Chain Stores in the Golden Age of the British High Street Kathryn A Morrison, 2025-05-08 Familiar multiples like Boots Burton s Marks Spencer and Woolworth s plus a host of smaller chains forged the character of Britain s high streets in the late 19th and 20th centuries Multiple retailing was a supremely successful phenomenon loved by thrifty shoppers but feared by independent competitors It is explored here through the lens of its shops and stores which are generously illustrated with archive and modern photographs These range from the Edwardian grandeur of Boots to the Art

Deco splendour of Burton s and the utilitarian post war buildings of Littlewoods Smaller chains are not neglected even if all that survives are weathered signs or mosaic pavements The time is ripe for a study of chain stores Britain s retail giants have been under scrutiny since the shocking collapse of Woolworth s in 2009 followed by BHS in 2016 Online shopping was already undermining bricks and mortar retailing when the COVID pandemic struck in 2020 accelerating the process The recent demise of Debenhams Arcadia Wilko and others leaves vast empty premises in town centres nationwide Our high streets are changing but their legacy of chain store buildings can play a constructive role in repurposing them for future generations

Elizabeth Skerpan-Wheeler,2017-03-02 Early modern men and women represented their lives very differently from twentieth century autobiographers sharing none of the current preoccupation with individuality and the unique self The writers represented in this two volume collection sought connections between particular events in their lives and the larger pattern of Christian salvation The texts reproduced here are united in the way they interconnect personal experiences and feelings with scriptural passages in an attempt to understand daily life in spiritual terms Almost all the women whose works appear in these volumes would have been considered religious radicals by their contemporaries Living through the turbulent times of the English Revolution 1642 1660 it is unsurprising that their life writings are marked by a sense of persecution Many of them spent time in prison Katherine Evans Sarah Cheevers and Barbara Blaugdane were all imprisoned for preaching the faith of The Society of Friends while Mary Rowlandson spent several months as a captive of North American Indians In her introduction to these writings Elizabeth Skerpan Wheeler provides brief biographical sketches of these writers together with details of the publication history of each text With the exception of Rowlandson s works the writings in these volumes are the first complete unabridged editions in modern times
