Rereading Camara Laye:

Rereading Camara Laye Adele King, 2002-01-01 Camara Laye 1928-80 traveled to France from his native Guinea in 1947 on a scholarship to study automobile mechanics While there he was encouraged by a supporter of the French Union to record the memories of his childhood The resulting book L'Enfant noir was praised for its style and its uncritical attitude toward French colonization A year later Laye published Le Regard du roi a Kafkaesque story of a white man in Africa which was very different in tone style and content from L'Enfant noir and from any other African literature being published at the time L'Enfant noir and Le Regard du roi became seminal works of African fiction in French and were translated into English as The African Child and The Radiance of the King Adele King met Camara Laye in 1978 two years before his death and in 1980 published the principal study about him The Writings of Camara Laye In 1991 King set out to disprove rumors that Laye was not the author of one of his novels Le Regard du roi Instead she became convinced that the rumors were true and in the process unexpectedly discovered a far more interesting story about the creation of Laye as an author and public figure Rereading Camara Laye describes King's research which has taken more than ten years Her inquiry involved finding those who knew Laye in Paris in the 1950s and interviewing them when possible as well as examining documents in libraries and archives in France and Belgium King's findings provide important insights into French publishing and colonial politics in the years following World War II She also shows how interpretations of Laye's novels have been shaped by the assumption that they were written by an African

The Facts on File Companion to the French Novel Karen L. Taylor, 2006 French novels such as Madame Bovary and The Stranger are staples of high school and college literature courses This work provides coverage of the French novel since its origins in the 16th century with an emphasis on novels most commonly studied in high school and college courses in world literature and in French culture and civilization Impostors Christopher L.

Miller, 2018-12-10 Miller takes us on an exciting tour of postcolonial and world literature guiding us through the literary maze of the real and the pretenders to the real Ngugi wa Thiong'o author of Wizard of the Crow Writing a new page in the surprisingly long history of literary deceit Impostors examines a series of literary hoaxes deceptions that involved flagrant acts of cultural appropriation This book looks at authors who posed as people they were not in order to claim a different ethnic class or other identity These writers were in other words literary usurpers and appropriators who trafficked in what Christopher L. Miller terms the intercultural hoax In the United States such hoaxes are familiar Forrest Carter's The Education of Little Tree and J.T. LeRoy's Sarah are two infamous examples Miller's contribution is to study hoaxes beyond our borders employing a comparative framework and bringing French and African identity hoaxes into dialogue with some of their better known American counterparts In France multiculturalism is generally eschewed in favor of universalism and there should thus be no identities in the American sense to steal However as Miller demonstrates this too is a ruse French universalism can only go so far and do so much There is plenty of otherness to appropriate This French and Francophone tradition of imposture has never received the study it deserves Taking a novel approach to this understudied tradition Impostors examines hoaxes in both countries finding similar practices of deception and questions of harm In this fascinating study of intercultural literary hoaxes Christopher L Miller provides a useful brief history of American literary impostures as a backdrop for his investigation of France's literary history of ethnic usurpation Henry Louis Gates Jr New York Times bestselling author Maps of Empire Kyle Wanberg, 2020-06-26 Maps of Empire examines how literature was affected by the decay and break up of old models of imperial administration in the mid twentieth century Out in Africa Chantal J. Zabuz, 2013 Homosexuality was and still is thought to be quintessentially un African Yet in this book Chantal Zabuz examines the anthropological cultural and literary representations of male and female same sex desire from early colonial contacts between Europe and Africa in the nineteenth century to the present Covering a broad geographical spectrum from Mali to South Africa and from Senegal to Kenya and adopting a comparative approach encompassing two colonial languages English and French and some African languages Out in Africa charts developments in Sub Saharan African texts and contexts through the work of 7 colonial and some 25 postcolonial writers Islam, Ethics, Revolt Donald R. Wehrs, 2008-01-01 Rereading works by Camara Laye Cheikh Hamidou Kane Rachid Boudjedra Yambo Ouologuem Ahmadou Kourouma Mariama B and Assia Djebar this study explores the struggle to craft decolonized Islamic identities within sub Saharan and North African societies Linking the politics of these narratives to an Islamic piety rooted in ethical revolt against egotism and idolatry the study considers the agency of non Western values in postcolonial literature and the relationship between novelistic and prophetic discursive authority Dictionary of African Biography Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong, Professor Henry Louis Gates, Jr., 2012-02-02 From the Pharaohs to Fanon Dictionary of African Biography provides a comprehensive overview of the lives of the men and women who shaped Africa's history Unprecedented in scale DAB covers the whole continent from Tunisia to South Africa from Sierra Leone to Somalia It also encompasses the full scope of history from Queen Hatsheput of Egypt 1490 1468 BC and Hannibal the military commander and strategist of Carthage 243 183 BC to Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana 1909 1972 Miriam Makeba and Nelson Mandela of South Africa 1918 Contemporary Francophone African Writers and the Burden of Commitment Odile Cazenave, Patricia-Pia Célrier, 2011-02-02 By looking at engaged literature from the recent past when the francophone African writer was implicitly seen as imparted with a mission to the present when such authors usually aspire to be acknowledged primarily for their work as writers Contemporary Francophone African Writers and the Burden of Commitment addresses the current processes of canonization in contemporary francophone African literature Odile Cazenave and Patricia Célrier argue that aesthetic as well as political issues are now at the forefront of debates about the African literary canon as writers and critics increasingly acknowledge the ideology of form Working across genres but focusing on the novel the authors take up the question of renewed forms of commitment in this literature Their selected writers range from Mongo Beti Ousmane Sembène and Aminata Sow Fall to Boubacar Boris Diop V

