Requiem For A Futurologist:

Traduction de "Requiem for a futurologist" de Wole Soyinka Anne Dhuscher, 1988      Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide      Wole Soyinka: Literature, Activism, and African Transformation Bola Dauda, Toyin Falola, 2021-09-09 This timely and expansive biography of Wole Soyinka the Nigerian writer Nobel laureate and social activist shows how the author's early years influence his life's work and how his writing in turn informs his political engagement Three sections spanning his life major texts and place in history connect Soyinka's legacy with global issues beyond the borders of his own country and indeed beyond the African continent Covering his encounters with the widespread rise of kleptocratic rule and international corporate corruption his reflection on the human condition of the North South divide and the consequences of postcolonialism this comprehensive biography locates Wole Soyinka as a global figure whose life and works have made him a subject of conversation in the public sphere as well as one of Africa's most successful and popular authors Looking at the different forms of Soyinka's work plays novels and memoirs among others this volume argues that Soyinka used writing to inform mobilize and sometimes incite civil action in a decades long attempt at literary social engineering      World Encyclopedia of Contemporary Theatre Ousmane Diakhate, Hansel Ndumbe Eyoh, Don Rubin, 2013-10-18 Now available in paperback for the first time this edition of the World Encyclopedia of Contemporary Theatre series examines theatrical developments in Africa since 1945 Entries on thirty two African countries are featured in this volume preceded by specialist introductory essays on Anglophone Africa Francophone Africa History and Culture Cosmology Music Dance Theatre for Young Audiences and Puppetry There are also special introductory general essays on African theatre written by Nobel Prize Laureate Wole Soyinka and the outstanding Congolese playwright Sony Labou Tansi before his untimely death in 1995 More up to date and more wide ranging than any other publication this is undoubtedly a major ground breaking survey of contemporary African theatre      Transatlantic Engagements with the British Eighteenth Century Pamela J. Albert, 2017-07-12 Transatlantic Engagements with the British Eighteenth Century revisits eighteenth century cultural artifacts through the lens of creative works produced by contemporary writers Beryl Gilroy Guyana Derek Walcott St Lucia Wole Soyinka Nigeria and David Dabydeen Guyana While early studies of post colonization literature focused on how revisions of historical works write back to the British empire this study argues that trans historical cross cultural dialogues also reveal the global complexity of eighteenth century cultural forms i.e the periodical essay travel narrative pantomime satirical engraving and slave narrative By transforming the generic form of their eighteenth century sources the African and Caribbean writers in this study strategically call attention to the modes of storytelling utilized by eighteenth century writers Richard Steele Daniel Defoe Jonathan Swift William Hogarth Isaac Bickerstaff and Ignatius Sancho and subsequently expose how the encounters exchanges and acts of resistance taking place around the world influenced aesthetic experimentation in England Transatlantic Engagements with the British Eighteenth Century is thus a reconsideration of eighteenth century literature art and drama However because these engagements with British literature art and drama concurrently reflect twentieth century encounters with neocolonial oppression political violence and racism this study also proposes that engagements with the British eighteenth century double as inquiries into whether the modern world has progressed since the eighteenth century

Mirrors of Our Playing Thomas R. Whitaker, 1999 Examines the major paradigms that have influenced modern English speaking theater

A History of Christianity in Africa Elizabeth Isichei, 1995 Isichei's thorough study surveys the full breadth of Christianity in Africa from the early story of Egyptian Christianity to the churches of the Middle Years 1500 1800 to the prolific success of missions throughout the 1900s This important book fills a conspicuous void of scholarly works on Africa's Christian history Includes 26 maps

Mapping Intersections African Literature Association. Meeting, 1998 This book takes on the challenge What roles can and should African literature play in Africa's development From a variety of critical stances and perspectives the concepts of literature and of development are theorized to include and extend beyond inherited concepts and boundaries in the Humanities and the Social Sciences and thus to engage peoples everyday life experiences Approaches to the question of Africa's literature and its development range from African feminism or feminist practices to the economics and politics of public access to knowledge information and literature to communication networks and use of African languages in national education policies Twenty essays constitute the volume's four parts which focus on Diverse conceptualizations of African literature and development Critical studies of specific writers works linking their artistic development with issues and events of social or political development A philosophical consideration of the development's relationship to literature Models of activist pedagogy in African literature The structure of this volume is encompassed by two roundtable transcriptions with writers and critics for whom African literature and Africa's development is part of a larger struggle to create new space in which to thrive and envision new life inside and outside the academy

Creating Postcolonial Literature C. Davis, 2013-04-21 Using case studies this book explores the publishing of African literature addressing the construction of literary value relationships between African writers and British publishers and importance of the African market It analyses the historical political and economic conditions framing the emergence of postcolonial literature

Theatre in Nigeria Foluke Ogunleye, 2007 Building on earlier works on the African video film movement this book discusses The Dynamics of Finance in the Nigerian Traveling Theatre Christian Morality Plays in Nigeria Television Docudrama as Alternative Records of History Nigerian Tele Drama and Propaganda Money and Mercantilism in Nigerian Historical Plays History of the Ori Olokun Theatre and The Socio Economic Construct of the Nigerian Home Video Film
