Remember Dad A Journey Into Memory Loss:

Remember, Dad? Lorie Barkman, 1999 The Emotional Journey of the Alzheimer's Family Robert B. Santulli, MD, Kesstan Blandin, PhD, 2015-03-22 Alzheimer's disease is a growing public health crisis. According to the Alzheimer's Association, there are 5.4 million victims of this disease; by 2050, there will be close to 15 million people who suffer from this debilitating disorder of memory, thinking, personality, and functioning. The disease profoundly affects immediate family members, close friends, and neighbors. These people, the Alzheimer's family, undergo tremendous psychological and emotional change as they witness the cruel and relentless progression of the disease in their loved one. Incorporating over thirty years of experience with Alzheimer's patients and their families, with current medical knowledge, the authors chart the complex emotional journey of the Alzheimer's family from the onset of the disease through the death of the loved one. They discuss the anger that rises in the face of discordant views of the disease, the defenses that emerge when family members are unwilling to accept a dementia diagnosis, and the common emotions of anxiety, guilt, anger, and shame. They focus especially on grief as the core response to losing a loved one to dementia and describe the difficult processes of adaptation and acceptance which lead to personal growth. Final chapters emphasize the importance of establishing a care community and how to understand and cope with personal stress. This volume will be useful to medical professionals and ordinary people close to or caring for a person with dementia.

Help for the Caring Brenda Parris Sibley, 2002 This much-needed bibliography and filmography brings together lists of books about Alzheimer's and caregiving, including biographies, poetry, and even fiction, as well as instructional and dramatic films.

Grandpa's Special Journey: Remembering Together Angelique Van Oz, 2024-09-16 Grandpa's memory fades due to Alzheimer's disease; granddaughter Sofie embraces their precious moments together. From laughing in the park to a touching farewell, discover the power of love that overcomes all obstacles. A heartwarming story of connection, memories, and the legacy of unconditional love. This children's book is a glimpse into the lives of Grandpa and Sofie. Grandpa suffers from Alzheimer's, which makes Sofie sad but also determined to help Grandpa. This story is educational because it highlights important themes and lessons relevant to life, such as dealing with loss, cherishing precious moments, showing compassion, and finding strength in difficult times. It also illustrates the impact of Alzheimer's on individuals and families and how love and support can help in dealing with these challenges.

Between Remembering and Forgetting James Woodward, 2010-06-10 A much-needed resource for reflection on the nature of dementia, particularly its spiritual dimension. And the implications for churches and other faith groups.

Forget Memory Anne Davis Basting, 2009-07-01 Memory loss can be one of the most terrifying aspects of a diagnosis of dementia. Yet the fear and dread of losing our memory make the experience of the disease worse than it needs to be, according to cultural critic and playwright Anne Davis Basting. She says Forget Memory emphasizes the importance of activities that focus on the present to improve the lives of persons with Alzheimer's disease and other dementias. Based on ten years of practice and research in the field Basting's study includes specific examples of innovative programs that stimulate growth humor and emotional connection translates into accessible language a wide range of provocative academic works on memory and addresses how advances in medical research and clinical practice are already pushing radical changes in care for persons with dementia

Bold optimistic and innovative Basting's cultural critique of dementia care offers a vision for how we can change the way we think about and care for people with memory loss

Do This, Remembering Me Colette Bachand-Wood, 2016-03-01 Memory loss should not be spiritual loss What do I do to help Alzheimer's is the sixth leading cause of death in the United States almost everyone knows someone with some form of dementia yet few know how to answer that question and very little material exists on providing spiritual care to adults with dementia related diseases Even seminaries rarely provide training or clinical pastoral education in this field This book is an answer It provides a hands on manual that will give clergy spiritual care providers and family members an understanding of the ongoing spiritual needs of individuals with dementia as well as practical tools such as how to create a religious service in a memory care unit and how one might plan a nursing home visit Accessibly written with real life applications and sample services for a variety of settings More than just useful the book inspires with shared stories that are tender sad funny and sometimes all three at once encouraging readers to develop spiritual care ministries for people with memory loss in congregations homes nursing facilities or other communities a ministry that will only gain in importance in the coming decade as Baby Boomers age and the number of people with Alzheimer's and dementia skyrockets
