

Ode to a Lost Pet

We do not mourn the messes you made
Or miss all the work we had to do
To make sure you did not get lost when we played
Or train you about where to poo.

We miss your soft eyes,
And the kindness they held.
And to our surprise,
We miss your smell as well.

We miss each little thing we remember,
Each thing we loved about you.
You were, after all, a family member,
So, I guess, yes, we even miss the poo.

Barton Ross,2013-05-13 Explaining the concept of death to a child is a very difficult confusing and uncomfortable experience for a parent educator or therapist and it is a topic that is often first introduced by the loss of a pet sometimes a child s earliest exposure to loss and grief There is an undeniably special bond that develops between people and their pets especially between animals and young children and while the death of a pet can be devastating to an adult children are often deeply affected by such a loss Without readily available outlets for their feelings the trauma of pet loss can remain with a child for life and without help many adults feel inadequate and not up to the task The aim of this book is to provide therapists counselors educators parents social workers veterinarians and physicians with resources to help children cope with the loss of a pet The World's Children and Their Companion Animals Mary Renck Jalongo,2004 My Pet Memory Book

Pinfold Publishing,S. Wallace,2019-01-04 Losing a pet is heartbreaking for all the family but can be particularly difficult for a child This book will help any child who is grieving for a family pet who has died The book allows them to fill in all the information they like about their pet and has plenty of room for pictures either drawn or to stick in photographs The book will help the child recall happy memories about their time with their pet Parents can help the child fill the book in if needed Children can fill in as much or as little of the book as they like and at their own pace Sections of the book include Me and My Pet My Pet s Favourite Things To Do My Favourite Things To Do With My Pet My Pet s Favourite Food and Treats The Silliest Things My Pet Did The Naughtiest Things My Pet Did Why My Pet Wouldn t Want Me To Be Sad Using the book will help the child as they grieve for their lost pet by helping them recall happy memories which they can record The final section Why My Pet Wouldn t Want Me To Be Sad will prompt the child to think about why they don t have to stay sad forever Children will be able to look at the book whenever they like in the future which makes it a lovely keepsake and also reassures the child that the pet will never be forgotten Makes a thoughtful gift for any child who has lost a pet The book is 7 x 9 in size so large enough for a child to have plenty of room to write but small enough to be stored or carried easily The book has 22 prompted pages giving plenty of scope for the child to write what they would like but not so big that it overwhelms them Each prompted page has a blank page behind meaning no worrying about bleed through if they draw a picture or giving extra room for writing or pictures Please use the Look Inside function to ensure you are happy with the format and style of the book About The Author This book was created to help the Author s children when one of the family pets sadly died The children were worried that they would forget their pet The book meant that they could record their memories of the pet so that he wouldn t be forgotten and helped the children remember their happiest memories of him The Author also works in Education and writes children s story books

Mourning Animals Margo DeMello,2016-08-01 We live more intimately with nonhuman animals than ever before in history The change in the way we cohabitate with animals can be seen in the way we treat them when they die There is an almost infinite variety of ways to help us cope with the loss of our nonhuman friends from burial cremation and taxidermy to wearing or displaying the remains ashes fur or other parts of our deceased animals in jewelry tattoos or other artwork to counselors who specialize in helping people mourn pets to classes for veterinarians to tips to help the surviving animals who are grieving their animal friends to pet psychics and memorial websites But the reality is that these practices and related beliefs about animal souls or animal afterlife generally only extend with very few exceptions to certain kinds of animals pets Most animals in most cultures are not mourned and the question of an animal afterlife is not contemplated at all Mourning Animals investigates how we mourn animal deaths which animals are grievable and what the implications are for all animals

Life and Loss Linda Goldman,2013-11-20 Many clinicians recognize that denying or ignoring grief issues in children leaves them feeling alone and that acknowledging loss is crucial part of a child's healthy development. Really dealing with loss in productive ways however is sometimes easier said than done. For decades Life and Loss has been the book clinicians have relied on for a full and nuanced presentation of the many issues with which grieving children grapple as well as an honest exploration of the interrelationship between unresolved grief, educational success and responsible citizenry. The third edition of Life and Loss brings this exploration firmly into the twenty first century and makes a convincing case that children's grief is no longer restricted only to loss identified children. Children's grief is now endemic, it is global. Life and Loss is not just the book clinicians need to understand grief in the twenty first century, it's the book they need to work with it in constructive ways.

Pet Loss and Human Emotion Cheri Barton Ross, Jane Baron-Sorensen, 1998. This updated edition of Pet Loss and Human Emotion is a step by step guide to leading clients through this special kind of grief. Includes resources and a section on pet loss and natural disasters. As society accepts that grieving over the death of a loved one is not only normal but healthy and necessary, grieving over the loss of a pet is often seen differently. Expressed feelings often go unvalidated when in truth pet loss is a unique form of grief that can be quite intense and debilitating, increasing an individual's vulnerability to subsequent stress and leaving them feeling isolated and misunderstood. Pet loss needs to be addressed by therapists and others in the helping professions to better enable them to help their clients through the loss of their companion animals. This unique guide is written for all professionals helping clients deal with the loss of a pet and serves as a practical introduction to the field of human animal bonding. Citing several case studies, it describes various techniques for helping clients when the bond with a pet is broken.
