INTRODUCTION TO READINGS IN PHILIPPINE HISTORY (INDIGENOUS PEOPLE EDUCATION)

This course critically analyzes Philippine history from multiple perspectives through the lens of selected primary sources. Priority will be given to primary sources that describe the important turning points in Philippine history from prehistoric times up to the contemporary period and articulate various perspective.

The approach, though historical, will deal with interdisciplinary subjects so as to broaden and deepen the student's understanding of Philippine political, economic, social and cultural history and equip the learner with the competencies necessary to analyze and evaluate different types of information: print, visual and audio-visual, and quantitative. The end goal is to develop the historical and critical consciousness of the students so that they will become versatile, broadminded, morally upright and responsible citizens.

UNDERSTANDING HISTORY

History is the study of life in society in the past, in all its aspect, in relation to present developments and future hopes. It is the story of man in time, an inquiry into the past based on evidence. Indeed, evidence is the raw material of history teaching and learning. It is an inquiry into the inevitable changes in human affairs in the past and the ways these changes affect, influence or determine the patterns of life in the society. History is, or should be an attempt to re-think the past.

History aims at helping students to understand the present existing social, political, religious and economic conditions of the people. Without the knowledge of history, we cannot have the background of our religion, customs institutions, administration and so on. The teaching of history helps the students to explain the present, to analyze it and to trace its source. Cause-and effect relationship between the past and the present is lively presented in the history. History thus helps us to understand the present day problems both at the national and international level accurately and objectively.

History – is a science and it studies the past of humanity.

- History does not study the present or the future, which nobody can study, because it has never existed, or stories invented by human beings.
- History studies only real things that happened to humans in the past.
- The word history originally means the search for knowledge and truth.
- The word history is derived from the Greek term "historia" which means "inquiry or research". Thus, the term history refers to accounts or inquiries of events that happened in the past and are narrated in a chronological order.

Who is the father of history? > Herodotus (484 B.C. – 425 B.C.)

He has sometimes been labeled "The Father of Lies" because of his tendency to report fanciful information. Much of the information that others subsequently reported about him is just as fanciful and some of its vindictive or blatantly absurd, yet it is interesting and therefor worth reporting. He himself reported dubious information if it was interesting, sometimes adding his own opinion about its reliability.

Reasons to study the past

- curiosity
- to understand what happened in the past in order to know where we are.
- to preserve our knowledge about the past for the future generations so that they also know who they are.
- to know what happened in the past, so that we don't make the same mistakes again in the future.

Who make history?

Historian- writes and studies the records of the past.

Cryptographer- deciphers the meanings of ancient writings.

flattened out smoothed down and desiccated in the pages of a modern history of education Such histories are of course necessary to effective teaching of the subject but the records alone can clothe the dry bones of fact with flesh and blood About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Readings in the History of Education Ellwood Patterson Cubberley,1920 Readings in Public Education in the United States Ellwood Patterson Cubberley,1934 History of Education Deirdre Raftery,David Crook,2016-04-08 Specially commissioned to mark the 40th Anniversary of History of Education and containing articles from leading international scholars this is a unique and important volume Over the past forty years scholars working in the history of education have engaged with histories of religion gender science and culture and have developed comparative research on areas such as education race and class This volume demonstrates the richness of such work bringing together some of the leading international scholars writing in the field of history of education today and providing readers with original and theoretically informed research Each author draws on the wealth of material that has appeared in the leading SSCI indexed journal History of Education over the past forty years providing readers with not only incisive studies of major themes but delivering invaluable research bibliographies A must have for university libraries and a must own for historians This book was originally published as a special issue of History of Education Readings in the History of Education Arthur Orlo Norton,2013-11-11 This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923 This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc that were either part of the original artifact or were introduced by the scanning process We believe this work is culturally important and despite the imperfections have elected to bring it back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections in the preservation process and hope you enjoy this valuable book
