Aneurin Bevan: A Biography Michael Foot, 2011-10-06. Michael Foot's two-volume biography of Aneurin Nye Bevan, 1897-1960, arguably Britain's greatest socialist, indelibly associated with the founding of the National Health Service, is one of the major political biographies of the last century. It is the life of an inspirational politician written by one who knew and unabashedly admired him. Volume I, first published in 1962, describes Bevan's life from his birth in Tredegar in the South Wales Valleys through his abortive schooling, his employment at a colliery, and the subsequent embrace of socialism that would make him a leader among South Wales miners. It follows his path to the House of Commons as a Labour MP with a fast-rising reputation as a defender of the working class and his marriage in 1934 to fellow firebrand MP Jennie Lee. The volume closes with Labour's landslide election victory of 1945 and Bevan's appointment as Minister of Health. The London Stage 1920-1929 J. P. Wearing, 2014-03-27. Wearing's reference series provided researchers with an indispensable resource of these productions. In the decades since the original calendars were produced, several research aids have become available, notably various reference works and the digitization of important newspapers and relevant periodicals. The second edition of The London Stage 1920-1929: A Calendar of Productions, Performers, and Personnel provides a chronological calendar of London shows from January 1920 through December 1929. The volume chronicles more than 4,000 productions at 51 major central London theatres during this period. For each entry, the following information is provided: Title.
