Representations Steven Marcus, 1975 Resisting Representation Elaine Scarry, 1994-09-29 Renowned scholar Elaine Scarry's book The Body in Pain has been called by Susan Sontag extraordinary large spirited heroically truthful The Los Angeles Times called it brilliant ambitious and controversial Now Oxford has collected some of Scarry's most provocative writing This collection of essays deals with the complicated problems of representation in diverse literary and cultural genres from her beloved sixth century philosopher Boethius through the nineteenth century novel to twentieth century advertising qWe often assume that all areas of experience are equally available for representation On the contrary these essays present discussions of experiences and concepts that challenge defeat or block representation Physical pain physical labor the hidden reflexes of cognition and its judgments about the coherence or incoherence of the world are all phenomena that test the resources of language Using primarily literary sources works by Hardy Beckett Boethius Thackeray and others Scarry also draws on painting medical advertising and philosophic dialogue to probe the limitations of expression and representation Resisting Representation celebrates language It looks at the problematic areas of expression not at the moment when representation is resisted but at the moment when that resistance is at last overcome thus suggesting a domain of plenitude and inclusion The Sickroom in Victorian Fiction Miriam Bailin, 2007-05-14 The cultural and narrative significance of illness nursing and the sickroom in Victorian literature The Reenchantment of Nineteenth-Century Fiction D. Payne, 2005-05-23 An ambitious weave of ideological literary and commodity history The Reenchantment of Nineteenth Century Fiction shows how Dickens Thackeray and George Eliot sacralized Victorian modernity in two contradictory ways by incarnating their moment as one of transcendent development and by reenacting bloody rituals from a fading Protestant past Both the magnitude and the brevity of their success make these works exemplary for our own era caught between the archaic gods of traditional religion and the still mysterious ones of market society Heroines and Heroes: Symbolism, Embodiment, Narratives & Identity Christopher Hart, 2008 The Comfort of Strangers Gage McWeeny, 2016 This text argues for a new understanding of the relation between nineteenth century realist literary form and the socially dense environments of modernity The Testimony of Lives Vieda Skultans, 2002-11-01 Vieda Skultans left Latvia as a refugee at the age of six months In 1990 she returned for the first time This text is both a personal account of a homecoming and an anthropology of a people trying to come to terms with its past and to face an uncertain future Based on more than 100 interviews carried out in the wake of Latvian independence it gives voice to stories of dispossession and exile and of ambiguous returns At the same time it unpicks the process of memory itself showing how personal memory is shaped by the traditional narratives of national history and culture History of Madness Michel Foucault, 2013-02-01 When it was first published in France in 1961 as Folie et D raison Histoire de la Folie l ge Classique few had heard of a thirty four year old philosopher by the name of Michel Foucault By the time an abridged English edition was published in 1967 as Madness and

Civilization Michel Foucault had shaken the intellectual world This translation is the first English edition of the complete French texts of the first and second edition including all prefaces and appendices some of them unavailable in the existing French edition History of Madness begins in the Middle Ages with vivid descriptions of the exclusion and confinement of lepers Why Foucault asks when the leper houses were emptied at the end of the Middle Ages were they turned into places of confinement for the mad Why within the space of several months in 1656 was one out of every hundred people in Paris confined Shifting brilliantly from Descartes and early Enlightenment thought to the founding of the H pital G n ral in Paris and the work of early psychiatrists Philippe Pinel and Samuel Tuke Foucault focuses throughout not only on scientific and medical analyses of madness but also on the philosophical and cultural values attached to the mad He also urges us to recognize the creative and liberating forces that madness represents brilliantly drawing on examples from Goya Nietzsche Van Gogh and Artaud The History of Madness is an inspiring and classic work that challenges us to understand madness reason and power and the forces that shape them Dickens, Europe and the New Worlds Anny Sadrin, 2016-07-27 The essays collected in this volume offer fresh readings of Dickens s travelogues and novels often pointing to the many sidedness of his personality The uncommercial traveller emerges as an ecumenical John Bull chary of the alien but greedy of novelty a man whose incursions on well trodden or unfamiliar ground are always journeys into the uncanny Besides dealing with the geography of the novelist s imagination the book explores numerous new worlds such as the inspiring world of Victorian science and Dickens s responses to it or the world of modern literary theory that shapes our own responses to his work

The Public Intellectual Helen Small, 2008-04-15 New essays by prestigious thinkers such as Edward Said Bruce Robbins Jacqueline Rose and Stefan Collini on the public role of writers and intellectuals
