Katz, 2013 This collection of primary texts introduces readers to the mystical literature of the world's great religious traditions Beginning with an introduction by Steven T Katz a leading scholar of mysticism the anthology comprises poetry prayer narrative and other writings from Jewish Christian Muslim Hindu Buddhist Taoist Confucianist and Native American traditions This collection provides readers not only with the primary mystical texts from each religious tradition but with an explanation of the context of the source and tradition Comparative Mysticism shows how the great mystical traditions of the world are deeply rooted in the religious traditions from which they originated The contextual methodological approach taken throughout the anthology also addresses the critical question of what these mystical traditions at their highest level have in common Despite the prevailing view that mystical traditions throughout the world are essentially similar the presentation of the sources in this volume suggests that in fact the various traditions have distinct teachings and different metaphysical goals The writings collected in Comparative Mysticism address the most fundamental and important methodological epistemological and hermeneutical questions regarding the study and interpretation of mysticism and mystical sources across cultures This anthology will be an invaluable resource to students and scholars of mystic tradition for years to come Mevlana Rumi Mohamed el Fers, 1992

Naimi,2007-11 Darvish is a tale of love faith betrayal and revenge 1925 was a year of endings and beginnings The Qajar Dynasty ended in a bloodless coup giving rise to the rule of Reza Shah and the birth of the Pahlavi Dynasty And in the northern province of Gilan a young mother lay dying With her last breath she named the child cut from her womb Thus began the tragic life of Morteza Ali Tormented by a past he can not escape and a future that eludes him at every step Morteza Ali finds solace and guidance in the voices that speak to him in his darkest hours As Darvish a self proclaimed holy man he walks a slippery path between light and darkness Was he a messiah or a madman a martyr or a murderer The reader will be captivated by the power of ancient legends the timeless wisdom of parables and the beauty of Persian poetry that infuse and enrich this tragic tale Walk the path of Darvish Discover for yourself the fine line between majesty and tragedy the forces that shape the destinies of all men The Cambridge History of World Literature Debjani Ganguly,2021-09-09 World Literature is a vital part of twentieth first century critical and comparative literary studies As a field that engages seriously with function of literary studies in our global era the study of World literature requires new approaches The Cambridge History of World Literature is founded on the assumption that World Literature is not all literatures of the world nor a canonical set of globally successful literary works It highlights scholarship on literary works that focus on the logics of circulation drawn from multiple literary cultures and technologies of the textual While not rejecting the nation as a site of analysis these volumes will offer insights into new cartographies the hemispheric the oceanic the transregional the archipelagic the multilingual local that better reflect the multi scalar and spatially dispersed nature of literary production It will interrogate existing historical methodological and cartographic boundaries and showcase humanistic and literary endeavors in the face of world scale environmental and humanitarian catastrophes Poetry in a Global Age Jahan Ramazani,2020-10-29 Ideas culture and capital flow across national borders with unprecedented speed but we tend not to think of poems as taking part in globalization Jahan Ramazani shows that poetry has much to contribute to understanding literature in an extra national frame Indeed the globality of poetry he argues stands to energize the transnational turn in the humanities Poetry in a Global Age builds on Ramazani s award winning A Transnational Poetics a book that had a catalytic effect on literary studies Ramazani broadens his lens to discuss modern and contemporary poems not only in relation to world literature war and questions of orientalism but also in light of current debates over ecocriticism translation studies tourism and cultural geography He offers brilliant readings of postcolonial poets like Agha Shahid Ali Lorna Goodison and Daljit Nagra as well as canonical modernists such as W B Yeats Wallace Stevens T S Eliot and Marianne Moore Ramazani shows that even when poetry seems locally rooted its long memory of forms and words its connections across centuries

Emmons,2009-07-27 The test of all happiness said G K Chesterton is gratitude Learning to experience gratitude involves being grateful as an attitude not as a reaction when good things occur To be grateful one does not need to wait until things are perfect In fact practicing gratitude makes one receptive to life s blessings and these blessings continue as we continue to be thankful In one study described by author Robert Emmons participants who wrote about five things for which they were grateful experienced more positive emotional states and were more likely to help others over a period of ten weeks than were participants who wrote about the hassles and stressors they experienced during the same time Love wholeheartedly says Brother David Steindl Rast be surprised give thanks and praise then you will discover the fullness of your life Gratitude provides gifts to both the giver and the receiver and this illuminating book will inspire readers to recognize just how truly blessed we are The Art of Everyday Ecstasy Margot Anand,2015-02-18 Ecstasy is about waking up and finding that you are in love with life Most people think of ecstasy in terms of sexual ecstasy which Tantric sex expert Margot Anand wrote about in her bestselling The Art of Sexual Ecstasy Now in The Art of Everyday Ecstasy Anand expands our definition of ecstasy and shows how we can harness its energy to help us live work and love more passionately joyfully and with true spiritual focus Our modern work obsessed stress filled culture what Anand calls the anti ecstatic conspiracy has dulled our spirits thrown us off balance and alienated us from meaningful everyday experiences In this inspirational journey toward finding the healing nature of ecstasy Anand explains how the two types of ecstatic experiences the moments of epiphany called Ecstatic Awakenings and Everyday Ecstasy or the Ecstasy of Flow a connection to our power and inner wisdom can help us move beyond pain and doubt to reach our highest potential Based on the spiritual path of Tantra Anand shows how to use the natural energy system of our bodies the seven chakras as a map to ecstasy As she guides us through the chakras she explains how each one plays an important role in transforming energy into erotic passion healing empowerment compassion creativity insight and gratitude Blocked chakras manifest themselves in surprising ways wholeness can be achieved only when all of the chakras are open with energy flowing freely By transforming negative behavioral patterns into positive ones and strengthening ourselves physically emotionally and spiritually we can improve our health sex life career relationships and find profound meaning in everyday moments With personal anecdotes exercises meditations and rituals The Art of Everyday Ecstasy shows us how to bring ecstatic energy into the body mind heart and spirit to embrace every moment in our totality to respond bodily feel from the heart perceive with clarity and be fully present to others and to life To Touch Is To live Mariana Caplan, Ph.D.,2014-09-29 For babies to develop normally they must be touched Adults too thrive when touch is a normal part of their each day a reassuring handshake a sympathetic hug a healing massage But how often do we permit
