This book takes a multidisciplinary approach spanning from traditional art history to sociology and economics pursuing the reconstruction of the field of forces in art as intended by French sociologist Pierre Bourdieu Compared to previous publications on art system dynamics such as Thompson's The 12 Million Stuffed Shark this book offers an enhanced understanding of the factors that allow a young artist to enter the arena of contemporary art The present research should help uncover the art system logic which appears enigmatic to non experts revealing that artists are aware they need to consider global trends beat competitors and meet the demands of dealers collectors curators and museums This book furthers existing contributions on the YBAs for example Stallabrass High Art Lite offering innovative conclusions on recent British art such as on the duality between London and Glasgow the gender opposition among emerging artists and the predominance of resourceful authors Art and Merchandise in Keith Haring's Pop Shop Amy Raffel, 2020-12-30 As one of the first academic monographs on Keith Haring this book uses the Pop Shop a previously overlooked enterprise and artist merchandising as tools to reconsider the significance and legacy of Haring's career as a whole Haring developed an alternative approach to both the marketing and the social efficacy of art he controlled the sales and distribution of his merchandise while also promulgating his belief in accessibility and community activism He proved that mass produced objects can be used strategically to form a community and create social change Furthermore looking beyond the 1980s into the 1990s and 2000s Haring and his shop prefigured artists emerging self aware involvement with the mass media and the art world's growing dependence on marketing and commercialism The book will be of interest to scholars or students studying art history consumer culture cultural studies media studies or market studies as well as anyone with a curiosity about Haring and his work the 1980s art scene in New York the East Village street art art activism and art merchandising discusses the major and minor artists and their works movements ideas attitudes and styles and the social and cultural context of the period He covers post modernist art theory the art market and consumer society American and European art and artists are included      Sport and Art Andrew Edgar,2016-04-08 Sport and Art explores relationship of sport to art It does not argue that sport is one of the arts but rather that sport and art hold common ground Both are ways in which humans confront philosophical challenges though they do this through very different media While art deploys sensual media such as paint or sound sport is the pursuit of a physical challenge at which the athlete may fail This is to propose in an argument that has its roots in Hegel s aesthetics that sport may be interpreted as a way of reflecting upon metaphysical and normative issues such as the nature of human freedom fate and chance and even our sense of space and time This argument is developed by proposing the concept of a sportworld an atmosphere of theory and a knowledge of history through which an event is interpreted and thereby constituted as sport Ultimately Sport and Art argues that in order to be truly appreciated sport must be understood within a modernist aesthetics That is to say that sport is not about beauty but rather about the struggle to find meaning in sporting triumph and crucially sporting failure This book was published as a special issue of Sport Ethics and Philosophy      Memento Mori in Contemporary Art Taylor Worley,2019-11-28 This book explores how four contemporary artists Francis Bacon Joseph Beuys Robert Gober and Damien Hirst pursue the question of death through their fraught appropriations of Christian imagery Each artist is shown to not only pose provocative theological questions but also to question the abilities of theological speech to adequately address current attitudes to death When set within a broader theological context around the thought of death Bacon s works invite fresh readings of the New Testament s narration of the betrayal of Christ and Beuys works can be appreciated for the ways they evoke Resurrection to envision possible futures for Germany in the aftermath of war Gober s immaculate sculptures and installations serve to create alternative religious environments and these places are both evocative of his Roman Catholic upbringing and virtually haunted by the ghosts of his excommunication from that past Lastly and perhaps most problematically Hirst has built his brand as an artist from making jokes about death By opening fresh arenas of dialogue and meaning making in our society and culture today the rich humanity of these artworks promises both renewed depths of meaning regarding our exit from this world as well as how we might live well within it for the time that we have As such it will be a vital resource for all scholars in Theology the Visual Arts Material Religion and Religious Studies      View ,1989 Each issue consists of an interview with an individual artist      Collage, Assemblage, and the Found Object Diane Waldman,1992 In 1912 Georges Braque and Pablo Picasso created the first papiers colles by gluing pieces of oak grained faux bois wallpaper onto their drawings In 1917 Marcel Duchamp selected a urinal signed it R Mutt and presented it as an object of art under the title Fountain In 1919 Kurt Schwitters began gathering scraps of rubbish and assembled them into a series of works that he titled Merz constructions These acts represent three of the most significant achievements in twentieth century art The definitive book on its subject Collage Assemblage and the Found Object offers a comprehensive and dynamic history of the mediums that revolutionized our ideas about the nature of art and influenced virtually every major art movement of the twentieth century Made up of fragments of debris of rejected pieces and common artifacts of popular culture collage and assemblage are arts of protest of challenge of exploration They emphasize the everyday and commonplace over precious materials and refinement concept and process over end product the temporary and ephemeral over the lasting They propose a dislocation in time and space and by the nature of their makeup offer multiple layers of meaning They also furnish a compelling historical record of their time All these currents are explored by Diane Waldman deputy director and senior curator of the Solomon R Guggenheim Museum New York In clear and cogent prose generously illustrated with examples and comparative works she traces collage the found object and the related development assemblage from their Cubist beginnings to the present Waldman moves from the outrageous experiments of the Dadaists in the 1920s to the irreverent debunkings of the 1960s Pop artists to the provocative appropriation art of the 1990s from the intricate towers and assemblages of the Russian Constructivists early in this century to the surprising piles of materials put together by such midcentury artists as Robert Rauschenberg Jasper Johns and John Chamberlain from the cerebral and Freudian collages and objects of the Surrealists in the 1920s and 1930s to the probing conundrums posed by the conceptualists of the 1980s and 1990s A lively book on lively arts Collage Assemblage and the Found Object gives us a comprehensive and dynamic view of what are arguably the most important artistic developments of our time BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Cleveland Collects Contemporary Art Tom E.
