The Rescue of Belsen's Diamond Children Bettine Siertsema, 2022-08-11 This book uncovers the history of a group of Jewish workers and merchants in the Amsterdam diamond industry during the Holocaust. They and their families were exempt from deportation for a long time but were eventually deported to Bergen Belsen. In the end, almost all of the men perished and the women barely survived slave labour. Their children were left to die in the camp but were miraculously saved by the intervention of a Jewish Polish woman nurse Luba. The main sources on which this book is based are video testimonies of the surviving members of this group, personal interviews, minutes of interviews taken down in shorthand shortly after the war, and personal documents such as letters, archival documents, and autobiographical books.

The Liberation of the Camps Dan Stone, 2015-05-19 A moving, deeply researched account of survivors' experiences of liberation from Nazi death camps and the long, difficult years that followed. When tortured inmates of Hitler's concentration and extermination camps were liberated in 1944 and 1945, the horror of the atrocities came fully to light. It was easy for others to imagine the joyful relief of freed prisoners, yet for those who had survived, the unimaginable experience of liberation was a slow, grueling journey back to life. In this unprecedented inquiry into the days, months, and years following the arrival of Allied forces at the Nazi camps, a foremost historian of the Holocaust draws on archival sources and especially on eyewitness testimonies to reveal the complex challenges liberated victims faced and the daunting tasks their liberators undertook to help them reclaim their shattered lives. Historian Dan Stone focuses on the survivors, their feelings of guilt, exhaustion, fear, shame for having survived, and devastating grief for lost family members, their immense medical problems, and their later demands to be released from Displaced Persons camps and resettled in countries of their own choosing. Stone also tracks the efforts of British, American, Canadian, and Russian liberators as they contended with survivors' immediate needs, then grappled with longer-term issues that shaped the postwar world and ushered in the first chill of the Cold War years ahead.

Holocaust Landscapes Tim Cole, 2016-05-05 The theme of Tim Cole's Holocaust Landscapes concerns the geography of the Holocaust, the Holocaust as a place-making event for both perpetrators and victims. Through concepts such as distance and proximity, Professor Cole tells the story of the Holocaust through a number of landscapes where genocide was implemented, experienced, and evaded, and which have subsequently been forgotten in the post-war world. Drawing on particular survivors' narratives, Holocaust Landscapes moves between a series of ordinary and extraordinary places and the people who inhabited them throughout the years of the Second World War. Starting in Germany in the late 1930s, the book shifts chronologically and geographically westwards but ends up in Germany in the final chaotic months of the war. These landscapes range from the most iconic: synagogue, ghetto, railroad camp, attic, to less well known sites forest sea and mountain river road displaced persons camp Holocaust Landscapes provides a new perspective surrounding the shifting geographies and histories of this continent wide event Britain and the Holocaust Caroline Sharples, Olaf Jensen, 2013-11-19 How has Britain understood the Holocaust This interdisciplinary volume explores popular narratives of the Second World War and cultural representations of the Holocaust from the Nuremberg trials of 1945 to the establishment of a national memorial day by the start of the twenty first century One hundred years of wartime nursing practices, 1854-1953 Jane Brooks, Christine Hallett, 2015-11-01 This book examines the work that nurses of many differing nations undertook during the Crimean War the Boer War the Spanish Civil War both World Wars and the Korean War It makes an excellent and timely contribution to the growing discipline of nursing wartime work In its exploration of multiple nursing roles during the wars it considers the responsiveness of nursing work as crisis scenarios gave rise to improvisation and the sometimes quite dramatic breaking of practice boundaries The originality of the text lies not only in the breadth of wartime practices considered but also the international scope of both the contributors and the nurses they consider It will therefore appeal to academics and students in the history of nursing and war nursing work and the history of medicine and war from across the globe Remembering Reagan Peter Hannaford, Charles D. New Microhistorical Approaches to an Integrated History of the Holocaust Frédéric Bonnesoeur, Hannah Wilson, Christin Zühlke, 2023-11-06 In 1997 Saul Friedländer emphasized the need for an integrated history of the Holocaust His suggestion to connect the policies of the perpetrators the attitudes of surrounding society and the world of the victims provides the inspiration for this volume Following in these footsteps this innovative study approaches Holocaust history through a combination of macro analysis with micro studies Featuring a range of contemporary research from emerging scholars in the field this peer reviewed volume provides detailed engagement with a variety of historical sources such as documents artifacts photos or text passages The contributors investigate particular aspects of sound materiality space and social perceptions to provide a deeper understanding of the Holocaust which have often been overlooked or generalised in previous historical research Yet as we approach an era of no first hand witnesses this multidisciplinary micro historical approach remains a fundamental aspect of Holocaust research and can provide a theoretical framework for future studies

DPs Mark Wyman, 1998-06-18 Wyman's book is the only one that comprehensively and sensitively depicts the plight of the postwar refugees in Western Europe M Mark Stolarik University of Ottawa This is a fascinating and very moving book International Migration Review Wyman has written a highly readable account of the movement of diverse ethnic and cultural groups of Europe's displaced persons 1945-1951 An analysis of the social economic and political circumstances within which relocation resettlement and repatriation of millions of people occurred this study is equally a study in diplomacy in international relations and in social history A vivid and compassionate recreation of the events and circumstances within which displaced persons found themselves of the strategies and means by which people survived or did not and an account of the major powers in response to an unprecedented human crisis mark this as an important book Choice Wyman interviewed some eighty DPs as well as employees of various agencies who served them he cites a broad range of published primary sources secondary sources and some archival material This book presents a useful overview and should stimulate further research Journal of American Ethnic History

