Feest, Patricia Condon Johnston, 1995 The Leading Pictorial Historian of the American Indian in the nineteenth century Seth Eastman was a career army officer whose paintings are unparalleled on two fronts Monumentally important as American art they also comprise a unique visual record of Native life which was then undergoing rapid change American Book Publishing Record, 1991 George de Forest Brush

Nancy K. Anderson, James C. Boyles, National Gallery of Art (U.S.), Seattle Art Museum, 2008 George de Forest Brush 1854-1941 created an important series of paintings of American Indians that was much celebrated in his time but has been seen rarely since Brush combined extraordinary technical skills acquired during several years of training in the studio of Jean-Léon Gérôme with first hand experience of living among the Arapahoe Shoshone and Crow Indians in Wyoming and Montana Completed during the 1880s many of these works were quickly acquired by major American collectors and have remained in private hands through several generations This beautiful book the first scholarly study of Brush's Indian paintings features detailed discussions of individual paintings interpretative essays exploring the historical and cultural context in which the paintings were produced a comprehensive chronology and lavish colour reproductions of numerous paintings not shown publicly since the nineteenth century After more than six years of study in Paris during the 1870s Brush travelled to Wyoming to join his brother in a ranching venture Fascinated by the native people he met he quickly undertook life studies of Indians living on the Wind River and Crow reservations Later when he returned east he produced a number of studio paintings in which the Indian served as metaphor New research reveals that these stunningly beautiful paintings of American Indians are also surprisingly complex meditations on the advent of modernism Montana, 1990 Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1997 Paperbound Books in Print, 1991 Congressional Record United States.
