Reorientations Looking East:

Iran Looking East Annalisa Perteghella, 2020-01-12 In February 2018 anticipating the US withdrawal from the JCPOA Iran's Supreme Leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei declared a policy of preferring East over West thus paving the way for deeper cooperation with Asian powers such as China Russia and India Differently from the Look East policy promoted during the presidency of Ahmadinejad 2005-2013 the current Iranian strategy is not only functional to escape the US led isolation but it rather seems devoted to the consolidation of a block of power which can commit to security and economic schemes in alternative to the Western dominated ones This ISPI report aims to answer few crucial questions Which are the major initiatives promoted within Iran's Look East 20 strategy To what extent will Tehran succeed in creating a solid Eastern block What will be the influence of the wider geopolitical context And finally what role is left for the EU

Output Decline in Eastern Europe R. Holzmann, János Gács, G. Winckler, 2012-12-06

The first phase of transition to a market economy in Central and Eastern Europe was characterized by a sharp output decline. The fall in real GDP exceeded 20% while real industrial production decreased even by 40%. Output Decline in Eastern Europe aims at providing comprehensive multi factor explanations for this unique painful experience. Various hypotheses are analyzed: credit and fiscal policies may have been too tight; the collapse of the CMEA and the USSR came as a shock; domestic producers were neither experienced nor flexible enough to adjust the output to new patterns of demand. Output Decline in Eastern Europe contains a unique combination of authors from East and West who extensively analyze new data based on country studies. Understanding the causes of recent output decline, the subject matter of this volume may help to assess the prospects for Eastern Europe. The book is addressed to researchers and students as well as interested officials who deal with the transition of formerly centrally planned economies in Central and Eastern Europe.
