Musical Metropolis K. Marcus,2004-12-16 Decentralization and diversity characterized much of the performance of art music in Los Angeles Decentralization defined the city's growth since the late nineteenth century and because the central city did not dominate music culture as in the East and Midwest a greater diversification of music emerged in the communities of Greater Los Angeles Performers and audiences included Latinos Euro Americans Asian Americans and African Americans but the notion of diversity goes beyond ethnicity it also includes media diversity the presentation of music through a variety of media recording radio film media strongly influenced music performance in the city as it grew into the epicenter of entertainment in America