Filming the End of the Holocaust John J. Michalczyk, 2014-10-23 Filming the End of the Holocaust considers how the US Government commissioned the US Signal Corps and other filmmakers to document the horrors of the concentration camps during the April-May 1945 liberation The evidence of the Nazis genocidal actions amassed in these films some of them made by Hollywood luminaries such as John Ford and Billy Wilder would go on to have a major impact at the Nuremberg Trials they helped to indict Nazi officials as the judges witnessed scenes of torture human experimentation and extermination of Jews and non Jews in the gas chambers and crematoria These films some produced by the Soviets were integral to the war crime trials that followed the Holocaust and the Second World War and this book provides a thorough close analysis of the footage in these films and their historical significance Using research carried out at the Museum of Jewish Heritage the US National Archives and the film collection at the National Center for Jewish Film at Brandeis University this book explores the rationale for filming the atrocities and their use in the subsequent trials of Nazi officials in greater detail than anything previously published Including an extensive bibliography and filmography Filming the End of the Holocaust is an important text for scholars and students of the Holocaust and its aftermath The Forgers Roger Moorhouse,2023-10-17 The secret history of one of the largest and least known rescue operations of World War II Between 1940 and 1943 a group of Polish diplomats in Switzerland engaged in a wholly remarkable and until now completely unknown humanitarian operation In concert with Jewish activists they masterminded a systematic program of forging passports and identity documents for Latin American countries which were then smuggled into German occupied Europe to save the lives of thousands of Jews facing extermination in the Holocaust With the international community failing to act the operation was one of the largest actions to aid Jews of the entire war The Forgers tells this extraordinary story for the first time We follow the desperate bids of Jews to obtain these lifesaving documents as the Nazi death machine draws ever closer And we witness the quiet heroism of a group of ordinary men who decided to do something rather than nothing and saved thousands of lives Humanitarianism and Media Johannes Paulmann,2018-12-17 From Christian missionary publications to the media strategies employed by today's NGOs this interdisciplinary collection explores the entangled histories of humanitarianism and media It traces the emergence of humanitarian imagery in the West and investigates how the meanings of suffering and aid have been constructed in a period of evolving mass communication demonstrating the extent to which many seemingly new phenomena in fact have long historical legacies Ultimately the critical histories collected here help to challenge existing asymmetries and help those who advocate a new cosmopolitan consciousness recognizing the dignity and rights of others Nazis in the Holy Land 1933-1948 Heidemarie Wawrzyn,2013-08-01 Young Germans marched through Haifa shouting Heil Hitler and Swastika flags were hoisted at the German consulates in Mandatory Palestine It was in November 1931 when a non Jewish German made the initial contact with Nazi officials in Germany that led to the establishment of a miniature Third Reich with local NS groups Hitler Youth program and associations for women teachers and others in Palestine Approximately 33% of all Palestine Germans Pal stina Deutsche participated in the NS movement Until today no extensive research written in English has been done on this bizarre footnote in history While previous publications in German mainly concentrated on the members of the Temple Society this work includes Protestant and Catholic Germans as well It focuses on the relationship of Pal stina Deutsche with local Arabs and Jews It covers the period of 1933 to 1948 as well as the years between the establishing of the State of Israel and the departure of the last group of Germans in 1950 At the end of the book the reader will find a list with more than seven hundred names of those who joined the NS groups Holocaust Memory and National Museums in Britain Emily-Jayne Stiles,2021-11-16 This book explores the Holocaust exhibition opened within the Imperial War Museum IWM in 2000 setting out the long and often contentious debates surrounding the conception design and finally the opening of an important exhibition within a national museum in Britain It considers a process of memory making through an assessment of Holocaust photographs material culture and survivor testimonies exploring theories of cultural memory as they apply to the national museum context Anchored in time and place the Holocaust exhibition within Britain's national museum of war is influenced by and reflects an international rise in Holocaust consciousness in the 1990s This book considers the construction of Holocaust memory in 1990s Britain providing a foundation for understanding current and future national memory projects Through all aspects of the display the Holocaust is presented as meaningful in terms of what it says about Nazism and what this in turn says about Britishness From the original debates surrounding the inclusion of a Holocaust gallery at the IWM to the acquisition of Holocaust artefacts that could act as concrete evidence of Nazi barbarity and criminality the Holocaust reaffirms an image of Britain that avoids critical self reflection despite raising uncomfortably close questions The various display elements are brought together to consider multiple strands of the Holocaust story as it is told by national museums in Britain

Literature and Justice in Mid-Twentieth-Century Britain Victoria Stewart, 2023 This book examines how ideas about crime and judicial procedure that had developed in a domestic context influenced the representation and understanding of war crimes trials victims of war crimes and war criminals in post WW II Britain The depiction of Belsen concentration camp and the subsequent British run trial are a focal point
