The Jewish Nazi John Vocale, 2020-04-07 Born 1980 Died 1940 Benjamin Bauman a contemporary Jewish Orthopedic Surgeon is blinded by a flash of light while driving his car When the light subsides he quickly discovers he is now driving another car in another time period He panics and crashes the vehicle into a light pole After self diagnosing his injuries and taking in his surroundings Ben blacks out When he awakens he finds himself in a Berlin hospital and only a stone's throw away from Hitler's headquarters on the Wilhelmstrasse in heart of Nazi Germany It is Christmas Day 1937 To the people around him Ben is Karl Schroder a high ranking Generalarzt and well respected Chief Surgeon in the hospital where he is now residing as a patient Ben knows nothing of Karl's past Among a host of other surprises however he now speaks his native english and fluent german a language alien to him a only a few hours before Moreover he learns the married Karl has been romantically linked to an empathetic nurse Elsa Hirsh who is tending to his wounds As his trauma level soars Ben rushes to find a mirror and discovers his journey has not physically altered his appearance Odd news Why do they think he is this Karl character He then peers out a window and realizes he has been propelled into the worst place and time to be a Jew Nazi Germany Bad news So far his only piece of luck is nobody seems to realize who he really is After a brief examination from a Nazi doctor and Hitler loyalist Ben's memory loss and sudden knowledge of a new language is scientifically attributed to the blow in the head he received during the accident From the German perspective Ben's new language is American English the language he retained during his trip into the past a language Karl did not speak This miraculous infusion of a language after a traffic accident soon intrigues members of Hitler's inner circle and brings the reluctant Ben face to face with the likes of Hermann Goering Joseph Goebbels and Adolf Hitler himself Conversely Ben meets and befriends the famed American broadcaster and author William L Shirer With nurse Elsa in the mix Ben is slated to become one busy time traveler In summation Ben's obvious goal is to try return to the present but as time goes by he feels he was propelled into the past for a yet to be determined mission If so what will his mission be Was he sent to kill Hitler warn England and America of a looming world war alert the Jews of the impending holocaust Or is it something more benign like simply trying to stay alive before he is discovered for who he really is Benjamin Bauman a most reluctant Jewish Nazi

Raoul Wallenberg Ingrid Carlberg,2016-03-08 An honorary citizen of the United States and Canada and designated as one of the Righteous Among the Nations by Israel

Raoul Wallenberg was a modest envoy to Hungary whose heroism in Budapest at the height of the Holocaust saved countless Jewish lives and ultimately cost him his own. A series of unlikely coincidences led to the appointment of Wallenberg by trade as Sweden's Special Envoy to Budapest in 1944. With remarkable bravery Wallenberg created a system of protective passports and sheltered thousands of desperate Jews in buildings he claimed were Swedish libraries and research institutes. As the war drew to a close his invaluable work almost complete, Wallenberg voluntarily went to meet with the Soviet troops who were relieving the city. Arrested as a spy, Wallenberg disappeared into the depths of the Soviet system never to be seen again. In this definitive biography, noted journalist Ingrid Carlberg has carried out unprecedented research into all elements of Wallenberg's life, narrating with vigor and insight the story of a heroic life and navigating with wisdom and sensitivity the truth about his disappearance and death. Allied Health Education Programs in Junior Colleges, 1970

Managing eHealth M. Rosenmøller, D. Whitehouse, P. Wilson, 2014-08-05 This book constitutes an excellent source of information for gaining a better understanding of information technologies in healthcare for reviewing how healthcare will change as a consequence and how to manage these changes in order to realise eHealth's full potential in creating value for patients, professionals and the system as a whole. Medicine in the Meantime Ramah McKay, 2017-12-21 In Mozambique, where more than half of the national health care budget comes from foreign donors, NGOs and global health research projects have facilitated a dramatic expansion of medical services. At once temporary and unfolding over decades, these projects also enact deeply divergent understandings of what care means and who does it. In Medicine in the Meantime, Ramah McKay follows two medical projects in Mozambique through the day-to-day lives of patients and health care providers, showing how transnational medical resources and infrastructures give rise to diverse possibilities for work and care amid constraint. Paying careful attention to the specific postcolonial and postsocialist context of Mozambique, McKay considers how the presence of NGOs and the governing logics of the global health economy have transformed the relations between and within bodies, medical technologies, friends, kin and organizations that care requires, and how such transformations pose new challenges for ethnographic analysis and critique. Nursing World, 1920 Raoul Wallenberg Ulf Zander, 2024-05-14 The Swedish diplomat Raoul Wallenberg was responsible for saving the lives of thousands of Jews in Budapest between 1944 and 1945. He is recognised by the Israeli state as one of the Righteous among the Nations. This book examines both Wallenberg's activities during the Holocaust and the ways posterity has remembered him. It explores secret Swedish diplomacy and how Wallenberg was transformed over time into a Swedish brand. It considers the political aspects of Wallenberg's Americanisation and analyses his portrayals in music, film and television. Representations of Wallenberg as a monument are discussed with special reference to Swedish and Hungarian examples. The question of how Wallenberg's memory can and should be kept alive in the future is an essential issue related to the politics of memory. LeadershipEQ Helen Rogerson, 2020-11-01 LeadershipEQ Everyday Leadership for the

Wingfield,Maria Bucur,2006-05-09 This volume explores the role of gender on both the home and fighting fronts in eastern Europe during World Wars I and II By using gender as a category of analysis the authors seek to arrive at a more nuanced understanding of the subjective nature of wartime experience and its representations While historians have long equated the fighting front with the masculine and the home front with the feminine the contributors challenge these dichotomies demonstrating that they are based on culturally embedded assumptions about heroism and sacrifice Major themes include the ways in which wartime experiences challenge traditional gender roles postwar restoration of gender order collaboration and resistance the body and memory and commemoration The Girl from the Grand Hotel Camille Aubray,2024-04-30

Stibbe,2011-02-14 Much of the recent literature on cultural demobilisation or remobilisation after the First World War has focused on men and masculinity By contrast this interdisciplinary volume of essays sets out to examine the importance of women s movements and individual female activists to the shaping of post war Europe at the private communal national and transnational levels Key themes include the commemoration of the war dead the renegotiation of gender roles suffrage and political rights and women s contribution to the establishment of new visions of peace or national revenge and regeneration in the years 1918 to 1923 The eighteen chapters cover countries in Central and Eastern Europe as well as Western Europe and defeated as well as victorious nations thus allowing for a more nuanced understanding of the deep impact of the war and its aftermath on the continent as a whole Contributors are Nikolai Vukov Emma Schiavon Christiane Streubel Erika Kuhlman Ann Rea Ingrid Sharp Olga Shnyrova Fatmira Musaj and Beryl Nicholson Christine Bard Gabriella Hauch Judith Szapor Sylwia Ku ma Markowska Virginija Jur nien Judit Acs dy Matthew Stibbe Bruce Berglund David Hudson and Jill Liddington
