Jewish Education Association to provide employment and livelihood for actors singers musicians conductors composers writers playwrights painters graphic artists and sculptors Between 1939 and 1944 activities were centered in Goldmark Hall beside the Dohány Street Synagogue in Budapest Hundreds of artists from all over Hungary took part in about one thousand performances including plays concerts cabaret ballet operas and operettas These performances appealed to the highly cultured Budapest Jewish community ever desirous of high caliber events particularly under oppressive conditions of the time Art exhibitions also were held for painters graphic artists and sculptors to sell their creations László's 1943 book with new additional chapters by noted historians and musicians is the core of this expanded edition and provides interviews with individual artists who recall their early lives and circumstances that led them to join the Artistic Enterprise The book records the technical functioning structure and operation of this remarkable theater and concert venue It provides fascinating details about those who worked behind the scenes such as hair stylists and personnel involved with costumes lighting and scenery Because the stage was small clever choreographic and scenery improvisation had to be made and the stagehands were clearly up to the task Since these artists were not allowed to perform before the general public or advertise with posters on the streets the book describes special means devised to overcome these difficulties and bring Jewish audiences into the theater in large numbers Lastly the book carries the theater's story up to Sunday morning March 19 1944 a day of infamy when the German army marched into Hungary     Nemzeti évfordulóink 2009 Beke László, Gazda István, Szász
