Lost Mind:

Riemann Zeta Nicholas B. Beeson, 2011-12-06 You don't know what it is to be the drug that I am the drug I will be the pure ecstasy Here let me cook up some of me The world is not as it seems But forget the world for now The City stands alone as the only haven from government oppression intentionally left so to serve mankind through its technological advances The price this paradise pays for its creative freedom is deeper in cost than its denizens could ever fathom The driver has been assigned a position at Civil Central Command a relatively simple commission in a city with few regulations However this job requires much more work to investigate numerous unexplained deaths People are dying everywhere With hardly any trail to go on the driver is chasing a wraith The City's light of advancement is darkened by death and destruction as two travelers set upon the City and square off in a showdown The killer is restless How many more must litter the floor Only Don't Know

Zen Master Seung Sahn, 1999-04-06 Here is the inimitable Zen Master Seung Sahn up close and personal in selections from the correspondence that was one of his primary modes of teaching Seung Sahn received hundreds of letters per month each of which he answered personally and some of the best of which are included here His frank and funny style familiar to readers of Dropping Ashes on the Buddha is seen here in a most intimate form The beloved Zen master not only answers questions on Zen teaching and practice but applies an enlightened approach to problems with work relationships suffering and the teacher student relationship

Living Above Sin and Death Anthony Ametu Ajayi, Damian Ajayi, 2022-06-27 The soul of man is bedevilled with the fear of death as he finds himself enclosed in a body of death limiting his carnal understanding to a fate of hopelessness and uncertainty of the judgement beyond death What a pity This book provides an escape from his misguided thoughts Using the experience of scriptures based on Bible references Living Beyond Sin And Death beams out the light of hope beyond the body of death That is the radiant light of the expression of God a verified assurance of promise that cannot fail For example the Bible notes that the gift of God is eternal life Furthermore it presents Jesus declaring his custody of the keys of hell and death Why then should a soul be in fear of death if not ignorance Rather a soul needs death to grow into his likeness to his Maker and thereabouts return to embrace his God in eternal glory This is great faith and a worthy fellowship Get a copy Women's Intuition

Visions of Ryukyu Gregory Smits, 1999-01-01 Between 1609 and 1879 the geographical political and ideological status of the Kingdom of Ryukyu modern Okinawa was characterized by its ambiguity It was subordinate to its larger neighbors China and Japan yet an integral part of neither A Japanese invasion force from Satsuma had conquered the kingdom in 1609 resulting in its partial incorporation into Tokugawa Japan's bakufu state Given Ryukyu's long standing ties with China and East Asian foreign relations following the rise of the Qing dynasty however the bakufu maintained only an indirect link with Ryukyu from the mid seventeenth century onward Thus Ryukyu was able to exist as a quasi independent kingdom for more than two centuries albeit amidst a complex web of trade and diplomatic agreements involving the bakufu Satsuma Fujian and Beijing During this time Ryukyu's ambiguous position relative to China and Japan prompted its elites to fashion their own visions of Ryukyuan identity Created in a dialogic relationship to both a Chinese and Japanese Other these visions informed political programs intended to remake Ryukyu In this innovative and provocative study Gregory Smits explores early modern perceptions of Ryukyu and their effect on its political culture and institutions He describes the major historical circumstances that informed early modern discourses of Ryukyuan identity and examines the strategies used by leading intellectual and political figures to fashion promote and implement their visions of Ryukyu Early modern visions of Ryukyu were based on Confucianism Buddhism and other ideologies of the time Eventually one vision prevailed becoming the theoretical basis of the early modern state by the middle of the eighteenth century Employing elements of Confucianism the scholar and government official Sai On 1682-1761 argued that the kingdom's destiny lay primarily with Ryukyuan themselves and that moral parity with Japan and China was within its grasp Despite Satsuma's control over its diplomatic and economic affairs Sai envisioned Ryukyu as an ideal Confucian state with government and state rituals based on the Chinese model In examining Sai's thought and political program this volume sheds new light on Confucian praxis and conversely uncovers one variety of an East Asian prenational imagined political cultural community

Plaks, 2025-03-11 A reinterpretation of some of the great works of Chinese fiction of the late Ming dynasty In this book Andrew Plaks reinterprets the great texts of Chinese fiction known as the Four Masterworks of the Ming Novel ssu ta ch i shu Arguing that these are far more than collections of popular narratives Plaks shows that their fullest critical revisions represent a sophisticated new genre of Chinese prose fiction arising in the late Ming dynasty especially in the sixteenth century He then analyzes these radical transformations of prior source materials which reflect the values and intellectual concerns of the literati of the period The ROLAMN Phil Garris, 2022-05-23 Once an individual hath found thy path and begin eth thy journey toward enlightenment ye shall know such path lead eth thee toward thy destiny where ye need not a form of religion because thy spiritual salvation hath already been secured by the unwritten laws of universal knowledge and that of What Is The Short Sharp Life of T. E. Hulme Robert Ferguson, 2012-05-15 Prior to the First World War T E Hulme was one of the most original and striking creative personalities in England strongly admired by both Pound and Eliot Yet he died in 1917 virtually unknown A key figure in the genesis of Modernism Hulme mixed among a great range of gifted artists and was never shy of courting controversy Unusually among poets of his generation he was convinced of the rightness of Britain's role in the war and criticised Bertrand Russell for his pacifism Robert Ferguson offers the first modern biography of Hulme drawing upon access to Hulme's papers and later interviews with his associates A humane comprehensive biography By the end Ferguson's final judgment of his subject the conservative character at its best seems justified Jeremy Noel Todd Observer Metaphors of ANGER across Languages: Universality and Variation Zoltan Kövecses, Réka

Benczes, Veronika Szélid, 2024-11-04 Anger is one of the basic emotions of human emotional experience informing and guiding many of our choices and actions Although it has received considerable scholarly attention in a number of disciplines including linguistics a basic question has still remained unresolved why do variations in the folk model of anger exist across languages if it is indeed a basic emotion rooted in largely universal bodily experience By drawing on a wide selection of comparable linguistic data from dozens of languages including a number of less researched languages this volume provides the most comprehensive account of what is universal and what is variable in the folk model of anger and why It also investigates the role that metonymies might play in the emergence of anger related metaphors and in what ways context influences or shapes anger metaphors and thereby the resulting folk model of anger No such volume exists in the cognitive linguistic literature on anger or on emotions for that matter The book is thus an essential contribution to the study of anger and will serve as basic reading for any researcher interested in how the conceptualization of anger is constructed via the interplay of bodily experience language and the larger cultural context Punch Mark Lemon, Henry Mayhew, Tom Taylor, Shirley Brooks, Francis Cowley Burnand, Owen Seaman, 1924
