Recollections of the Lakes and the Lake Poets

Thomas De Quincey, 2017-09-16 Excerpt from Recollections of the Lakes and the Lake Poets Coleridge Wordsworth and Southey Soon after my return to Oxford in 1807 8 I received a letter from Miss Wordsworth asking for any subscriptions I might succeed in obtaining amongst my college friends in aid of the funds then raising on behalf of an orphan family who had become such by an affecting tragedy that had occurred within a few weeks from my visit to Grasmere Miss Wordsworth s simple but fervid memoir not being within my reach at this moment I must trust to my own recollections and my own impressions to retrace the story which after all is not much of a story to excite or to impress unless for those who can find a sufficient interest in the trials and calamities of hard working peasants and can reverence the fortitude which being lodged in so frail a tenement as the person of a little girl not much if any thing above nine years old could face an occasion of sudden mysterious abandonment and could tower up during one night into the perfect energies of womanhood under the mere pressure of difficulty and under the sense of new born responsibilities awfully bequeathed to her and in the most lonely perhaps of English habitations About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
