South Africa Angus Douglas,2022-12-28 In this unflinching examination of post apartheid South Africa Angus Douglas offers a provocative critique of the nation s complex racial dynamics and political landscape Drawing on personal experiences and historical analysis Douglas challenges conventional narratives about race civilization and governance in a country still grappling with its divided past Douglas takes readers on a journey through South Africa s tumultuous transition from white minority rule to African majority governance exploring the unresolved tensions that continue to shape national identity From the 2021 riots to state capture under Jacob Zuma from the legacies of figures like Jan Smuts and Steve Biko to the contemporary challenges of tribal politics and race relations the book offers an insider s perspective on a society at a crossroads Neither sparing white South Africans from criticism nor indulging in simplistic post colonial narratives Douglas argues that South Africa s future depends on honest dialogue about the nature of race civilization and the responsibilities of citizenship His central thesis that indigenous race cultures and European race cultures must find common ground while acknowledging their differences will challenge readers across the political spectrum Bold erudite and deeply personal this book provides essential context for understanding one of the world s most fascinating and troubled democracies as it struggles to define its identity in the 21st century If you enjoyed My Traitor s Heart Country of My Skull and Born a Crime you ll love South Africa In the Name of the Father Integrating Mental Health and Disability Into Public Health Disaster Preparedness and Response Jill Morrow-Gorton,Susan Wolf-Fordham,Katherine Snyder,2022-08-18 Integrating Mental Health and Disability into Public Health Disaster Preparedness and Response brings together the fields of mental behavioral

A Cause for Our Times Maggie Black, 1992 Maggie Black gives a wide ranging sometimes critical account of Oxfam's first 50 years In doing so she projects Oxfam's own development against a backdrop of changing ideas in international affairs and charitable giving of which its growth is both an inspiration and an expression

Genocide in Gaza Ahmet Davutoglu, Richard Falk, 2025-05-01 The December 2023 issuance of a Declaration of Conscience and Concern of Global Intellectuals to Stop Gaza Genocide to leading civil society activists and former governmental and UN officials throughout the world recorded 127 invited signatories and over 1500 endorsers On this basis the Declaration's originators Ahmet Davutoglu and Richard Falk invited a select number of signatories to an emergency conference in London to lend their authority to a further expression of the international community's deepest concerns in light of the continuation of the genocidal assault on the peoples of Gaza This book brings together the most valuable of the presentations delivered by conference participants It provides a coherent perspective on the extreme human catastrophe that was exposed as it unfolded in real time arousing intense responses of outrage from the peoples of the world which failed to alter the shameless and shocking levels of active complicity on the part of several leading Western liberal democracies The latter constituted a cynical embrace of moral hypocrisy and double standards paralyzing the UN and ignoring the most flagrant violations of international law on Israel's part The book assesses the Israeli response to the Hamas attack of October 7 from the perspective of international law and morality as well as providing informed accounts of the inability of the UN to implement the demands of a permanent and unconditional ceasefire in Gaza It also provides accounts of the implementation of forced evacuation induced starvation and disease efforts calculated to destroy the civilian population in whole or in part Israel's defiance of the UN the ICJ Interim Order and international humanitarian law in the course of transparent violations of the Genocide Convention At a time when neither governments nor international institutions are demonstrating either the will or the capability to act in accord with the rule of law or the popular will of the majority of the peoples of the world who have demonstrated against the genocide in their millions these substantial essays give an overview of the extraordinary damage wrought and what can and should be done to protect Palestinian rights and construct a future that empowers Palestinians to give content to their right of self determination rather than victimized by yet another effort to impose a solution from without or enable Israel to control the day after developments when the violence stops

From Empire to Anthropocene Betty Joseph, 2023-09-19 This book is an analysis of the inventiveness of contemporary fiction and of ways in which it engages our understanding of time in relation to globalization and environmental damage The book convincingly dispels the notion that so called global novels in English preclude the possibility of historical analysis and social collectivity
