Remembering Forward:

Remembering Forward Harold G. Clarke, 1995 Harold Clarke does more than remind the reader of a bygone age he takes us back in time with him to the rural South between the World Wars Whether exploring themes of community or the hydra of the Ku Klux Klan whether telling of a favorite fishing spot on the Ogeechee River or of the death of a childhood friend Clarke is a master storyteller whose stories never fail to invoke the complexity and the richness of life itself The Remembering Process Daniel Barrett, Joe Vitale, 2015-04-07 Personal problems World problems Healing issues Creativity challenges They can all be resolved with an amazing new method called remembering The Remembering Process reveals a breakthrough technique that anyone can use to easily create produce innovate solve resolve and more Beyond any New Age or self help teaching this process proves that it is not only possible to tap into the future but that it is also accessible to us in every moment This leading edge book is a mind stretching exploration in manifesting your goals and desires by remembering how they exist in the future Join award winning musician and music producer Daniel Barrett and best selling author and The Secret standout star Joe Vitale as they teach you this empowering practical technique and start creating the life you desire today Post-Conflict Hauntings Kim Wale, Pumla Gobodo-Madikizela, Jeffrey Prager, 2020-07-02 This book engages the globally pressing question of how to live and work with the haunting power of the past in the aftermath of mass violence It brings together a collection of interdisciplinary contributions to reflect on the haunting of post conflict memory from the perspective of diverse country case studies including South Africa Rwanda Zimbabwe Northern Ireland North and South Korea Palestine and Israel America and Australia Contributions offer theoretical empirical and practical insights on the nature of historical trauma and practices of collective healing and repair that include embodied artistic and culturally relevant forms of wisdom for dealing with the past While this question has traditionally been explored through the lens of trauma studies in relation to the post Holocaust experience this book provides new understandings from a variety of different historical contexts and disciplinary perspectives Its chapters draw on challenge and expand the trauma concept to propose more contextually relevant frameworks for transforming haunted memory in the aftermath of historical trauma

Historical trauma and memory Pumla Gobodo-Madikizela, Eric Ndushabandi, Kopano Ratele, 2021-12-06 How wounds from a previous generation may weigh on children and grandchildren contain much of interest Yet if we unpack the ghostly the eerie and the spectral in transgenerational hauntings if we allow for the suffering or the disturbed to forge social links such contacts may enable breaking into reconnections and afterlives One only needs to think of the near epidemic of rape in South Africa to sense violent hypermasculinity erupting as madness mediated by a history of brutal racialised reduction But it is also important to move beyond the brutalities and madness to consider the individual and collective refigurations surfacing out of layers of catastrophe Nancy Rose Hunt Conference Keynote Address Beyond Trauma Notes on a Word a Frame and a Diagnostic Category Historical Trauma and Memory Living with the Haunting Power of the Past is based on essays presented at a conference with the same name which was held in Kigali Rwanda in April 2019 The book gives readers front row seats as an interdisciplinary group of scholars from law psychology history the arts anthropology theology and philosophy address the complex matrix of the emotional legacies of historical trauma cultural legacies people interacting with their social and political environment and the interplay of these factors in different post conflict societies Augustine on Memory Kevin G. Grove, 2021-09-28 Augustine of Hippo indisputably one of the most important figures for the study of memory is credited with establishing memory as the inner source of selfhood and locus of the search for God Yet those who study memory in Augustine have never before taken into account his preaching His sermons are the sources of memory's greatest development for Augustine In Augustine's preaching especially on the Psalms the interior gives way to communal exterior Both the self and search for God are re-established in shared identity and the communal labor of remembering and forgetting Augustine on Memory presents this new paradigm not only for Augustinian studies but also for theologians philosophers ethicists and interdisciplinary scholars of memory Change Through Repetition Yarden Ben-Zur, Babylonia Constantinides, Alexander García Düttmann, Simon Gröger, Annika Haas, Leonie Hunter, Elisa Leroy, Bahar Majdzadeh, Brigitte Rath, Doris Rebhan, Florencia Sannders, Burak Üzümkesci, Matthias Warstat, Penny Dan Xu, Johanna Zorn, 2020-12-03 Art and politics are related through repetition Both realms are structured by practices of repetition and share a common room of sense quality aesthetics in the emphatic sense of the word It is the aesthetics and practices of repetition that reveal the relation between both realms This volume proposes to explore aesthetic and cultural phenomena that effect change in the non-aesthetical realm not so much in spite but precisely because of their being mere repetitions Repetition shapes art works through procedures and processes of reproduction copying depiction or reenactment As representation of the world mimetic art's relationship to the political and social world can be conceived as repetition When can mimetic works of art nonetheless become a trigger participant in or vehicle for political and social transformation How do mimetic practices as diverse as those of the Research Institute Forensic Architecture the theater of Milo Rau video installations with found footage from social media and the fictional NSK State address and change regimes of visibility How can practices such as performative gender constitution and propaganda which ostensibly affirm regimes of visibility be understood as processes of change through repetition How do commemorative cultures and practices of documentation interrelate How is historical reality produced through mimesis with a view to an imaginary political future By exploring works of art from a wide range of historical periods places media and contexts from the political thought hidden in Hegel's Aesthetics through Hélène Cixous's practice of writing difference's from contemporary applied theater through the Gezi Park Uprising in 2013 and from installations of fictional national museums through to the artistic commemoration of assassinated political activists in Iran all contributions in this volume attempt to show how a concept of change through repetition can help redefine the relationship between art and politics and to enlighten us on the transformative potential of repetition in political art Stay the One

