Reluctant African:

The Reluctant African Louis E. Lomax, 1960 The author traveled throughout Africa to understand how to BE an African he had to learn to think black feel black act black love black demonstrably suspect everything and anything nonblack and talk black a new jargon peculiar to African nationalists a patois designed to adulate everything black to deprecate everything white He was learning this condition him to feel and understand the anguish of a troubled people of an even more troubled land

Forgotten African American Firsts Hans Ostrom, J. David Macey Jr., 2023-03-16 Winner of the 2024 RUSA Outstanding Reference Award This book introduces students to African American innovators and their contributions to art entertainment sports politics religion business and popular culture While the achievements of such individuals as Barack Obama Toni Morrison and Thurgood Marshall are well known many accomplished African Americans have been largely forgotten or deliberately erased from the historical record in America This volume introduces students to those African Americans whose successes in entertainment business sports politics and other fields remain poorly understood Dr Charles Drew whose pioneering research on blood transfusions saved thousands of lives during World War II Mae Jemison an engineer who in 1992 became the first African American woman to travel in outer space and Ethel Waters the first African American to star in her own television show are among those chronicled in Forgotten African American Firsts With nearly 150 entries across 17 categories this book has been carefully curated to showcase the inspiring stories of African Americans whose hard work courage and talent have led the course of history in the United States and around the world

The Life and Times of Louis Lomax Thomas Aiello, 2021-02-15 Syndicated television and radio host Serial liar Pioneering journalist Convicted criminal Close ally of Malcolm X and Martin Luther King Jr Publicity seeking provocateur Louis Lomax's life was a study in contradiction In this biography Thomas Aiello traces the complicated and fascinating arc of Lomax's life and career showing how the contradictions tumult and inconsistencies that marked his life reflected those of 1960s America Aiello takes readers from Lomax's childhood in the Deep South to his early confidence schemes to his emergence as one of the loudest and most influential voices of the civil rights movement Regardless of what political position he happened to take at any given moment Lomax preached the art of deliberate disunity in which the path to democracy could only be achieved through a diversity of opinions Engaging and broad in scope The Life and Times of Louis Lomax is the definitive study of one of the civil rights era's most complicated important and overlooked figures

African-American Orators Richard Leeman, 1996-08-28 This long needed sourcebook assesses the unique styles and themes of notable African American orators from the mid 19th century to the present of 43 representative public speakers from W E B Du Bois and Ida B Wells Barnett Martin Luther King Jr and Jesse Jackson to Barbara Jordan and Thurgood Marshall The critical analyses of the oratory of a broad segment of different types of public speakers demonstrate how they have stressed the historical search for freedom upheld American ideals while condemning discriminatory practices against African Americans and have spoken in behalf of black pride This biographical dictionary with its evaluative essays sources for further reading and speech chronologies is designed for broad interdisciplinary use by students teachers activists and general readers in college university institutional and public libraries

Human Behavior in the Social Environment from an African American Perspective Letha A See, 2013-04-03 In Human Behavior in the Social Environment from an African American Perspective leading black scholars come together to discuss complex human behavior problems faced by African Americans and to force the abandonment of conceptualization theories made without consideration of the Black experience Challenging you to engage in different thinking and develop new theories for addressing the needs of African Americans this book highlights the assets of black individuals families and communities and guides you through program interventions and public policies that strengthen and empower African Americans You will learn to enhance your clients coping strategies and resilience by factoring in their strengths rather than focusing on their weaknesses Human Behavior in the Social Environment from an African American Perspective contextualizes community behavior patterns gender roles and changing contemporary identities to challenge your assumptions about African American culture and communities and convince you to rethink your intervention strategies and methods To further help you fine tune your service delivery this book leads you through discussions on help seeking behaviors of young street males the association of sociocultural risk factors with suicides the use of emotive behavior therapy to help African Americans cope with the prospect of imminent death advocating for changes in institutions and systems which negatively impact the lives of the poor and the oppressed how social work has ignored one segment of the African American community young girls in urban settings psychological consequences of coming of age in a hostile environment Social workers community based groups policymakers and other helping professionals owe it to their clients to shrug off culturally incompetent services and care Using Human Behavior in the Social Environment from an African American Perspective as a guide you will learn to redress your programs and policies with a sensitivity to the factors and mechanisms that maximize the buoyancy of disadvantaged groups over various stages of their life development

