Anna Bikont,2015-09-15 Winner of the National Jewish Book Award in the Holocaust category A monumental work of nonfiction on a wartime atrocity its sixty year denial and the impact of its truth Jan Gross s hugely controversial Neighbors was a historian s disclosure of the events in the small Polish town of Jedwabne on July 10 1941 when the citizens rounded up the Jewish population and burned them alive in a barn The massacre was a shocking secret that had been suppressed for more than sixty years and it provoked the most important public debate in Poland since 1989 From the outset Anna Bikont reported on the town combing through archives and interviewing residents who survived the war period Her writing became a crucial part of the debate and she herself an actor in a national drama Part history part memoir The Crime and the Silence is the journalist s account of these events both the story of the massacre told through oral histories of survivors and witnesses and a portrait of a Polish town coming to terms with its dark past Including the perspectives of both heroes and perpetrators Bikont chronicles the sources of the hatred that exploded against Jews and asks what myths grow on hidden memories what destruction they cause and what happens to a society that refuses to accept a horrific truth A profoundly moving exploration of being Jewish in modern Poland that Julian Barnes called one of the most chilling books The Crime and the Silence is a vital contribution to Holocaust history and a fascinating story of a town coming to terms with its dark past
The German-Jewish Soldiers of the First World War in History and Memory Tim Grady,2011-01-01 Nearly one hundred thousand German Jews fought in World War I and some twelve thousand of these soldiers lost their lives in battle This book focuses on the multifaceted ways in which these soldiers have been remembered as well as forgotten from 1914 to the late 1970s By examining Germany s complex and continually evolving memory culture Tim Grady opens up a new approach to the study of German and German Jewish history In doing so he draws out a narrative of entangled and overlapping relations between Jews and non Jews a story that extends past the Holocaust and into the Cold War Memory in World Cinema
