Beyond Consent Jeffrey P. Kahn, Anna C. Mastroianni, Jeremy Sugarman, 1998-09-03 Patients with cancer and AIDS now clamor for access to clinical trials Federal policies governing research that once emphasized protecting subjects from dangerous research now promote access to clinical research Have claims about justice and access to the benefits of research eclipsed concerns about consent and protection from risks How can we make good and fair decisions about the selection of subjects and other questions of justice in research Beyond Consent examines the concept of justice and its application to human subject research through the different lenses of important research populations children the vulnerable sick captive and convenient populations women people of color and subjects in international settings To set the stage for this examination and introductory chapter addresses the evolution of research policies After a look at specific subject populations the authors discuss the concept of justice for research with human subjects in the future and analyze justice throughout the research enterprise Beyond Theory Stephen Toulmin, Bjørn Gustavsen, 1996-07-22 Action Research is one of the most practical and down to earth ways of doing research into working life Beyond Theory draws on examples and actual cases to discuss action research within the framework of the modern and postmodern theory of science debate While action research has been much criticized by the traditionalists the book reflects a convergence between action research and positions emerging out of the critique of scientific traditionalism Discussions between these two fields of knowledge originally so very different can enrich both The book will be useful not only to researchers and academics but to anyone who is interested in the role and use of knowledge in social and organizational development Global

Market-Marketing Research in 21st Century and Beyond Dan Vivek Nathan MBA MSc B.A FCIM (U.K), 2022-11-07 From reviews of Global Market Marketing Research in 21st Century and Beyond This comprehensive book provides a new platform for global market marketing researchers as well as for global strategic marketing management professionals I trust this book will find a particular place in the marketing management field both in global marketing research practice and education J Owens member of The Chartered Institute of Marketing UK Global Market Marketing Research in 21st Century and Beyond is a thoroughly researched and highly informative book with global statistical data enhanced by an excellence reference D Haywards The Institute of Statisticians Royal Statistical Society UK This unique book on global market marketing research in twenty first century and beyond should be given serious attention by global market marketing researchers as well as undergraduate and graduate students of business administration and marketing management This book has an up to date statistics on all aspects of digital global economy B Taylor member of The Chartered Institute of Marketing UK Beyond Regulations Nancy M. P. King, Gail E. Henderson, Jane Stein, 2005-10-12 Across a broad range of disciplines in medicine social science and the humanities researchers scholars teachers and administrators increasingly are looking for new ways to approach ethical issues in research with human subjects Questions about how relationships between funders and researchers should affect research design for example or whether the potential benefits of research can outweigh the importance of its subjects interests are inadequately addressed by the prevailing regulation based research ethics paradigm This book constitutes a reexamination of research ethics It combines case studies and commentaries by a multidisciplinary group of scholars and researchers to explore such topics as informed consent conflict of interest confidentiality and research on illegal behavior All human subjects research takes place within complex social cultural and political contexts the contributors argue Increased consideration of the relationships between researchers and their subjects funders and institutions within these contexts will facilitate research that is sensitive and responsible as well as scientifically fruitful Beyond Regulations features a keynote essay by Ruth Macklin Other contributors are Marcela Aracena Alvarez Jorge Balan B Susan Bauer Alan F Benjamin Lynn Blanchard Allan M Brandt J Pat Browder Barbara Entwisle Sue E Estroff Renee C Fox Lara Freidenfelds Gail E Henderson Nancy M P King Loretta M Kopelman Ernest N Kraybill Barry M Popkin Silvina Ramos Desmond K Runyan Jane Stein Ronald P Strauss Keith A Wailoo and Cynthia Waszak Across a broad range of disciplines in biomedicine the social sciences and the humanities researchers scholars administrators and teachers increasingly struggle with questions of ethics in research with human subjects All research takes place in complex social cultural political and economic contexts yet the prevailing principle based research ethics paradigm does not adequately account for them This book reexamines research ethics using a new relationships paradigm Through in depth cases commentaries and essays a multidisciplinary group of scholars and researchers addresses informed consent conflict of interest confidentiality and other issues considering questions like What relationships should researchers have with their subjects communities When researchers and subjects have different views about research who should have control How should relationships between funders and researchers affect research design Can research be so potentially beneficial that its importance outweighs the interests of subjects Examining the relationships between researchers and subjects communities funders and institutions including considerations of authority and voice can facilitate human subjects research that is morally sensitive and responsible as well as scientifically fruitful

Beyond Marginality Hollie J. Mackey, Elizabeth T. Murakami, 2018-09-01 The book Beyond Marginality Understanding the Intersection of Race Ethnicity Gender and Difference in Educational Leadership Research promotes new theoretical and conceptual frameworks for the study of race and ethnicity in educational leadership In this volume new generations of scholars of color are moving beyond research that has not been necessarily focused or generated by diverse groups The authors are purposeful in transcending systemic inequities and injustices in the stratified representation of practitioners and researchers by bringing in a new movement with innovative and impactful theoretical and conceptual frameworks in educational leadership

Decolonising the Future Academy in Africa and Beyond Michaela Pelican, Karim Zafer, Michael Bollig, 2025-02-27 What does it mean to decolonise academia in Africa Is this important project limited to the humanities Is it a project for the future Are there forerunners at African universities today The contributors to this volume show different trajectories for anthropology as a discipline and for decolonising academia across the continent and beyond They offer a variety of perspectives especially regarding collaboration between African and German scholars in the areas of research teaching and institutional development While some are hopeful and take inspiration from earlier experiences of disciplinary and methodological developments in academic decolonisation and international collaborations others remain critical and call for more radical attempts at decolonisation
