

And how you know Josh Lawson is the real deal: he's created a full-on world of Williams-Lawson who are handsome and all behaved and have a cool attitude, he's a long-suffering poor worker who has fun in more serious without ever slipping off on having a phony party, and you have to keep waiting for the post-phenomena of his company."

—Jonathan Freeman, author of The Corrections

"A beautifully well-moving portrait of America that gives us together the emotional life of a small city with a wide and range that would Robert Alton and Nashville. The Love of Love Must be written yet playful, detailed and touching with the details of contemporary life."

Panic and Mourning Daniela Agostinho, Elisa Antz, Cátia Ferreira, 2012-10-30 Panic and mourning are two pivotal constructs that often emerge and interplay under circumstances of conflict violence crisis and catastrophe both natural and man made Whereas panic tends to crop up during the experience of violent events mourning on the other hand relates to the aftermath of a brutal disruption and to the way humans try to make sense of it retrospectively Conversely violent events can leave a thread of panic in their aftermath while mourning can be unsettled interrupted or even refuelled by another catastrophic incident From an international and inter disciplinary outlook this volume wishes to address questions at the interface of panic and mourning and their impact on practices in literature media and the arts Since violent events take place within cultures that will draw from their traditions memories and systems of beliefs in order to process them the authors of this book aim precisely at discussing the effects of calamity upon the cultural structure and the way literary artistic and media practices not only reproduce individual and collective anxieties but also generate knowledge and reshape the cultural formation within which they emerge The Waverley Novels Walter
