahrain Libya Syria and Yemen Sean Burns here breaks down the concept of professionalism within the armed forces into its component parts and demonstrates how variation in military structures determines their behaviour In so doing and by emphasising historical context and drawing on a wide range of political science theory Burns sheds fresh light onto the ways in which military structure affects the potential for democratic transition or the course of civil war With this book he presented a wide ranging study of the Middle East which provides key tools to understanding the opportunities for democratisation both during the Arab Spring and beyond and which is therefore essential reading for anyone working on the Middle East popular uprisings and the politics of repression     Art and the Challenge of Markets Volume 1 Victoria D.

Alexander,Samuli Hägg,Simo Häyrynen,Erkki Sevänen,2018-01-16 Art and the Challenge of Markets Volumes 1 2 examine the politics of art and culture in light of the profound changes that have taken place in the world order since the 1980s and 1990s The contributors explore how in these two decades the neoliberal or market based model of capitalism started to spread from the economic realm to other areas of society As a result many aspects of contemporary Western societies increasingly function in the same way as the private enterprise sector under traditional market capitalism The first volume of this two volume collection considers a broad range of national cultural policies from European and North American countries and examines the strengthening of international and transnational art worlds in music visual arts film and television The chapters cover cultural policy and political culture in the United States United Kingdom Germany France Switzerland the Nordic countries the Balkans and Slovenia and address the extent to which Western nations have shifted from welfare state to market based ideologies Tensions between centres and peripheries in global art worlds are considered as well as complex interactions between nations and international and transnational art worlds and regional variations in the audiovisual market Both volumes provide students and scholars across a range of disciplines with an incisive comparative overview of the politics of art and culture and national international and transnational art worlds in contemporary capitalism     Patrons and Adversaries Caroline Castiglione,2005 Four generations of the aristocratic Barberini family and its vassals clashed over how the early modern Roman countryside should be governed Villagers sometimes cultivated noble interference but they frequently resisted it through the strategies of adversarial literacy political ways of reading and writing that challenged noble hegemony in the village     Trends in Nuclear Proliferation, 1975-1995 Lewis A. Dunn,Herman Kahn,Hudson Institute,1976

Paying the Piper Judith H. Balfe,1993     Anglo-German Scholarly Networks in the Long Nineteenth Century

Heather Ellis, Ulrike Kirchberger, 2014-01-30 Anglo German Scholarly Networks in the Long Nineteenth Century explores the complex and shifting connections between scientists and scholars in Britain and Germany from the late eighteenth century to the interwar years. Based on the concept of the transnational network in both its informal and institutional dimensions it deals with the transfer of knowledge and ideas in a variety of fields and disciplines. Furthermore it examines the role which mutual perceptions and stereotypes played in Anglo German collaboration. By placing Anglo German scholarly networks in a wider spatial and temporal context the volume offers new frames of reference which challenge the long standing focus on the antagonism and breakdown of relations before and during the First World War. Contributors include Rob Boddice, John Davis, Peter Hoeres, Hilary Howes, Gregor Pelger, Pascal Schillings, Angela Schwarz, Tara Windsor. Puget Sound Parables

Kenneth W. Smith, 2009-09-16 The early Christian church faced a plethora of religious fronts: a religious clergy that determined the way that Hebrew worship should go with 10 commandments and 613 legal emendations; a state religion of the conqueror Rome that elevated the emperor to almost divine status; pagan religions that hosted hundreds of deities; a secularism that permeated all of society; and a disorganized group of seekers who kept searching for God's will. To this world Jesus came to heal, teach and preach with parables. Forsaking argumentation and dependence upon present erudite culture, Jesus told the same story that brought its salient point to the listeners as simple parables marked Jesus' theology. In the year 2009 we face a similar audience along with the addition of the lure of the Internet. These parables speak to every group but are not Scripture. Scripture leads every parable for it is the will of God that we seek, whether individually as families, a nation or a world that God speaks to us in stories. The author invites you to continue in parables, finding your own. Patrons and Painters

Francis Haskell, 1980-01-01 Fusing the social and economic history with the cultural and artistic achievements of seventeenth and eighteenth century Italy, this book presents a unique and invaluable perspective on the period. 18,533 Days and 18 Inches to Eternity

