Renaming the Streets John Stone, 1985-11-01 Stone is not only a valuable physician but a poet who is able to get his outstanding qualities of imagination and formal technique into a relationship that produces poems of great human value James Dickey Renaming the Streets John Stone's third book of poems is a work that speaks to the future but remains mindful of the endless intersection of the past and present Stone writes about the human experience in all its seasons if there is suffering pain loneliness there is also love mercy humor and always a sense of wonder In Rosemary Stone describes the vulnerability of a traveler who falls half in love with a coffee shop waitress When in The Bass a city clicker takes his son fishing and they unexpectedly catch a fish there is not only high humor but at the end a sudden contemplative tone That fish won for us a trophy which I keep here on my desk to remind me of that morning and of how unexpected the end may be how hungry how shining Renaming the Streets is notable for its explorations within form prose vignettes and a sonnet sequence are side by side In the latter the astonishing feats of the homing pigeon take on metaphorical depth Its house as handsome as a Henry Moore a prisoner in the rounded sleep of egg But then the chipping chisel of its beak a burglar on the perfect inside job and with a novice's display of cheek what began as instinct ends as squab Renaming the Streets is a book of cycles and circuits The work is all of a piece the voice that of a mature and meticulous craftsman a distinguished presence in American poetry abundance of their work its critical reception and both local and national standing Natives of Mississippi and others who have resided here draw equal consideration As C Liegh McInnis observed You do not have to be born in Mississippi to be a Mississippi writer If what happens in Mississippi has an immediate and definite effect on your work you are a Mississippi writer

Yellow Shoe Poets George Garrett, 1999-10-01 Since 1964 when Louisiana State University Press published its inaugural book of verse Miller Williams's A Circle of Stone its poetry list has grown exponentially 191 books by 93 poets into a program that inspires understandable pride in those associated with it Two collections have won the Pulitzer Prize The Flying Change 1986 by Henry Taylor and Alive Together 1996 by Lisel Mueller Another book by Mueller The Need to Hold Still 1980 won the National Book Award while several other LSU titles have been finalists for that distinction most recently The Fields of Praise 1997 by Marilyn Nelson and The Vigil 1993 by Margaret Gibson Dozens more have been recognized for their excellence through a host of various honors The Press publishes the winner of the annual Walt Whitman Award given by The Academy of American Poets for a first collection and in 1996 it launched the Southern Messenger series in collaboration with Dave Smith bringing two shining works into the fold each year The appearance of The Collected Poems of Robert Penn Warren in 1998 meant for the Press the realization of a long dearly held dream To mark this thirty five year old tradition as the century and millennium turn and to offer a sampling of its richness The Yellow Shoe Poets a retrospective anthology was compiled under the editorship of George Garrett a longtime colleague of the Press and the author of eight poetry volumes Say the LSU poets real fast with a southern drawl and you get the ridiculously wonderful moniker that poet Elizabeth Seydel Morgan's young friend innocently mistook for this noble band It's an image Brendan Galvin has appropriated to a perfect fit in his poem Yellow Shoe Poet written on behalf of his fellow yellow shoes across the years All 173 poems are taken from LSU Press books and were selected by the poets themselves if living Arranged alphabetically by author they consist of at least one poem from every poet published by the Press Goethe's admonition that one ought every day at least to read a good poem can find no better starting point than in The Yellow Shoe Poets
