Joseph, 2007-10-10 If you try to identify the basic qualities of a child most likely to succeed as an adult what words might first come to mind Independent Likable Creative Disciplined According to Dr Joanne Joseph the essence of a productive and healthy personality is a positive and secure self image and a solid set of resilient attitudes and behaviors The Resilient Child Preparing Today's Youth for Tomorrow's World successfully integrates the latest information available about healthy cognitive development self esteem and resilience to give parents and teachers practical suggestions for nurturing these qualities in children and adolescents Dr Joseph an esteemed psychologist and child education consultant skillfully shows how stories television nutrition exercise parental discipline style and the child's individual characteristics each play a comprehensive role in the development of a child's self esteem and resilience With the author's clearly outlined strategies parents and educators can guide children to be socially skillful responsible disciplined good problem solvers and effective managers of the change and adversity inherent in today's world Elaborating beyond what others have identified as the elements of a productive personality Dr Joseph uses a series of inspiring anecdotes and documented research to discuss the following what experts do and do not know about the development of self esteem how parents and teachers can actively contribute to the natural development of a child's self esteem how to promote resilience in children through happy and difficult times the kinds of characteristics that differentiate children from each other how to liberate a child's inner strengths to build self esteem and resilience how literature and the media can teach resilient and productive values and behaviors styles of parental discipline and their influence on the development of the child and more The New Yam Festival

Deborah Mboya, 2016-08-20 There is a proverb in Iboland that says When the harvest season ends it is the time of the year when everybody is at home The Yam Festival has come to an end and The New Yam Festival has begun It is an extraordinary celebration of the harvest season the culture and oral traditions of the people who live in the village of Uwaoma It is also an occasion for giving thanks to all the gods of the land for making the harvest possible Achuwanike was the first yam farmer in his village to win a yam title at The Yam Festival Now that the harvest season is over he is in close communion with his family relatives neighbors friends and the spirits of the ancestors of the past present and future for the next harvest season
