The Altering Eye Robert Phillip Kolker, 2009 The Altering Eye covers a golden age of international cinema from the end of WWII through to the New German Cinema of the 1970s Combining historical political and textual analysis the author develops a pattern of cinematic invention and experimentation from neorealism through the modernist interventions of Jean Luc Godard and Rainer Maria Fassbinder focusing along the way on such major figures as Luis Bu uel Joseph Losey the Brazilian director Glauber Rocha and the work of major Cuban filmmakers Kolker s book has become a much quoted classic in the field of film studies providing essential reading for anybody interested in understanding the history of European and international cinema This new and revised edition includes a substantive new Preface by the author and an updated Bibliography

Plotting Women Jean Franco, 1989 Where is the common ground for feminist theory and Latin American culture Jean Franco explores Mexican women s struggle for interpretive power in relation to the Catholic religion the nation and post modern society and examines the writings of women who wrote under the shadow of recognized male writers as well as the works of more marginal figures In this original and skillfully written book Franco demonstrates the many feminisms that emerge in apparently rigid and adverse situations and provides the foundation for a more comprehensive less ethnocentric feminst theory

Critical White Studies Richard Delgado, Jean Stefancic, 1997 No longer content with accepting whiteness as the norm critical scholars have turned their attention to whiteness itself In Critical White Studies Looking Behind the Mirror numerous thinkers including Toni Morrison Eric Foner Peggy McIntosh Andrew Hacker Ruth Frankenberg John Howard Griffin David Roediger Kathleen Heal Cleaver Noel Ignatiev Cherrie Moraga and Reginald Horsman attack such questions as How was whiteness invented and why How has the category whiteness changed over time Why did some immigrant groups such as the Irish and Jews start out as nonwhite and later became white Can some individual people be both white and nonwhite at different times and what does it mean to pass for white At what point does pride in being white cross the line into white power or white supremacy What can whites concerned over racial inequity or white privilege do about it Science and pseudoscience are presented side by side to demonstrate how our views on whiteness often reflect preconception not fact For example most scientists hold that race is not a valid scientific category genetic differences between races are insignificant compared to those within them Yet the one drop rule whereby those with any nonwhite heritage are classified as nonwhite persists even today As the bell curve controversy shows race concepts die hard especially when power and prestige lie behind them A sweeping portrait of the emerging field of whiteness studies Critical White Studies presents for the first time the best work from sociology law history cultural studies and literature Delgado and Stefancic expressly offer critical white studies as the next step in critical race theory In focusing on whiteness not only do they ask nonwhites to investigate more closely for what it means for others to be white but also they invite whites to examine themselves more searchingly and to look behind the mirror

Bunuel and Mexico Ernesto R. Acevedo-Muñoz, 2025-03-18 Though Luis Buñuel one of the most important filmmakers of the twentieth century spent his most productive years as a director in Mexico film histories and criticism invariably pay little attention to his work during this period The only book length English language study of Buñuel's Mexican films this book is the first to explore a significant but neglected area of this filmmaker's distinguished career and thus to fill a gap in our appreciation and understanding of both Buñuel's achievement and the history of Mexican film Ernesto Acevedo Muñoz considers Buñuel's Mexican films made between 1947 and 1965 within the context of a national and nationalist film industry comparing the filmmaker's employment of styles genres character types themes and techniques to those most characteristic of Mexican cinema In this study Buñuel's films emerge as a link between the Classical Mexican cinema of the 1930s through the 1950s and the new Cinema of the 1960s flourishing in a time of crisis for the national film industry and introducing some of the stylistic and conceptual changes that would revitalize Mexican cinema

Mexican Cinema Carl J. Mora, 1989 The author's main reason for writing this book however is simply to provide an introduction to the Mexican commercial cinema for American and other English speaking readers Although the United States has been and continues to be a major foreign market for Mexican movies the overwhelming majority of Americans are unaware of them Mexican films are restricted to the Hispanic theater circuits and shown without English subtitles therefore anyone wishing to see a Mexican movie would have to be fairly fluent in Spanish Such a requisite effectively eliminates almost the entire general audience in the United States from exposure to Mexican cinema
