New York Baseball in 1951 Rudy Marzano, 2011-01-14 This work covers one of the most controversial pennant races in baseball history The Brooklyn Dodgers were leading the pennant race by 13 games in early August when the New York Giants installed a powerful telescope in one of their clubhouse windows and aimed it at the opposing catcher some 500 feet away enabling a Giants coach to steal the signs and signal them to the Giants bullpen which would then flash them to the Giants batter Thus at home games every Giants hitter knew what was coming and Bobby Thomson was ready to hit the pennant deciding home run Was it an honest race or did the Giants cheat Amazingly the facts behind this scheme remained secret for 50 years until 2001

Red Barber Judith R. Hiltner, James R. Walker, 2022-04 2023 SABR Baseball Research Award A Booklist Top 10 Sports Recreation Book Finalist for the 2023 Seymour Medal Finalist for the 2022 CASEY Award Born and raised in rural Mississippi and the even balmy climes of central Florida Red Barber at the age of thirty two became one of New York City's most influential citizens as the play by play announcer for the Brooklyn Dodgers When he arrived in 1939 Barber brought the down home drawl and idioms of his southern roots to the borough where residents said they could walk down any street and never miss a pitch because his voice wafted out of every window and every passing car From his colorful expressions like rhubarb and sitting in the catbird seat to his vivid use of similes a close game was tighter than a new pair of shoes on a rainy day Barber's influence on his contemporaries and the many generations of broadcasters who followed him cannot be overstated But behind all the base hits balls and strikes lies a compelling story that dramatizes the shifting expectations and roles of a public figure the sports broadcaster as he adapted to complex cultural changes throughout the course of twentieth century American life Red Barber follows the trajectory of Barber's long career from radio and television play by play man for the Cincinnati Reds Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Yankees to his work calling college and professional football games his nine year tenure as director of sports for CBS Radio and his second acts as an Episcopal lay reader sportswriter and weekly guest with Bob Edwards on NPR's Morning Edition This talented public figure was also a private man committed to rigorous self examination and willing to evolve and grow under the influence of changing times When the Dodgers first signed Jackie Robinson and smashed the color barrier in Major League Baseball Barber struggled to overcome the racism he had absorbed from his culture as a child But after observing the vicious abuse Robinson endured from opposing fans Barber became an ardent supporter of him and the many Black players who followed Barber was also bothered deeply by the strains that his single minded careerism imposed on his family He was challenged to navigate longtime family tensions after his only child Sarah came out as a lesbian And his primary role during the later years of his life was caretaking for his wife Lylah during her decline from Alzheimer's disease at a time when the ailment was something many families concealed Ultimately Red Barber traces the career of a true radio and television pioneer who was committed to the civic responsibility of mass media Barber firmly believed the most important role of a broadcaster was telling the truth and promoting public well being

Transgenerational Remembrance Jessica Nakamura, 2020-01-15 In Transgenerational Remembrance Jessica Nakamura investigates the role of artistic production in the commemoration and memorialization of the Asia Pacific War 1931-1945 in Japan since 1989 During this time survivors of Japanese aggression and imperialism previously silent about their experiences have sparked contentious public debates about the form and content of war memories The book opens with an analysis of the performance of space at Yasukuni Shinto Shrine which continues to promote an anachronistic veneration of the war After identifying the centrality of performance in long standing dominant narratives Transgenerational Remembrance offers close readings of artistic performances that tackle subject matter largely obscured before 1989 the kamikaze pilot Japanese imperialism comfort women the Battle of Okinawa and Japanese American internment These case studies range from Hirata Oriza's play series about Japanese colonial settlers in Korea and Shimada Yoshiko's durational performance about comfort women to Kondo Aisuke's videos and gallery installations about Japanese American internment Working from theoretical frameworks of haunting and ethics Nakamura develops an analytical lens based on the Noh theater ghost Noh emphasizes the agency of the ghost and the dialogue between the dead and the living Integrating her Noh inflected analysis into ethical and transnational feminist queries Nakamura shows that performances move remembrance beyond current evidentiary and historiographical debates

The Fourfold Andrew J. Mitchell, 2015-08-17 Heidegger s later thought is a thinking of things so argues Andrew J Mitchell in The Fourfold Heidegger understands these things in terms of what he names the fourfold a convergence of relationships bringing together the earth the sky divinities and mortals and Mitchell s book is the first detailed exegesis of this neglected aspect of Heidegger s later thought As such it provides entr e to the full landscape of Heidegger s postwar thinking offering striking new interpretations of the atomic bomb technology plants animals weather time language the holy mortality dwelling and more What results is a conception of things as ecstatic relational singular and most provocatively as intrinsically tied to their own technological commodification A major new work that resonates beyond the confines of Heidegger scholarship The Fourfold proposes nothing less than a new phenomenological thinking of relationality and mediation for understanding the things around us
