Representing The German Nation:

Representing the German Nation Mary Fulbrook, Martin Swales, 2000-12-15 Modern Germany with its ruptures from late unification in 1871 through to the formation of two opposing German states provides a case study for an analysis of the issue of representations of identity in Germany since the war The First World War and German National Identity Jan

Vermeiren, 2016-07-18 An innovative study of the impact of the wartime alliance between Imperial Germany and Austria Hungary on German national identity Music and German National Identity Celia Applegate, Pamela Potter, 2002-08 Concert halls all over the world feature mostly the works of German and Austrian composers as their standard repertoire composers like the three Bs of classical music Bach Beethoven and Brahms all of whom are German Over the past three centuries many supporters of German music have even nurtured the notion that the German speaking world possesses a peculiar strength in the cultivation of music This book brings together seventeen contributors from the fields of musicology ethnomusicology history and German literature to explore these questions how music came to be associated with German identity when and how Germans came to be regarded as the people of music and how music came to be designated the most German of arts Unlike previous volumes on this topic many of which focused primarily on Wagner and Nazism the essays here are wide ranging and comprehensive examining philosophy literature politics and social currents as well as the creation and performance of folk music art music church music jazz rock and pop The result is a striking volume adeptly addressing the complexity and variety of ways in which music insinuated itself into the German national imagination and how it has continued to play a central role in the shaping of a German identity Contributors to this volume Celia Applegate Doris L Bergen Philip Bohlman Joy Haslam Calico Bruce Campbell John Daverio Thomas S Grey Jost Hermand Michael H Kater Gesa Kordes Edward Larkey Bruno Nettle Uta G Poiger Pamela Potter Albrecht Riethmüller Bernd Sponheuer Hans Rudolf Vaget

Sweeping the German Nation Nancy R. Reagan, 2006-10-09 Is cleanliness next to Germanness as some nineteenth century nationalists insisted This book explores the relationship between gender roles domesticity and German national identity between 1870 1945 After German unification approaches to household management that had originally emerged among the bourgeoisie became central to German national identity by 1914 Thrift order and extreme cleanliness along with particular domestic markers such as the linen cabinet and holiday customs were used by many Germans to define the distinctions between themselves and neighboring cultures What was bourgeois at home became German abroad as German domesticity also helped to define and underwrite colonial identities in Southwest Africa and elsewhere After 1933 this idealized notion of domestic Germanness was racialized and incorporated into an array of Nazi social politics In occupied Eastern Europe during WWII Nazi women's groups used these approaches to household management in their attempts to Germanize Eastern European women who were part of a large scale project of population resettlement and ethnic cleansing

Inventing the German Nation in Travel Literature, 1738-1839 Karin Baumgartner, 2025 Far into the nineteenth century Germany was not yet a nation state but a conglomeration of principalities The causes and consequences of its belatedness compared to other European countries such as England and France have been much debated The present book breaks new ground by identifying travel literature as an important factor in the forging of a distinct and cohesive German identity well before political unification in 1871 First foreign travelers accounts travelogues guidebooks referred to and treated Germany as a distinct place even though it was still politically divided thus enabling German readers to imagine their fragmented nation as a conceptual whole Second Germans themselves began to explore their homeland and write travelogues that solidified the nascent sense of national identity Ethnographic descriptions from places and peoples far away further aided this process as Germans learned to view themselves through this particular lens Surveying a large corpus of German and some British and French travelogues travel handbooks and popular geographic texts and bringing to bear discourses of nationalism and geography including Edward Soja s seminal concept of Thirdspace Karin Baumgartner reveals what travel writing can tell us about conceptual changes in geographic paradigms and national identity in Germany in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Germany as a Culture of Remembrance Alon Confino,2017-03-01 An acknowledged authority on German history and memory Alon Confino presents in this volume an original critique of the relations between nationhood memory and history applied to the specific case of Germany In ten essays three never before published and one published only in German Confino offers a distinct view of German nationhood in particular and of nationhood in general as a product of collective negotiation and exchange between the many memories that exist in the nation The first group of essays centers on the period from 1871 to 1990 and explores how Germans used conceptions of the local or Heimat to identify what it meant to be German in a century of ideological upheavals The second group of essays comprehensively critiques and analyzes the ways laypersons and scholars use the notion of memory as a tool to understand the past Arguing that the case of Germany contains particular characteristics with broader implications for the way historians practice their trade Germany as a Culture of Remembrance examines the limits and possibilities of writing history Hazell's Annual ,1887 The Political Representation of Immigrants and Minorities Karen Bird,Thomas Saalfeld,Andreas M. Wüst,2010-10-06 This book breaks new ground in the analysis of the political representation of immigrants and visible minorities in European and North American democracies focussing on voting candiadate selection political parties and legislative behaviour Insights in sports social science Hans Westerbeek,Gayle McPherson,Jess C. Dixon,2023-06-22 The Fulfilment of the Revelation of St. John Displayed, from the Commencement of the Prophecy, A.D. 96, to the Battle of Waterloo, A.D. 1815 James Ivory HOLMES,1819
