Carole, 2013-03-20 This book illuminates the experiential and theocentric dimensions of holiness theology It acknowledges two strands of thought in current holiness theology Wesley's Christian perfection and entire sanctification as propagated in the early days of the American Holiness Movement It honors the contribution of both these strands by identifying the deep harmony in the holiness message of John Wesley and Phineas Bresee Using insights from Wesley and Bresee the author develops a paradigm for holiness theology from the standpoint of its transcendent goal Called into Communion explicates entire sanctification as revelatory and salvific a necessary threshold experience for complete openness to God This approach illuminates the rootedness of holiness theology in the triune fellowship of holy love The communion perspective affirms holiness theology as the underlying theological principle for a missional ecclesiology since participation in God characterizes the church as a doxological fellowship of holy love and determines the church's redemptive action. Seminarians and pastors will find in this book a new perspective on the holiness message. It extends the horizon of reflection to the grace that seeks out and enables human partners for a transformative fellowship of genuine reciprocity with God.

Remembering the Dead Sentus Francis Dikwe, 2020-01-07 Remembering the dead is a topic which connects various cultures and traditions. The reception of the African tradition of ancestorship is a theological enrichment in the ecumenical discussions all over the world. In our time the exchange of gifts plays a great role in promoting unity of the Churches. Especially the concepts of African theology with the incomparable special position of Jesus Christ as proto ancestor are important for the interconfessional dialogues. The veneration of the ancestors in Africa can be a help to begin ecumenical discussions in this regional context on the question of the veneration of the saints. According to African tradition the ancestors also have influence on the process of purification. Therefore the veneration of the ancestors contributes to providing answers to the ecumenical controversies about the understanding of the eschatological purification. Sentus Francis Dikwe SDS born in 1980 in Morogoro Tanzania ordained priest of the Salvatorian Congregation. He attained doctorate in theology 2020 in Munster Germany.

Remembering the Body Sarah Travis, 2025-03-18 Debates about human sexuality have divided the church across denominations. The Body of Christ has been wounded by profound theological disagreement. Preaching can be a healing balm for those who have been bruised and harmed by these debates. This book asks the church to remember its own nature as a Body that has a baptismal identity rooted in the triune God. We remember the beauty and value of the human body and we remember that we belong to a baptismal community with a distinctive ethic. Sermons are an opportunity to refresh and heal a Body that has been broken by division. By affirming sexuality and the body preachers can build toward an affirmation of all sexual identities while making space for those whose theology is not affirming. In recovering the body as a focus for preaching this book argues for a more equitable and inclusive understanding of Christian identity.

Remembering God's Mercy Dawn Eden, 2016-02-19 Winner of the Association of Catholic Publishers 2017 Excellence in Publishing Award Inspirational Books First Place. In the first book to explore how memories impact and are affected by faith bestselling author Dawn Eden offers a guide to the process she used to heal the pain of her past. Through her own story as well as the examples of St Ignatius of Loyola, St Peter Faber and Pope Francis she shows how the mercy of God who holds all of events of our life in his own memory can bring you healing and inner peace. Dawn Eden's My Peace I Give You helped thousands find peace after abuse and established her as the leading Catholic authority on recovering from traumatic stress. In Remembering God's Mercy Eden who suffered childhood sexual abuse that left her with PTSD describes how she was inspired by the example of Pope Francis, St Ignatius and St Peter Faber all of whom suffered from their own painful experiences and followed a similar path to healing. Pope Francis has spoken openly about how a life threatening bout of pneumonia affected his relationship with God saying that recognizing and accepting the power of memories to color perceptions is essential to seeing God in all things and experiencing inner peace The pope was influenced by the examples of Ignatius and Faber Ignatius suffered the loss of his mother at a young age and was sent by his father to live with another family He also fought as a mercenary soldier as a young man and experienced the trauma of war and physical pain Faber a student of Ignatius and among the early members of the Society of Jesus suffered from bouts of depression and anxiety for years He wrote in his diary how he applied Ignatius's spiritual practices in a way that enabled him to rise above his mental suffering to grow closer with God Through the wisdom of these three Jesuits Eden developed an Ignatian model of healing Acknowledge your memories Accept that they change the way you see God your fate and other people Allow God to transform your memories by coloring the past and present with his story of salvation Eden examines how Jesus' wounds can bring healing to your own hurt through prayer Mass the Sacraments particularly confession and the life of the Church In each chapter she will engage you with specific steps to take using the most famous Ignatian prayer the Suscipe Latin for receive to transform your past traumas into an offering to God that is united with Jesus' own self offering

Remembering a Dream Francis J. Moloney, 2024-04-01 In order to mark the bicentenary of the foundational dream that Saint John Bosco experienced when only nine years of age 1824 this book offers readers reflections on a number of biblical and theological themes that emerge from the simplicity yet depth of that dream In the first place certain elements from the life and person of Jesus are presented as the model for a so called Salesian spirituality and life style Those elements are outlined as an awareness that Jesus never abandons his fragile disciples and that a genuinely Christian education writes on the hearts of the young They are never abandoned in the challenging all pervasive secularity of contemporary society It closes with a summons to a deeper awareness of the universal possibility of the perfection of love as Saint Francis de Sales 1567 1622 taught well before his fellow Savoyard John Bosco 1815 1888
