French, 2010-10-18 This collection of essays inspired by the author's experience teaching ethics to Marine and Navy chaplains during the Iraq War examines the moral and psychological dilemmas posed by war The first section deals directly with Dr Peter A French's teaching experience and the specific challenges posed by teaching applied and theoretical ethics to men and women wrestling with the immediate and personal moral conflicts occasioned by the dissonance of their duties as military officers with their religious convictions The following chapters grew out of philosophical discussions with these chaplains regarding specific ethical issues surrounding the Iraq War including the nature of moral evil forgiveness mercy retributive punishment honour torture responsibility and just war theory This book represents a unique viewpoint on the philosophical problems of war illuminating the devastating toll combat experiences take on both an individual's sense of identity and a society's professed moral code Ethics Ronnie Littlejohn, 1993 Iran's heritage is as varied as it is complex and the archaeological philological and linguistic scholarship of the region has not been the focus of a synoptic study for many decades Thus The Oxford Handbook of Ancient Iran fills a longstanding gap in the literature of the ancient Near East providing up to date authoritative essays by leading specialists based both inside and outside of Iran on a wide range of topics extending from the earliest Paleolithic settlements in the Pleistocene era to the Islamic conquest in the 7th century AD The volume is divided into sections covering prehistory the Chalcolithic the Bronze Age the Iron Age the Achaemenid period the Seleucid and Arsacid periods and the Sasanian period concluding with the Arab conquest of Iran In addition more specialized chapters are included that treat numismatics Elymaean Arsacid Persid and Sasanian religion the Avesta and Zoroastrianism languages proto Elamite Elamite Akkadian Old Persian Greek Aramaic Parthian and Middle Persian political ideology calendrics textiles administrative seals and sealing Sasanian silver and reliefs and political relations
