Research On Managing Groups And Teams Volume 2:

Qualitative Organizational Research - Volume 2 Kimberly D. Elsbach, Beth A. Bechky, 2009-09-01 Over the past ten years the Davis Conference on Qualitative Research has become the world's leading conference for qualitative researchers in organizational studies. The authors of the Best Presentation Awards at the Davis Conference from the past four years have contributed chapters to this volume. These papers cover topics ranging from organizational name changes and organizational afterlife to the use of written letters to build relationships and the use of a creative foil to improve one's leadership image. Yet all of these papers are similar in that they benefited from the community of over 100 scholars developed through the Davis Conference and represent qualitative research at its very best. Research on Managing Groups and Teams Katherine W. Phillips, 2008

Time and Work, Volume 2 Abbie J. Shipp, Yitzhak Fried, 2014-02-18 The concept of time is a crucial filter through which we understand any events or phenomena; nothing exists outside of time. It conditions not only the question of when but also influences the what, how, and why of our ideas about management. And yet management scholars have rarely considered this temporal lens in understanding how time affects employees at work or the organizations for which they work. This 2-volume set provides a fresh temporal perspective on some of the most important and thriving areas in management research today. Volume 1 considers how time impacts the individual and includes chapters on identity, emotion, motivation, stress, and creativity. Volume 2 considers time in context with the organization, exploring a temporal understanding of leadership, HRM, entrepreneurship, teams, and cross-cultural issues. There is an overall concern with the practical implications of understanding individuals and organizations within the most relevant timeframes, while the two volumes provide an actionable research agenda for the future. This is a highly significant contribution to management theory and research and will be important reading for all students and researchers of Organizational Behavior, Organizational Psychology, Occupational Psychology, Business and Management, and HRM.

Making Innovation Last: Volume 2 Hubert GATIGNON, David Gotteland, Christophe Haon, 2015-11-02 Making Innovation Last considers the long-term success of a firm. Authored by a trio of top international scholars who present pioneering new work on what it takes to create long-term growth, the book examines the internal conditions that are likely to encourage sustainable innovation as well as what a culture of innovation should look like.

Diversity and Groups Katherine W. Phillips, 2008-08-01 Diversity results from the constellation of individual traits, characteristics, identities, experiences, and knowledge that individuals bring to a group. This volume helps to promote research on diversity in groups by identifying and integrating various areas of research related to diversity across multiple disciplinary traditions.

National Culture and Groups Ya-Ru Chen, Elizabeth A. Mannix, Margaret Ann Neale, R. Wageman, 2006-07-04 Based on the premise that in an era of rapid globalization while there is a great deal of convergence on many aspects of group processes and interactions across national cultures, it is the understanding and appreciation of the divergence among people of different national cultural backgrounds that make all the difference.
