Magnificent Milwaukee H. Russell Zimmermann, 1987-01-01 Milwaukee in Stone and Clay Raymond Wiggers, 2024-04-15 No detailed description available for Milwaukee in Stone and Clay The Sandstone Architecture of the Lake Superior Region Kathryn Bishop Eckert, 2000 Eckert stresses the importance of the building materials as she explores the architectural history of a region whose builders wanted to reflect the local landscape Marble Palaces, Temples of Art Ingrid A. Steffensen-Bruce, 1998 The era from 1890 to 1930 constituted a building boom for American art museums designed in a monumental classical style both the proliferation of the buildings and the ubiquity of the style seem to indicate an architectural as well as a sociocultural phenomenon The present work is an attempt to place the American art museum building of this period into its historical milieu and employs over one hundred illustrations and sociocultural analysis to explain the significance of both the institutions and the structures housing them to those who came into regular contact with them including architects patrons journalists and museum personnel A Crowded Hour KEVIN ABING, 2017-06-25

The Wisconsin Magazine of History Milo Milton Quaife, Joseph Schafer, Edward Porter Alexander, 1986 America Restored Carol M. Highsmith, Ted Landphair, 1994 Here are represented recognizable and grand spaces such as Ellis Island in New York Harbor and the Chicago Theater as well as small and intimate places such as the Dowse Sod House in Nebraska and Saint Philomena Church in Hawaii And more than beautiful pictures are captured Each site has a special story to tell Grand schemes led to the creation of Cleveholm Castle in Colorado while an especially creative solution to a space problem helped to establish the Custer County Art Center in Montana One woman's determined and sturdy dedication brought about the Frontier Nursing Service in Kentucky which continues to serve mountain women in need These and many other stories provide a moving and informative text that captures the human drama surrounding the restoration of these landmarks some for a new use and others so they might continue as before The Captain Frederick Pabst Mansion John C. Eastberg, 2009 The Pabst Residence on Grand Avenue is one of the most handsomest in the city It is a model of what wealth luxury and good taste can secure Yenowine's Illustrated News September 1894 Little did Captain Frederick Pabst Milwaukee's famed beer baron know that when he began construction of his new mansion in 1890 it would survive and thrive into the twenty first century as a testament to America's Gilded Age John C Eastberg sets the context for this architectural landmark by drawing out the intimate character of Captain Pabst his family and his brewing empire As a leading figure of Milwaukee's society Captain Pabst and his wife Maria became consummate art collectors filling their mansion with priceless treasures After the Pabst descendants sold the house in 1908 it became the archbishop's residence and the center of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Milwaukee for over sixty years When it was sold in 1975 for the second time in its history the mansion was nearly torn down to make way for a parking lot After a three year crusade for its preservation the Pabst Mansion was spared demolition and has been under active restoration ever since This highly illustrated history includes