ronique Tadjou Alain Mabanckou and L onora Miano among others Decolonizing Translation Kathryn Batchelor, 2014-04-08

The linguistically innovative aspect of Francophone African literature has been recognized and studied from a variety of angles over recent decades yet little attention has been paid to what happens to such literature when it is translated into another language Taking as its corpus all sub Saharan Francophone African texts that have ever been published in English this book explores the ways in which translators approach innovative features such as African language borrowings neologisms and other deliberate manipulations of French depictions of sociolinguistic variation and a variety of types of wordplay The implications of their translation decisions are drawn out with reference to the broader significances that are often accorded to postcolonial literature and earlier critics calls for a decolonized translation practice are explored from both a practical and theoretical angle These findings are used to push towards a detailed investigation of the postcolonial turn in translation studies drawing on the work of key postcolonial theorists such as Homi K Bhabha and Gayatri Spivak This is a timely and incisive critical assessment of contemporary discourses on the ethics and politics of translation Publishing Africa in French Ruth Bush, 2016 The history of post war writing in French has tended to separate African literature from French metropolitan literary production The same separation resonates in today s global French literary marketplace still dominated by Parisian publishing houses and metropolitan literary kudos This study historicises the aesthetic and socio economic implications of that evident asymmetry Archival research combines with literary analysis to explore the mediations that defined and legitimated notions of language authorship and literary value during the decolonizing vingt glorieuses Revealing known and less known connections between institutions such as Presence Africaine Editions du Seuil Gallimard and the Association descrivains de la mer et de l outre mer the author argues that a contested and variegated African literary presence was widely dispersed across the metropolitan publishing scene in this period These material aspects of book production and distribution are inextricably entangled with ongoing debates over the representation of Africa in words Authors whose work is considered in detail include Abdoulaye Sadjou Cheikh Hamidou Kane Christine Garnier Malick Fall Chinua Achebe and Peter Abrahams Publishing Africa in French uses an innovative interdisciplinary methodology to contribute fresh insights and new material to current concerns in French Studies African Studies the sociology of literature and book history
