Lavoie, 2012 This peer reviewed study represents a culmination of years of research into the history of the Theosophical Society In this unique project which combines biographies with source analyses Jeffrey D Lavoie records a detailed history of the early Theosophical Society and examines its relationship with the modern Spiritualist movement between the years 1875

1891 Special attention has been paid to some of the neglected figures associated with these organizations including Arthur Lillie the Gnostic occultist and early critic of the Theosophical Society the Davenport Brothers the Spiritualist mediums who developed many of the standard elements which became associated with modern Spiritualism Alfred Wallace the prominent scientist Spiritualist and supposed member of the Theosophical Society and many others This work will appeal to a wide array of readers including those interested in modern religious movements Western Esotericism South Asian history and Victorian studies

Unfaithful Carol Faulkner, 2019-09-20 In her 1855 fictionalized autobiography Mary Gove Nichols told the story of her emancipation from her first unhappy marriage during which her husband controlled her body her labor and her daughter Rather than the more familiar metaphor of prostitution Nichols used adultery to define loveless marriages as a betrayal of the self a consequence far more serious than the violation of a legal contract Nichols was not alone In Unfaithful Carol Faulkner places this view of adultery at the center of nineteenth century efforts to redefine marriage as a voluntary relationship in which love alone determined fidelity After the Revolution Americans understood adultery as a sin against God and a crime against the people A betrayal of marriage vows adultery was a cause for divorce in most states as well as a basis for civil suits Faulkner depicts an array of nineteenth century social reformers who challenged the restrictive legal institution of marriage redefining adultery as a matter of individual choice and love She traces the beginning of this redefinition of adultery to the evangelical ferment of the 1830s and 1840s when perfectionists like John Humphrey Noyes founder of the Oneida Community concluded that marriage obstructed the individual's relationship to God In the 1840s and 1850s spiritualist feminist and free love critics of marriage fueled a growing debate over adultery and marriage by emphasizing true love and consent After the Civil War activists turned the act of adultery into a form of civil disobedience culminating in Victoria Woodhull's publicly charging the Reverend Henry Ward Beecher with marital infidelity Unfaithful explores how nineteenth century reformers mobilized both the metaphor and the act of adultery to redefine marriage between 1830 and 1880 and the ways in which their criticisms of the legal institution contributed to a larger transformation of marital and gender relations that continues to this day
