Remembering Maternal Bodies B. Trigo, 2006 Remembering Maternal Bodies B. Trigo, 2006-07-01 Remembering Maternal Bodies is a collection of essays about the writings of several Latina and Latin American women writers who remember their mothers and or challenge our commonly held beliefs about motherhood and maternity in an effort to stop depression and melancholy It suggests that the widespread violent depression and sometimes suicidal melancholy that haunts our culture and society is the result of a terrible fantasy about the way we become ourselves This fantasy has a matricide at its core and this matricide will continue to have its depressing effect on us as long as it remains in place and invisible The authors showcased in this book make visible this fantasy and change it in their works in an effort to bring us out of our depression and melancholy Remembering Maternal Bodies B. Trigo, 2006-01-21 Remembering Maternal Bodies is a collection of essays about the writings of several Latina and Latin American women writers who remember their mothers and or challenge our commonly held beliefs about motherhood and maternity in an effort to stop depression and melancholy It suggests that the widespread violent depression and sometimes suicidal melancholy that haunts our culture and society is the result of a terrible fantasy about the way we become ourselves This fantasy has a matricide at its core and this matricide will continue to have its depressing effect on us as long as it remains in place and invisible The authors showcased in this book make visible this fantasy and change it in their works in an effort to bring us out of our depression and melancholy

Melancholic Migrating Bodies in Contemporary Polish Women's Writing Urszula Chowaniec, 2015-10-13 Reading contemporary women s writing as melancholy texts highlights their often under explored neuralgic nature and emancipatory value These strangers in their own lands as most recent Polish women writers and their work were described are the subject of detailed analysis in this book and are also positioned as the mirrors in which those lands are reflected From this perspective the melancholic strands in women s writing are drawn together to provide a diagnosis of the current situation in Poland taking into account unwanted discourses unwelcomed subjects and unresolved problems Melancholic Migrating Bodies offers the first systematic overview of Poland s literary and cultural environment after 1989 from the perspective of women s writing It critically surveys the various political and social transformations of this period through a close reading of the foremost Polish female novelists In this original way the book adopts a fresh perspective on some of the country s key questions such as Catholicism nationalism the patriotic ethos history romantic mythology and the problem of memory

Feminist Time Against Nation Time Victoria Hesford, Lisa Diedrich, 2009-12-01 Feminist Time Against Nation Time offers a series of essays that explore the complex and oftentimes contradictory relationship between feminism and nationalism through a problematization of temporality Although there has been much recent discussion in the U S of the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq and the War on Terror as signaling a new period of permanent war feminist voices have not been at all prominent in this discussion This collection considers not only the ways in which public spaces for dissent are limited but also the ways in which the time for such dissent is cut short Feminist Time Against Nation Time combines philosophical examinations of Women s Time by Julia Kristeva and The Time of Thought by Elizabeth Grosz with essays offering case studies of particular events including Kelly Oliver s essay on the media coverage of the U S wars on terror and in Afghanistan and Iraq and Betty Joseph s on the anti colonial uses of women s time in the creation of nineteenth century Indian nationalism Feminist Time Against Nation Time juxtaposes feminist time against nation time in order to consider temporalities that are at once contrary to but also drawing toward each other Yet Hesford and Diedrich also argue that because as an untimely project feminism necessarily operates in a different temporality from that of the nation againstness is also used to provoke a rupture a momentary opening up of a disjuncture between the two that will allow us to explore the possibilities of creating a space and time for feminists to think against the current of the present moment