Louis Bukowiec, 2020-02-28 I'm eighty eight and I am awestruck that I have written a book my first ever. My wife Joyce died in 2015. For a time grief and loneliness were my companions. I soon settled down doing old folks things like crossword puzzles watching TV etc. Some of my grandkids asked me what it was like being a kid during the Great Depression and World War II. Then one day my friend Charlie gave me a packet of four one hundred page notebook pads. He said Maybe you can use these. Coincidence. So with pencil in hand I started writing my story about my favorite subject me. Many memories were rekindled and suddenly I had a new hobby. A word became a sentence, a sentence a paragraph or a chapter. How far could I go with this? Night after night the stories flowed through my mind. Quiet tearful nights became commonplace. One night I awoke with tears in my eyes and a word in my heart: redemption. That morning I calculated how many days from my birth January 2 1930 to my rebirth October 4 1980. It was 18 533 days. Now my story had a working title: 18 533 Days to Eternity. As I read my story I realized that I was a normal hardworking person with a vision like you. However unlike most of you I was an impulsive addicted egotistical train wreck. But God had a plan for my life. He wanted to lead me from my egocentric mind to the desire of his love my heart It was only eighteen inches Hope Never give up

William Blake G.E. Bentley Jnr.,2002-09-10 The Critical Heritage gathers together a large body of critical sources on major figures in literature Each volume presents contemporary responses to a writer s work enabling students and researchers to read for themselves for example comments on early performances of Shakespeare s plays or reactions to the first publication of Jane Austen s novels The carefully selected sources range from landmark essays in the history of criticism to journalism and contemporary opinion and little published documentary material such as letters and diaries Significant pieces of criticism from later periods are also included in order to demonstrate the fluctuations in an author s reputation Each volume contains an introduction to the writer s published works a selected bibliography and an index of works authors and subjects The Collected Critical Heritage set will be available as a set of 68 volumes and the series will also be available in mini sets selected by period in slipcase boxes and as individual volumes

Soviet-third World Relations Carol R Saivetz,Sylvia Babus Woodby,2019-07-11 Soviet Third World Relations presents an overview of Soviet policy toward the less developed countries and considers the determinants of that policy and its reflection in action The authors first examine the theoretical underpinnings of Soviet Third World policy including Leninism and Soviet developmental models and explore the tensions between prescribed progressive development strategies and the realities of Third World political processes Next the authors present a detailed look at the record of Soviet activities in the Third World This is a chronological and regional account which describes Soviet policy in the Middle East Africa Latin America and Asia This part also provides a discussion of the openings such as local conflicts liberationist movements and socialist causes and the obstacles nationalism anti imperialism the volatility of Third World politics to Soviet policy in the Third World It closes with an analysis of Soviet foreign policy tools and asks whether chosen policy instruments achieve their desired objectives In the final section of the book the authors look at the decision making context for Soviet Third World relations including an analysis of Soviet objectives decision making variables and the participants in the decision making process They conclude by assessing trends in Soviet Third World relations the successes and failures of Soviet activities in the nonindustrial world and analyzing the current situation Here they address as well the lessons learned from the past and the prospects for the post Brezhnev post Andropov era

Restaurant Republic Kelly Erby,2016-09-01 Before the 1820s the vast majority of Americans ate only at home As the nation began to urbanize and industrialize home and work became increasingly divided resulting in new forms of commercial dining In this fascinating book Kelly Erby explores the evolution of such eating alternatives in Boston during the nineteenth century Why Boston Its more modest assortment of restaurants its less impressive but still significant expansion in commerce and population and its growing diversity made it more typical of the nation s other urban centers than New York Restaurants clearly segmented along class gender race ethnic and other lines helped Bostonians become more comfortable with deepening social stratification in their city and young republic even as the experience of eating out contributed to an emerging public consumer culture Restaurant Republic sheds light on how commercial dining both reflected and helped shape growing fragmentation along lines of race class and gender from the elite Tremont House which served fashionable French cuisine to such plebeian and ethnic venues as oyster saloons and Chinese chop suey houses The epilogue takes us to the opening in 1929 near Boston of the nation's first Howard Johnson's and that restaurant's establishment as a franchise in the next decade The result is a compelling story that continues to shape America