Embracing God's Future without Forgetting the Past Michael K. Girlinghouse, 2019-08-06 Many congregations today are dealing with changes that have led to decline and significant loss In Embracing God s Future without Forgetting the Past Michael K Girlinghouse argues that until a congregation comes to terms with its perceived losses through a healthy process of grief it will be paralyzed in the present and unable to think creatively about the future Acknowledging and expressing grief will give the congregation the courage to redefine its relationship with the past and draw strength and encouragement from its memories as it steps into the future Drawing on more than thirty years of ministry experience in varied settings and concurrent study and teaching about loss grief and nostalgia Girlinghouse shows clergy church staff and lay leaders how they can work through the experience of loss and grief both personally and in their congregation Part 1 discusses loss and grief using a contemporary task based model for the grief process It also introduces recent research on the value of nostalgia In part 2 Girlinghouse helps leaders tell their congregation's story including its losses examine how that story fits in our current social context and explore ways to accept the reality of its losses and express grief over them Part 3 considers ways congregations can think more adaptively and creatively about the future without forgetting or devaluing the past Girlinghouse presents appreciative inquiry as a tool to discover and build on a congregation's strengths while coming to terms with its losses Part 4 is about embracing God's future for the congregation remembering forward and making the changes necessary to move from the sadness of loss to the joy of taking up life again Each chapter includes a Bible study and questions for reflection and discussion

Believer on Sunday, Atheist by Thursday Ronald P. Byars, 2019-07-30 Regular worshipers may be believers on Sunday but nearly atheists by Thursday The general public not making fine distinctions lumps mainline Protestants together with fundamentalists fighting to hold on to a privileged status already lost Circumstances favor religious skeptics who find themselves with rising influence Church members in mainline denominations feel caught between a rock and a hard place Thus comes the critical question of the moment is Christian faith of an intellectually serious and recognizably generous sort still possible This book invites readers to explore basic questions about faith itself and classically inclined Christian faith in particular Faith is a kind of knowing but a knowing that makes use of doubt and asserts that it is possible to be confident without claiming absolute certainty Faith is less like agreeing with an argument and more like falling in love Faith involves learning how to see with the eyes of the heart Faith embraces realities that can be perceived even by a child but that cannot always be directly expressed in the kind of language we use for discussing serious matters Living in faith is and will always be an against the grain way of imagining the world

Speaking of Faith Krista Tippett, 2008-01-29 A thought provoking original appraisal of the meaning of religion by the host of public radio's On Being Krista Tippett widely becoming known as the Bill Moyers of radio is one of the country's most intelligent and insightful commentators on religion ethics and the human spirit With this book she draws on her own life story and her intimate conversations with both ordinary and famous figures including Elie Wiesel Karen Armstrong and Thich Nhat Hanh to explore complex subjects like science love virtue and violence within the context of spirituality and everyday life Her way of speaking about the mysteries of life and of listening with care to those who endeavor to understand those mysteries is nothing short of revolutionary

Sensual Reading Michael Syrotinski, Ian MacLachlan, 2001 Sensual Reading is a collection of essays that attempts to rearticulate the relationship between reading and the different senses as a way of moving beyond increasingly homogenized discourses of the body and the subject Contributions engage with the individual senses with the themes of sensory richness and sensory deprivation and with the notion of telesensuality

Everyday Life Peacebuilding and Family Yumi Omori, 2024-12-01 This book offers a novel approach to studying war and peace by foregrounding motherhood in times of conflict and peace processes from a sociological perspective Through qualitative research resting on individual and focus group interviews with 55 mothers who had lived through the Northern Ireland conflict this book examines the gendered nature of coping with conflict and its aftermath in peace processes Drawing on the idea of everyday life peacebuilding it discusses how the family is located in the processes of social transformation in conflict affected societies and illuminates that mothers play central yet largely unnoticed roles in maintaining and restoring sociability in a conflict affected society The book illustrates that mothers have been hidden and underappreciated everyday peacebuilders as well as hidden and trivialised victims of the conflict
