Report From A Chinese Village Pantheon Village Series:

Report from a Chinese Village Jan Myrdal, 1981-02 A Century of Change in a Chinese Village Lin Juren, Xie Yuxi, 2018-05-04 Over the last half century China has evolved from a poor rural country to a geopolitical powerhouse Rapid urbanization has been at the heart of that transformation and as migrant laborers have left their villages what has become of the rural communities that were once the center of economic social and cultural life And how do contemporary Chinese scholars understand those changes These are the questions that this compelling book answers Lengshuigou village located near the Shandong provincial capital of Jinan was first studied by Japanese social scientists in the early 1940s and then again in the 1980s and 1990s Building on these rich surveys this book traces changes from the early twentieth century to the present day in family and lineage social stratification personal networks annual and life cycle rituals village politics and elite formation Drawing on their own large scale survey of contemporary village households the authors analyze the physical and institutional changes that have altered the community as well as the shifts in interpersonal relations and attitudes that have upended centuries old systems of patriarchy and generational order This important book presents for the first time in English analysis by Chinese sociologists on the radical transformation of Chinese rural society Return to a Chinese Village Jan Myrdal, 1984 The Red and the White: Report from a French Village Edgar Morin, 1970 Seeing History: Public History in China LI Na, 2023-11-06 When public history was imported from the United States to China around the turn of the twenty first century it was introduced as a sub field within history and has developed along that path ever since Professional historians in China even some forward looking ones see public history as merely presenting a change in the patterns of participation in history making This book offers a sharply different view It contends essentially that public history represents more than a research domain within history or within any existing discipline nor does it fit into any established narratives but rather a fundamental change of the entire process of history making in China In this process the public is presuming history Public history makes obsolete the old structure for building and acquiring historical knowledge it challenges the old assumptions supersedes the rigid academic hierarchy and stirs the imaginations of the multitudes With an assemblage of case studies this work makes a case for a system view of public history making or public history ing and launches a concept complex public history i e public history ing as complex adaptive systems Problems of Communism , 1966 Touch and Go Studs Terkel, 2008-10-01 This memoir by the oral historian and Pulitzer Prize winning author of The Good War is a masterpiece about a life which itself is a sort of masterpiece Oliver Sacks Chosen as a Best Book of the Year in 2007 by the Chicago Tribune Publishers Weekly and Playboy Studs Terkel s memoir Touch and Go is history from a highly personal point of view by one who has helped make it Kirkus Reviews Terkel takes us through his childhood and into his early experiences as a law student during the Depression and later as an actor on both radio and the stage offering a brilliant and often hilarious portrait of Chicago in the 1920s and 30s Describing his beginnings as a disc jockey after World War II his involvement with progressive politics during the McCarthy era as well as his career as an interviewer and oral historian Touch and Go is a testament to Terkel's generosity of spirit, sense of social justice and commitment to capture on his ever-present tape recorder the voices of those who otherwise would not be heard The New York Times Book Review It is a brilliant lifetime achievement from the man the Washington Post has called the most distinguished oral historian of our time The master storyteller tells his own story as no one else can irresistibly Garry Wills The End of Concern Fabio

Lanza, 2017-08-31 In 1968 a cohort of politically engaged young academics established the Committee of Concerned Asian Scholars CCAS Critical of the field of Asian studies and its complicity with the United States policies in Vietnam the CCAS mounted a sweeping attack on the field's academic political and financial structures While the CCAS included scholars of Japan Korea and South and Southeast Asia the committee focused on Maoist China as it offered the possibility of an alternative politics and the transformation of the meaning of labor and the production of knowledge In The End of Concern Fabio Lanza traces the complete history of the CCAS outlining how its members worked to merge their politics and activism with their scholarship Lanza's story exceeds the intellectual history and legacy of the CCAS however he narrates a moment of transition in Cold War politics and how Maoist China influenced activists and intellectuals around the world becoming a central element in the political upheaval of the long 1960s Americans and Chinese Francis L. K. Hsu, 1980-12-01 A rare combination of scientific and down-to-earth language of objective analysis and philosophy overlain with a concern for the future of all men and a recognition of the need for understanding between the people of two great cultures Library Journal

The Chinese Communist Party In Power, 1949-1976 Jacques Guillermaz, 2019-07-16 This book traces the history of the Chinese Communist Party's behavior toward itself and the way it has created and developed the regime on the state of affairs at home and abroad and on a compelling ideology dominated by the giant-like personality of Mao Tse-tung
