James Gong: The Big Hit Paul Collins,2020-02-01 James Gong is training for his black belt in taekwondo One night a camera crew turns up at training for an episode of My Life James is sparring a white belt who gets carried away and hammers James foot Sparks fly in James brain and he gasps all caught on national TV James responds with a jumping spinning sidekick which obliterates his opponent This is the beginning of James woes at the club for he has disgraced Mr Cho

the head instructor Hollywood Productions just loves James jumping spinning sidekick They decide to star him in their small budget flick Big Action in Little Town Unbeknown to James Hollywood Productions is a scam company that basically produces B grade loser movies to offset huge tax bills Meanwhile James who lusts after his sister Caitlin s best friend Amber thinks his sudden film career will curry favour Not so If anything Amber shuns him even more Determined to win the love of his life James tries to learn how to skate because he knows that Amber fancies a local skater named Spiros He only succeeds in showing himself up but James is pathetically immune to the irony and subtleties of life He figures that all is well with the world and that he s making vast progress To Hollywood Productions great horror the flick is so bad that it s good People have queued at the premiere and national TV stations have got wind of the huge success of this little budget movie Big Action in Little Town is going to be a blockbuster

Demarginalizing Voices Jennifer M. Kilty, Maritza Felices-Luna, Sheryl C. Fabian, 2014-11-13 Numerous books explore the how to of qualitative research but few discuss what it means to actually engage in it particularly when researchers adopt alternative methods to shed light on the experiences of marginalized populations In Demarginalizing Voices scholars share personal stories about their research with marginalized populations including Aboriginal peoples sex workers the dead and the dying women and men in prison women and men released from prison and the homeless and the hospitalized In the process they answer questions of relevance to anyone engaged in qualitative research What can scholars expect when their research requires them to establish human connections and relationships with their subjects What role do ethics review boards and institutions play when researchers explore new often less accepted methods How do researchers reconcile academic life and its expectations with their activism These powerful accounts from the cutting edge of qualitative research not only create a space in academia that centres marginalized voices they open up the field to new debates and discussion
