They Walk With Us John T. Mainer, 2015-12-11 Can holy blessings be found in a box of donuts Can an angry grieving skinhead learn to become a peacemaker after a chance encounter with a strange old lady Can a rock in a leather bag help a wounded soldier's spirit heal The Gods of old still walk the world They can still be found if you know how to look And they bring blessings and challenges suffering and healing to those who can find them In this collection of short stories John T Mainer explores how the ancient Gods might still be found and how they might bless us as our paths cross theirs From war torn Bosnia and Afghanistan to the peaceful green hills of British Columbia and the bustle of downtown Vancouver he shows us how perhaps we might find them today Even the most ordinary of places can turn out to be not so ordinary at all and even the most ordinary seeming person could turn out to be a God in disguise

Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, 1893 Kong Harold Kingsley, 1927 Fashion Nation Sandra Tomc, 2021-09-09 Fashion Nation argues that popular images of the United States as a place of glitter and lights of gaudy costumes and dizzying visual surfaces usually understood as features of technomodernity were in fact brewed in the rich strange world of early nineteenth century British and European folk nationalism when nations were compelled to offer visual manifestations of their allegedly true ancestral form Showing that folk and ethnic nationalism played a central role in writing and culture the book draws on a rare and colorful visual archive of national costumes cartoons theatrical spectacles and immersive entertainments to show how the United States sprung to life as a visual space for transatlantic audiences Fashion Nation not only includes chapters on major U S travel writers like Nathaniel Parker Willis and James Fenimore Cooper but it also presents explorations of the vogue for folk and ethnic costume the role of Indigenous dress in Wild West spectacles and the nationalistic decor on display at late nineteenth century world's fairs and amusement parks Engagingly written and beautifully illustrated Fashion Nation opens the door to a forgotten legacy of visual symbols that still inhabit ethnic and white nationalism in the United States today showing how fantasies of glittery surfaces were designed to draw the eye away from a sordid history

The World Is a Carpet Anna Badkhen, 2014-06-03 An unforgettable portrait of a place and a people shaped by centuries of art trade and war In the middle of the salt frosted Afghan desert in a village so remote that Google can't find it a woman squats on top of a loom making flowers bloom in the thousand threads she knots by hand Here where heroin is cheaper than rice every day is a fast day B 52s pass overhead a sign of America's omnipotence or its vulnerability the villagers are unsure They know though that the earth is flat like a carpet Anna Badkhen first traveled to this country in 2001 as a war correspondent She has returned many times since drawn by a land that geography has made a perpetual battleground and by a people who sustain an exquisite tradition there Through the four seasons in which a new carpet is woven by the women and children of Oqa she immortalizes their way of life much as the carpet does from the petal half finished where a hungry infant needs care to the interruptions when the women trade sex jokes or go fill in for wedding musicians scared away by the Taliban As Badkhen follows the carpet out into the world beyond she leaves the reader with an indelible portrait of fates woven by centuries of art war and an ancient trade that ultimately binds the invaded to the invader
