AMERICAN INTERNATIONAL LAW CASES Fourth Series 2009 VOLUME 7 Oceana Editorial Board, 2011-02-18

AIRC is an annual case law reporter that provides the full text of U S court opinions involving international law issues The courts covered include all U S federal district courts federal appellate courts and the U S Supreme Court as well as some state courts the U S Court of Claims the U S Court of International Trade and the U S Tax Court The series seeks to provide not every single case in which a court refers to international law but rather all cases that analyze at least one international law issue in depth The list of subjects addressed by these volumes is vast and changes from year to year with the inclusion and prominence of most topics turning on their prevalence in a given year s jurisprudence Some consistently prominent topics are personal jurisdiction over foreign defendants deportation procedure and double taxation Over the last three editions 2006 2007 and 2008 many topics have developed rapidly and constitute a correspondingly larger portion of the volumes particularly Terrorism the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act Forum Non Conveniens and an entirely new added topic the National Security Exception to deportation eligibility The 2008 edition of AIRC also features expanded sections on family law and on the detention of terrorist suspects The U S war on terror and the crisis at Guantanamo have made that last topic a significant and dynamic component of AIRC Each edition of AIRC also comes framed with two practical resources for students and scholars The first is an introductory editor s note that both reviews international law s major developments for the given year and explains to readers how to use the volumes The second is a subject index to allow for targeted research Volume Seven of AIRC includes cases on multilateral conventions such as the Montreal Protocol and the Convention Against Torture The volume also concerns the status and rights of aliens involving asylum and deportation procedures and due process rights In Rashad v Mukasey the petitioner submitted a petition for asylum withholding of removal and protection under the United Nations Convention Against Torture and Other Cruel Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment The Immigration Judge IJ rejected the petition since it was filed past the one year statutory period The circuit court affirmed the IJ s decision and found that the evidence and testimony offered by the petitioner was insufficient to compel a reasonable fact finder to conclude that more likely than not he would be tortured or persecuted if he were to return to Pakistan In Arar v Ashcroft Arar alleged a violation of the Torture Victim Protection Act and his Fifth Amendment substantive due process rights arising from the conditions of his detention in the United States the denial of his access to counsel and to the courts while in the United States and his detention and torture in Syria The court examined whether Arar s extraordinary rendition claim could be examined under a new context The Law Times Reports of Cases Decided in the House of Lords, the Privy Council, the Court of Appeal ... [new Series]. ,1874 Bringing Human Rights Home Catherine Albisa,Martha F. Davis,Cynthia Soohoo,2007-12-30 This three volume set chronicles the history of human rights in the United States from the perspective of domestic social justice activism First the set examines the political forces and historic events that resulted in the U S s failure to embrace human rights principles at home while actively albeit selectively championing and promoting human rights abroad It then considers the current explosion of human rights activism around issues within the United States and the way human rights is transforming domestic social justice work The first volume provides a historical perspective on the United States ambivalent relationship with the international human rights movement It examines the implications of recognizing domestic rights violations as a matter of international concern and the relationship between international and domestic law It also addresses the role the Cold War and Southern opposition to international scrutiny of its Jim Crow policies and segregation played in shaping U S attitudes toward human rights generally and social and economic rights in particular These factors forced social justice organizations to largely abandon employing a human rights framework in their domestic work and had a lasting impact on U S perspectives about fundamental rights and the role of government The set also chronicles current domestic human rights work Volumes two and three consider why domestic activists currently are using human rights and the tactical advantages and practical challenges posed by such strategies These volumes cover everything from globalization to terrorism and the erosion of civil rights protections that led to a renewed interest in human rights human rights versus civil rights strategies and the different ways human rights can support social activism The Central Law Journal John Dillon,2023-05-17 Reprint of the original first published in 1874 The publishing house Anatiposi publishes historical books as reprints Due to their age these books may have missing pages or inferior quality Our aim is to preserve these books and make them available to the public so that they do not get lost Inter-American Yearbook on Human Rights / Anuario Interamericano de Derechos Humanos, Volume 30 (2014) Inter-American Commission on Human Rights,2022-08-15 The print edition is available as a set of three volumes 9789004326590 A Selection of Cases and Other Authorities on Labor Law Francis Bowes Sayre,1923 Rights of Employed Inventors United States.