Elements of African Bioethics in a Western Frame B. Tangwa, 2010-11-01 For millennia Africans have lived on the African continent in close contact with the diversities of nature floral faunal and human and in so doing they have developed cultures values attitudes and perspectives to the problems ethical and otherwise that have arisen from the existential pressures of their situation The problem however is that such values and perspectives do not necessarily form coherent ethical theories Theory making is a second order activity requiring a certain amount of leisure and comfort which the existential conditions of life on the African continent have not easily permitted in the retrospect able past The elements of African bioethics are to be found in its cultural values traditions customs and practices These are research able highlight able and usable by those who would The bioethical problems of our current global existential situation are such that all possible solutions no matter their provenance ought to be tried Western culture has far too loud a voice combined with deaf ears in contemporary ethical discourse But it should never be forgotten that other cultures have their own word to say and that alternative values ways of thinking and practices exist and attempt should always be made to bring these out and to highlight them if they could possibly contribute to the satisfactory solution of a global problem This book brings together various papers on bioethical issues and problems written at different times some previously published each of which attempts to bring out some African elements perspective or concern The African narrative style predominates through these essays but their framing conforms more or less to the Western paradigm for presenting academic issues African Studies in Russia R.V. Dmitriev, 2017-12-29 The publication is the latest in the African Studies in Russia series of compilations and contains full articles and annotations of the most important from the point of view of editors works of Russian Africanists over a certain period The authors work at the Institute for African Studies of the Russian Academy of Sciences RAS The present issue covers the years 2014 to 2016 and consists of two sections The first section presents conceptual articles on Africa published in authoritative journals The second section offers synopses of books by Russian authors on economics cultural anthropology social and political development gender studies and international relations of African countries The main objective of the triennial series of compilations is to introduce new findings of Russian Africanists to interested foreign scholars who do not speak Russian AF Press Clips United States Department of State. Bureau of African Affairs,1981 Impacts of Incarceration on the African American Family Othello Harris,R. Robin Miller, The criminal justice system has driven a wedge between black men and their children African American men are involved in the criminal justice system whether through incarceration probation or parole at near epidemic levels At the same time the criminal justice system has made little or no institutional efforts to maintain or support continuing relationships between these men and their families Consequently African American families are harmed by this in countless ways from the psychological physical and material suffering experienced by the men themselves to losses felt by their mates children and extended family members The volume opens with an introduction and brief review by R Robin Miller Sandra Lee Browning and Lisa M Spruance outlining the impacts of incarceration on the African American family Brad Tripp explores changes in family relationships and the identity of incarcerated African American fathers Mary Balthazar and Lula King discuss the loss of the protective effect of marital and nonmarital relationships and its impact on incarcerated African American men and the implications for African American men and those who work with them in the helping professions Theresa Clark explores the relationship between visits by family and friends and the nature of inmate behavior In a research note Olga Grinstead Bonnie Faigeles Carrie Bancroft and Barry Zack investigate the actual costs families incur to maintain contact with family members be it emotional social or financial Patricia E O Connor uses data from sociolinguistic interviews of male inmates from a maximum security prison to study how some of these men manage to continue to fulfill the fatherhood role long distance In a concluding chapter Sandra Lee Browning Robin Miller and Lisa Spruance focus on actions of the criminal justice system that undermine the black family on reasons that black male inmate fathers are studied so rarely and discuss the role restorative justice may play This insightful volume fills a void in the literature on the role of African American men in the functioning of families It will be of interest to students of African American studies social workers and policy makers The Gender Politics of HIV/AIDS in Women Nancy Goldstein,Jennifer L Manlowe,1997-06 From their posts at the center of the pandemic in the laboratory the academy clinics and community based organizations experts such as Evelyn Hammonds Risa Denenberg Michelle Murrain and Paul Farmer criticize blind spots in the recognition and treatment of HIV in women and articulate accessible and practical solutions to specific areas of difficulty Theorizing Black Feminisms Abena P. A. Busia,Stanlie M. James,2005-06-28 Theorizing Black Feminisms outlines some of the crucial debates going on within contemporary Black feminist activity In doing so it brings together a collection of some of the most exciting work by contemporary Black women scholars celebrating Black women s agency and pragmatic activism The volume encompasses a wide range of diverse subjects refusing to be limited by notions of disciplinary boundaries or divisions between theory and practice Essays on literature sociology history political science anthropology and art are included making the collection vital reading for anyone activist student artist or scholar interested in exploring the multidisciplinary possibilities of Black feminisms An exciting and innovative book which both reflects and intervenes in a rapidly growing field State-Building and Multilingual Education in Africa Ericka A. Albaugh,2014-04-24 This book explains why many governments in Africa are including African languages alongside European languages as media of instruction in elementary schools It argues that a number of factors have combined to make multilingual education attractive France has changed its foreign policy toward its former colonies language NGOs are transcribing more languages and pressure toward democracy makes African leaders look for ways to divide the opposition

The French North African Crisis M. Thomas,2000-09-08 The French North African Crisis analyses the postwar breakdown in French imperial rule in North West Africa concentrating primarily upon the Algerian war of independence The book highlights the human tragedy involved and the divisive consequences within French metropolitan politics of intractable colonial conflict It further examines how far the protracted crisis of colonial control in North Africa shaped French foreign and security policy and this impacted upon Anglo French relations the western alliance and the wider process of decolonization Princeton Alumni Weekly ,1960 A New Paradigm of the African State M. Muiu,G.

Martin,2009-01-05 Offers a historical multidisciplinary perspective on African political systems and institutions ranging from Antiquity Egypt Kush and Axum to the present with particular focus on their destruction through successive exogenous processes including the Atlantic slave trade imperialism colonialism and neo colonialism or globalization African Yearbook of International Law African Association of International Law,2000 The African American Voice in U.S. Foreign Policy Since World War II Michael L. Krenn,2019-08-08 Following World War II America was witness to two great struggles The first was on the international front and involved the fight for freedom around the globe as millions of people in Asia and Africa rose up to throw off their European colonial masters In the decades following 1945 dozens of new nations joined the ranks of independent countries Following the Civil War the African American voice in U S foreign affairs continued to grow In the late nineteenth century a few African Americans such as Frederick Douglass even served as U S diplomats to the black republics of Liberia and Haiti When America began its overseas thrust during the 1890s African American opinion was divided
