Extreme Teens Sheila B. Anderson, 2005-10-30. It's easy to make assumptions about teens: high school dating, Mom and Dad in the background, a house, a few siblings, and a beloved pet. But many of today's teens don't fit this all-American image. Designing teen library services based on preconceptions leaves many teens out: from home-schooled and gifted teens to pregnant teens, immigrants, juvenile delinquents, homeless teens, and many others. Anderson's YALSA Serving the Underserved SUS Trainer shatters the stereotypes, showing you how to customize your library service to fit the needs of diverse teens. After explaining why it's important to reach out to these kids and contrasting the myths about teens with the realities, Anderson details the diverse groups that make up the category of teen and the many situations and experiences that define their library needs. She provides step-by-step plans for connecting with these young adults, from creating a positive atmosphere through policies and staff training to building a collection, designing library services and programs, and providing outreach. Interspersed with anecdotes, pertinent statistics, and useful information, this practical work will change the way you think about and work with teens. Grades 6-12.
