Nursing children and young people is increasingly complex requiring nurses to apply their knowledge and skills to a wide scope of illnesses and situations The challenges to nurses to analyse reflect on different perspectives and then adapt practices to the benefit of service users are reflected in this book Each scenario in this text is created based on real life cases and practice The 23 cases connect knowledge with practice and guide you through the anatomy and physiology and the physical and psychological responses to stressors which are then linked to intervention decisions Cases include Providing care for children and young people with life limiting conditions Acutely ill children including those with asthma and an infant with pyrexia and febrile convulsions Long term conditions including diabetes renal disease and the transfer to adult services Those who are critically ill such as a child with typhoid fever and a toddler with a head injury Supporting emotional and mental health in anorexia and autistic spectrum disorder Promoting healthy lifestyles considering obesity and risky behaviour Care for children with trauma including a child with a learning disability Remaining vigilant for indicators of safeguarding concern encouraging self care and promoting mental resilience are all incorporated with examples from a range of care environments Calculation exercises are interspersed to keep these skills sharp This Case Book is an ideal learning resource tailored to help nurses learn in a focused way about practice and excel whether on placements in academic work or in professional practice Developed from a partnership between a University Research Group and an NHS Trust this practical children s nursing case textbook bridges theory and practice by presenting 23 case scenarios on complex sensitive and difficult to manage clinical situations in an accessible and user friendly manner The inbuilt activities calculation exercises question and answer format and extra resources make this an excellent interactive resource for nurses to engage in critical thinking and reflection about each case Dr Veronica Lambert Senior Lecturer Children s Nursing Dublin City University Ireland This book will be useful for nurses in the UK who work with children and families in a variety of settings Its format based on case studies and what would you do and what do you need to do scenarios will make it a useful tool for teaching clinical care for children and families Professor Linda Shields School of Nursing Midwifery and Indigenous Health Charles Sturt University Bathurst Australia What Tony Long has achieved is to produce a textbook with contributions from esteemed practicing children s nurses which gives enhanced credibility to each of the case studies Tony and his colleagues have created these case studies to help children s and young people s nurses fully understand the complexities of the needs of both children and their families or carers during their healthcare trajectory This new book crucially never forgets the primary mission of the children s nurse which is to uphold their mantra of the child first and always Alan Glasper Emeritus Professor of children s and young people s nursing at the University of Southampton UK Case Book of a Coordinated Home Care Program Montefiore Hospital Association of Western Pennsylvania. Home Care Training and Information Center, 1963 Current Catalog , 1989 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965-70 Geriatric Nursing Assistants George H. Weber, 1990-10-17 This up to date bibliography of heretofore scattered references to nursing assistants includes literature pertinent to the construction of models to improve nursing assistant practice and emphasizes the psychosocial skills that are invaluable to the nursing assistant s work Annotated reviews center on the tasks and context of nursing assistant work and ways to improve practice through training organizational development advocacy and bargaining Additional chapters present a tentative psychosocial model of nursing assistant practice offer six intervention models and investigate ways of further developing the nursing assistant occupation Very highly recommended Choice The role of the nursing home has expanded in the late twentieth century due to both the growing percentage of elderly in the U S population and to society s tendency to over institutionalize people In recent years the kinds and quality of care given to the elderly in nursing homes have received intense scrutiny This timely bibliography focuses on nursing assistants the personnel who are with the elderly around the clock doing a variety of tasks ranging from helping them with basic functions to comforting them during periods of distress Nursing assistants provide as much as 90 percent of the direct care received by the elderly in the nursing home setting Emphasizing the psychosocial skills that make the nursing assistant s job so important to the well being of nursing home residents Geriatric Nursing Assistants collects and annotates the heretofore scattered references to nursing assistants and includes literature pertinent to the construction of models that improve nursing assistant practice The first four chapters present the annotated reviews which are organized in anticipation of the practice enhancement models discussed in Chapter Six These reviews center on the tasks and context of the nursing assistant s work and on ways to improve practice through training organizational development advocacy and bargaining Chapter Five offers a tentative psychosocial concept of nursing assistant practice that requires further development detailing the various resident psychosocial circumstances to which the nursing assistant might respond helpfully and the kinds of interventions and techniques which the nursing assistant might attempt In Chapter Six intervention models on inservice training organizational development advocacy and bargaining are presented in ideal typical forms that recognize the limitations of daily practice also these models emphasize rigorous practice and its evaluation Activities necessary to further develop the nursing assistant occupation including political action are investigated in Chapter Seven which also considers the moral aspects of a progressive agenda for nursing assistants This reference seeks to improve services to nursing home residents and represents a valuable practical contribution to the geriatric field It will be useful to nursing home administrators and directors of nursing homes who must address ways to improve the working conditions of nursing assistants to academicians in their research training and advocacy efforts and to the training directors and supervisors in the field who can directly aid nursing assistants in the acquisition of needed knowledge and skills
