Representing Victims Of Sexual And Spousal Abuse:

Representing Victims of Sexual and Spousal Abuse Nathalie Des Rosiers, Louise Langevin, 2002 In recent years victims of sexual and spousal abuse in Canada have been turning increasingly to civil courts to demand compensation for their loss and suffering In the context of growing public awareness and denunciation of violence against women and children the law must be able to meet the demands of these victims Originally published in French this new and updated translation identifies and addresses the issues that are raised by the recent emergence of recourse to civil litigation by victims of sexual and spousal abuse It outlines an egalitarian approach to the legal system one that takes into account the unique needs of women and children This work analyzes the conditions necessary to bring an action in civil liability for sexual and spousal abuse It describes the remedies available within the Quebec Civil Code as well as providing an analysis of Canadian Common Law jurisprudence on this issue Finally the book will also be of interest to jurists in civil law jurisdictions outside Canada and to scholars interested in comparative law

How to Account for Trauma and Emotions in Law Teaching Mallika Kaur, Lindsay M. Harris, 2024-06-05 Subverting the narrative that the legal profession must be austere and controlled this prescient How To guide addresses the crucial need for holistic trauma centred law teaching It advocates for a healthier more inclusive profession by identifying strategies to engage and even encourage emotions within legal education
