Report From Xunwu:

Report from Xunwu Zedong Mao,1990 Long described as lost this report was the result of Mao Zedong s investigation in 1930 of the people economy society and history of the obscure rural county of Xunwu in South China An extraordinary document that far exceeds in scope and depth Mao s other investigative reports on rural China the report is a rich source of information on rural administration commerce transportation communication education land tenure taxation religion diverse social relations and practices and struggle in one obscure area that was a microcosm of China Thompson has translated and presented Mao s report with extensive notes The book is designed to be accessible to non specialists and it will be welcomed by those interested in the Chinese countryside comparative revolution and historical anthropology Because Mao s report on Xunwu was part of a revolutionary programme the report raises complex questions about academic and activist readings of social realities Report from Xunwu Zedong Mao,2022 Changing Clothes in China Antonia Finnane,2008-01-24 Based largely on nineteenth and twentieth century representations of Chinese dress as traditional and unchanging historians have long regarded fashion as something peculiarly Western But in this surprising sumptuously illustrated book Antonia Finnane proves that vibrant fashions were a vital part of Chinese life in the late imperial era when well to do men and women showed a keen awareness of what was up to date Though foreigners who traveled to China in the early decades of the twentieth century came away with the impression that Chinese dress was simple and monotone the key features of modern fashion were beginning to emerge especially in Shanghai Men in blue gowns donned felt caps and leather shoes girls began to wear fitted jackets and narrow pants and homespun garments gave way to machine woven cloth often made in foreign lands These innovations marked the start of a far reaching vestimentary revolution that would transform the clothing culture in urban and much of rural China over the next half century Through Finnane s meticulous research we are able to see how the close fitting jacket and high collar of the 1911 Revolutionary period the skirt and jacket blouse of the May Fourth era and the military style popular in the Cultural Revolution led to the variegated globalized wardrobe of today She brilliantly connects China s modernization and global visibility with changes in dress offering a vivid portrait of the complex subtle and sometimes contradictory ways the people of China have worn their nation on their backs Militant Acts Marcelo Hoffman,2019-01-01 Militant Acts presents a broad history of the concept and practice of investigations in radical political struggles from the nineteenth century to the present Radicals launched investigations into the conditions and struggles of the oppressed and exploited to stimulate their political mobilization and organization These investigations assumed a variety of methodological forms in a wide range of geographical and institutional contexts and they also drew support from the participation of intellectuals such as Marx Lenin Mao Dunayevskaya Foucault and Badiou Marcelo Hoffman analyzes newspapers pamphlets reports and other source materials which reveal the diverse histories underappreciated difficulties and theoretical import of investigations in radical political struggles In so doing he challenges readers to rethink the supposed failure of these investigations and concludes that the value of investigations in radical political struggles ultimately resides in the possibility of producing a new political we Coming to Terms with the Nation Thomas
