Multicultural Writers from Antiquity to 1945 Alba Amoia, Bettina L. Knapp, 2001-10-30 The final decades of the 20th century have seen an explosion of interest in multiculturalism But multiculturalism is more than an awareness of the different cultures comprising contemporary societies For centuries people from around the world have come in contact with cultures other than their own and their exposure to multiple cultures has fostered their creativity and ability to make lasting contributions to civilization The effects of multiculturalism are especially apparent in literature since writers tend to be particularly aware of their environments and record their experiences This reference includes alphabetically arranged entries for more than 100 world writers from antiquity to 1945 who were significantly influenced by cultures other than their own Included are entries for major canonical Ancient and Modern writers of the Western and Eastern worlds Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a brief biography a discussion of multicultural themes and contexts a summary of the writer's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies By illuminating the shaping influence of multiculturalism on these writers the volume points to the lasting value of multiculturalism in the contemporary world

Intertextualité surréaliste dans la poésie de René Char

Julie S. Kleiva, 2018-08-20 Dans Intertextualité surréaliste dans la poésie de René Char Julie S Kleiva montre comment la figure d'Artine initialement une représentante du surréalisme charien se transforme en une image complexe polymorphe et considérablement présente travers l'œuvre de René Char 1907-1988 En adoptant une approche intertextuelle Kleiva soutient que la figure d'Artine représente la force d'orientation au cœur de l'imagination poétique charienne L'image revenante d'Artine favorise l'idée d'une continuité dans l'œuvre poétique de Char malgré la rupture articulée au milieu des années 30 In Intertextualité surréaliste dans la poésie de René Char Julie S Kleiva demonstrates how the initially surrealist figure of Artine becomes a complex polymorphous and most importantly significantly present image throughout the work of the French poet René Char 1907-1988 By adopting an intertextual approach Kleiva argues that the figure of Artine is a disturbing and confusing creative agency that corresponds to the core of Char's poetry The reappearing image of Artine serves to demonstrate that Char's poetic rupture of the years from 1935-1937 has been exaggerated and must be viewed as a development rather than a clean break
