San Representation Keyan Tomaselli,Michael Wessels,2017-12-22 The San or Bushmen of southern Africa have exerted a fascination over generations of writers and scholars from novelists and anarchists to ethnologists and geneticists and also occupy a special place in the popular imagination as the First People and the contemporary remnant of spiritual and natural man The ways in which particular groups of people from southern Africa have been traditionally categorised and positioned as objects of scrutiny by a range of academic disciplines is increasingly being contested and questioned There is a growing awareness of the cultural economic and genetic entanglement of the peoples of the region This book examines how San and Khoe people are represented by others as well as by those who identify as San or Khoe The book interrogates the ways in which disciplines through their methodologies and ways of authorising knowledge not only discover or reveal knowledge but produce it in ways that involve complex and often ambiguous relationships with power structures and forms of intellectual symbolic and cultural capital One major trend that emerges is that the San and Khoe can no longer be seen as people of the past but have to be acknowledged as contemporary and socially situated individuals and communities who are increasingly contesting the representations which others have imposed on them This book was originally published as a special issue of Critical Arts A Journal of South North Cultural and Media Studies

The Dakota Hunter Hans Wiesman,2020-01-10 A tale of a lifelong passion for a WWII aircraft that changed the author s life It is almost like an adventure novel except it is true Air Classics This book tells the story of a Dutch boy who grew up during the 1950s in postwar Borneo where he had frequent encounters with an airplane the Douglas DC 3 a k a the C 47 Skytrain or Dakota of World War II fame For a young boy living in a remote jungle community the aircraft reached the proportions of a romantic icon as the essential lifeline to a bigger world for him the beginning of a special bond In 1957 his family left the island and all its residual wreckage of World War II and he attended college in The Hague After graduation he started a career as a corporate executive and met the aircraft again during business trips to the Americas His childhood passion for the Dakota flared up anew and the fascination pulled like a magnet As if predestined or maybe just looking for an excuse to come closer he began a business to salvage and convert Dakota parts which meant first of all finding them As the demand for these war relic parts and cockpits soared he began to travel the world to track down surplus crashed or derelict Dakotas He ventured deeper and deeper into remote mountains jungles savannas and the seas where the planes are found usually as ghostly wrecks but sometimes still in full commercial operation In hunting the mythical Dakota he often encountered intimidating or dicey situations in countries plagued by wars or revolts others by arms and narcotics trafficking warlords and conmen The stories of these expeditions take the reader to some of the remotest spots in the world but once there one is often greeted by the comfort of what was once the West's apex in transportation however now haunted by the courageous airmen of the past

American Silent Horror, Science Fiction and Fantasy Feature Films, 1913-1929 John T. Soister, Henry Nicolella, Steve Joyce, 2014-01-10 During the Silent Era when most films dealt with dramatic or comedic takes on the boy meets girl boy loses girl theme other motion pictures dared to tackle such topics as rejuvenation revivication mesmerism the supernatural and the grotesque A Daughter of the Gods 1916 The Phantom of the Opera 1925 The Magician 1926 and Seven Footprints to Satan 1929 were among the unusual and startling films containing story elements that went far beyond the realm of highly unlikely Using surviving documentation and their combined expertise the authors catalog and discuss these departures from the norm in this encyclopedic guide to American horror science fiction and fantasy in the years from 1913 through 1929

Postmodern Journeys Joseph Natoli, 2001-01-01 Part memoir part cultural criticism this fast paced ride through the postmodern landscape of American popular culture explores how our responses to headline events and popular films help script the ways in which we imagine ourselves and the world around us Popular Mechanics, 1926-08 Popular Mechanics inspires instructs and influences readers to help them master the modern world Whether it's practical DIY home improvement tips gadgets and digital technology information on the newest cars or the latest breakthroughs in science PM is the ultimate guide to our high tech lifestyle The Christian Union Henry Ward Beecher, 1892 Perfumery Steve Van Toller, George H. Dodd, 2013-04-17 THE SENSE OF SMELL The nose is normally mistakenly assumed to be the organ of smell reception It is not The primary function of the nose is to regulate the temperature and humidity of inspired air thereby protecting the delicate linings of the lungs This is achieved by the breathed air passing through narrow passageways formed by three nasal turbinates in each nostril The turbinates are covered by spongy vascular cells which can expand or contract to open or close the nasal pathways The olfactory receptors innervated by the 1st cranial nerve are located at the top of the nose There are about 50 million smell receptors in the human olfactory epithelia the total size of which in humans is about that of a small postage stamp with half being at the top of the left and half at the top of the right nostril The receptive surfaces of olfactory cells are ciliated and extend into a covering layer of mucus There is a constant turnover of olfactory cells Their average active life has been estimated to be about 28 days Our Wild Calling Richard Louv, 2020-11-10 A book that offers hope The New York Times Book Review A wondrous tapestry Carl Safina author of Beyond Words What Animals Think and Feel Audubon Medal winner Richard Louv's landmark book Last Child in the Woods inspired an international movement to connect children and nature Now he redefines the future of human animal coexistence In Our Wild Calling Louv interviews researchers theologians wildlife experts indigenous healers psychologists and others to show how people are connecting with animals in ancient and new ways and how this serves as an antidote to the growing epidemic of human loneliness how dogs can teach children ethical behavior how animal assisted therapy may yet transform the mental health field and what role the human animal relationship plays in our spiritual health He reports on wildlife relocation and on how the growing populations of wild species in urban areas are blurring the lines between domestic and wild animals Our Wild Calling makes the case for protecting promoting and creating a sustainable and shared habitat for all creatures not out of fear but out of love Includes a new interview with the author discussion questions and a resource guide
